WARRENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Gahbert have completed their new home at Bonny Villa and have moved in. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clifton spent the week end in Portland visiting with his relatives. The Allen family is the proud possessor of two new steam cookers, won last week on a punch board by the family head, D. W. Allen. Portland visitors over Saturday and Sunday from Warrendale included Mr. and Mrs. George Houtz, Mrs. Art Davis and Mr. and Mrs. William Stienner. Ronnie Beck was placed under a doctor's care last week when he returned from school apparently seriously ill.

With the addition of two sets of easy seats from the Union Pacific stage line at the store, a bus stop, Mrs. W. Stienner completed the dressing-up process by varnishing the floors, an act which brought many compliments to the genial mistress of the busy family.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Clifton spent Saturday and Sunday at their Vancouver home.

B. S. Carter and family, of Portland, were added to the fast-growing lively addition last week. D. B. Lively, owner, is rushing work on new dwellings in the district, preparing for the spring rush.

Mrs. Carl Erickson was called to Portland last week to spend a few days with her niece, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jabor and Mrs. Gardiner, of the Locks, were Portland visitors last week.

Mrs. Withrow, of Willamina, spent the week-end visiting with her son, Harold, who is ill with the flu at his Warrendale home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren K. Dunn motored to Portland Saturday, accompanied by Paul Spice, government engineer. While in the city the Dunn's, at the invitation of Spice, joined the Press club.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Howell, of Portland, were visitors last week with Mrs. Howell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Dunn.

EAGLE CREEK

Newcomers to the Eagle Creek lodge community last week included Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lewallen, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Normily, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Shin and Mr. and Mrs. Alan J. Davis.

Two of the height's best known residents moved away last week. John Johnson going to Eastern Oregon and Rance Ramey to Pendleton. Their cabins were taken over by the Matlocks and the Fred Kents, respectively.

E. G. Gudhart, proprietor of the Eagle Creek lodge, was a Portland business visitor Saturday, as were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, of the Heights, over the week-end.

Mrs. Reed's faithful 10-year old fox terrier mysteriously disappeared last week. This is the second canine pet to wander off, Ed Johnson losing his dog recently.

Mrs. Herbert Day, of White Salmon, visited with her husband over the week end. Day has returned to his work on the dam after being laid up several days with a sprained arm.

Al Trangle, former owner of the Eagle Creek lodge, was the guest of Ernie Murkeson Sunday. Trangle reports business in Portland is picking up.

Mrs. Lyle Hickok spent the week-end at her mother's home in Hood River.

John Ingerland and Ed Johnson attended the state union meeting in Portland last week.

Guest of the John Ingerland's this week is Mr. Olsen, of Portland.

BONNY PARK

The continued absence of their ring-leader, Lieutenant Bonny Whitsett, left Bonny Park's now famed "Boar's Nest" a reputable looking dwelling last week, and though several officers dropped in for "social" visits, excitement and entertainment was lacking.

Children of the district were entertained by Jimmy Lash on his sixth birthday last week. 15 youngsters participating in the fun. They were: Connie Correll, Carol and Lillian Van Meter, Dennis Dyck, Virginia and Gladys Morris, Junior and Bebe McAdam, Della Jean Johnson, Joyce and Kent Myers, Jean Davis and Joanne Lash.

A. R. Nelson, Portland salesman, suffered severe head bruises, shock and broken ribs Monday morning, when in attempting to pass on a curve, he lost control of his car and struck an oncoming truck, driven by G. R. Bush, of Boardman. Bush suffered slight cuts, while two other men, one riding in each car, escaped unhurt. The accident, which occurred just east of Dodson, was Nelson's first in 27 years of driving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lash and daughter, Delora, of Portland, visited with the Jim Lash's over the week-end. Also Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert

Anderson, of Portland.

The race among inhabitants of the former railroad station of Dodson to be the first to have a lawn and flowers blooming, has apparently gone in favor of H. Matson, son who has all his bulbs planted and is ready to sow the grain seed.
