

CONCRETE POURING IN EAST END OF LOCKS

General-Shea men are rushing work on the up-river end of the deep-sea locks, pouring concrete to the 36-foot level so as to form a protective barrier between the powerhouse and the locks. The latter must be kept dry during the high-water, and the huge concrete slabs will have to be in place before the government's tentative safety date, April 15.

CASCADE LOCKS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. James Steele and family, of Portland, visited with L. Ostberg, Mrs. Steel's father, Sunday.

Miss Selma Gram, of The Dalles was the guest of Mrs. Manda Collins, phone operator, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Williams, of the West Coast Power company spent the week-end in Portland.

Lawrence Peterson and his brother-in-law, Mr. Anderson, of Clatskanie, spent the week-end with the former's father, August Peterson, who is ill with the flu.

Mrs. George Allman of Salem, was a Sunday visitor at the home of her mother in the Locks.

Mrs. Fred C. Anderson, Mrs. Doris Davis, Miss Jean Anderson and Morris Scranton were Portland visitors Thursday.

James Nichols, grade school student, has been seriously ill with what is believed to be tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bell and daughter, Bonita, of Portland, were Saturday visitors at the home of Mrs. Manda Collins.

Miss Eleanor Sprague is languishing in bed with an infected leg. The affliction set in following a severe scratch.

The baby child of the Malcom McKinnon's was operated on Wednesday, and is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

"Porky" Fancher, who came to Cascade Locks to take over the Bonneville bus line, says business is getting better every week with the fellows at the dam riding the bus for greater numbers. He and Mrs. Fancher have taken over the house vacated by the Almacks and are now snugly located in their new home.

Shirley Moore has recovered use of his good left eye after having had it hidden from public view for some days as the result of an accident. While working over a car a piece of glass struck the eye ball. Fear was expressed that the sight might be impaired but no serious harm seems to have occurred.

John Ellis, red-headed motorcycle deliveryman for the Lakeside Market, has accepted a position with a new store opening in Salem, and will leave immediately. His place will be filled by Scott Griffith, who will carry the meats in addition to his Epping's Red & White store groceries.

GEER NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Matta Lou Kirby, Mrs. Noble Hyde, Mrs. Albert Wang and Mrs. Charles Seigle were guests at a birthday party given Monday by Mrs. Ed Matheny at her airport home for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lucille Bradburn.

Noble Hyde, Locks literary genius, has been non-compasbanas with the crokitis the past few days. In other words Noble is suffering from the flu which has affected his vocal cords.

Mrs. Lucille Bradburn and Mr. and Mrs. Hyde, of the airport circle, visited at the home of Mrs. Bradburn's mother in The Dalles Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James William Critchfield, of the Lone Pine Service Station, were Portland business visitors last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gardiner, accompanied by Mrs. Lee Jaborra of Warrendale, enjoyed a trip up the highway Wednesday.

Barney Conlon, of Herman Creek, has returned to work after a lay-off of six weeks and can again be seen driving his favorite mule, Esmerelda.

Mrs. Kathryn Geer and Mrs. R. F. Steele, of Penn's tavern, were Troutdale visitors Wednesday.

Frank Moon has moved to Hood River, joining the Valley church parsonage. Harold Bailey, well known Oregonian carrier, also moved last week, journeying to Oregon City.

CANADIAN MAT CHAMP AGAIN IN TOP BOUT

Wildcat Johnson, Canadian middleweight champion, will wrestle his fourth straight main event for Promoter Jim Merrill Thursday night at the Locks pavilion, this time meeting the veteran Toby Christian of Portland, in a best two out of three falls match.

The Wildcat has scored consecutive victories over Ted Graham (twice) and Ray Lampman, two of Merrill's ace performers. In order to beat the villainous champ the genial promoter has imported one of Portland's best moan and groaners.

Tex Hager, who rapidly is becoming the most popular grappler on the string, will tangle with a newcomer in the semi-windup in Bill Avery, 150-pounder of Portland. Hager is highly pleasing as he wrestles cleanly and cleverly, never slowing down.

Cowboy Ted Graham, pride of the Locks, is slated to meet Young Kallo, Astorian, in a special event. The preliminary, which promises to be one of the best on the card will pit Tony Daro, 145, Gresham, against El Brady, of Portland.

BABY BONDS POPULAR

Almost $300 worth of government bonds were sold by Postmaster Henry Edlund at Bonneville in the first day of sale. The unexpected rush cleaned out the stock, but more have been obtainable. The first buyer was Harry Metzger, the largest purchaser, George Waale, contractor, who bought six. The name "baby" comes from the low price of the bonds, which may be purchased from $18.75 to $50.

CHURCH SERVICES

Community M. E. Church
Cascade Locks

Rev. Lewis F. Smith, Pastor.

Sunday School 10 a. m.

Public Worship 11 a. m.

Evening Service 7:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening.

Community Center - Chapel

Bonneville.

Rev. S. D. Trefren, Pastor.

Sunday School 10 a. m.

Preaching 11 a. m.

Entertainment 8 p. m.

SIZZLING STEAK

SERVED TO YOU TO YOU WHILE YET IN THE PROCESS OF COOKING
By

OUR SUPER CHEF
"Hy" Frager

Due to his efficient management we are able to offer increased quality of food that is kind to your stomach as well as your pocketbook!

COMMUNITY CENTER CAFE
On The Reservation

Give Hubby A Break

Suprise him with something different in the Meat line.

May We Suggest

RABBIT
CHICKEN

STEER BEEF
SEA FOODS

Lakeside Market

Motorcycle Delivery Service

Phone 17

Cascade Locks

GOOD FOOD AND GOOD BEER

IN A

Pleasant Atmosphere

MEETINGS

EAGLES

THURSDAY

FRENCH'S COFFEE SHOP AND RECREATION CENTER

ON THE HIGHWAY AT GATE IN BONNEVILLE

G. A. COBB

ATTORNEY AT LAW

Cascade Locks, Oregon

COMING MARCH 29

'Clovertime'

3-ACT COMEDY

All Star Cast

CASCADE LOCKS
HIGH SCHOOL

Buy Your Tickets Now