Chic Leather Fashions for Spring

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

A LONG comes leather to add to the new spring mode. And such leathers—most beautiful and rich, exquisitely colored, dainty and supple suedes, kidskins and calfskins designed with arresting dressmaker details that bring them smartly into the current high-style parade.

Only seeing is believing as to the perfectly marvelous things being accomplished in the realm of costume design this spring. Which reminds us to say to those who have hitherto held to the idea that garments fashioned of leather belong solely to the sports wardrobe, the time has come to change your way of thinking.

Out Hollywood way where the newest, smartest fashions go on parade in advance of the rest of the world, leather for dress occasions has been accepted with genuine enthusiasm. A movie star of distinction wears a lovely evening gown of shell pink suede. At a smart gathering, an evening mess jacket was noted styled of white suede with a white galyak collar.

A leading designer in the French capital has created a charming evening coat, three-quarter length, of soft, supple brown leather embellished with intricate cutwork design, posed over brown lacquered satin. From Paris also comes the message that the haute couture is creating fetching little daytime dresses suitable for town activities. These attach chamols jumpers in smart new colors to wool skirts. Wide leather belts with bizarre metal fastenings complete the costume.

By the way, if you want your costume to carry a sure-fire style message wear chamols accessories. Swank gilets, boleros, lapels on spring coats and suits are made of chamols. Other jaunty items include handstitched chamols scarfs, belts, berets, slip-on gloves and roomy bags with contrast stitching.

You can see from the illustration that the new leather jackets are well, they are just too good looking for words, that's what they are. For early spring these costumes which top a checked wool skirt with a gay colored suede jacket, are not only ideal to wear but they have that out-of-the-ordinary look and being "different" they offer a welcome diversion from the regulation cloth tailleur. What's more, they are as outstandingly modish for town and travel as they are practical for country and sports wear.

The gay colors of the new suede jackets delight the eye. The simple model on the standing figure is in a mosaic rust shade. Its sash-belt and turn over collar are chic features.

The modish sportswoman seated in the foreground is wearing one of the very new jackets that are styled with knit sleeves and collar. You can have it in any smart colors, such as Robinhood red, rust, green or in the much-talked-of amber. Of course the checked woolen skirt must carry corresponding colors. A Tyrolean suede hat, pig-skin gloves and calf oxfords complete this, smart outfit.

The wonderfully attractive jacket on the figure seated to the right is most happily tuned to a colorful spring. It goes in for zigzag red, white and blue stitching, which is a chic move on its part, since the emphasis this season is decidedly on fancy and lavish stitching.

GRAY ACCESSORIES TONE COLOR SCHEME

New Idea Is Popular With the Younger Set.

Just to be different, the younger set has taken up gray accessories to don with vivid costumes.

The effect, it must be admitted, is both effective and new, and also serves as a restraining note in the carnival of color now under way in the style parade.

A striking example seen recently was a vivid raspberry red tweed suit, trimmed in gray krummer, with slate gray belt, shoes, gloves and handbag in suede.

Another nicely worked out color scheme used slate gray suede in accessories with a bright green top-coat of tweed. The brimmed sports hat was of gray felt, the hand-sewn gloves, walking shoes and handbag of gray suede, and the ascot scarf of soft gray flannel.

Accessories are showing originality and dash these days.

And a new idea in the accessory line is to have a matching waist-coat and scarf of bright plaid woolen to wear with a solid-color tweed suit.

Styles Designed for Shape as It Should Be.

Back to normal is the feminine shape. Fashions are designed for the figure that is as it should be. Those reedy darlings who cast a shadow of broomstick proportions are no longer envied. They're lapping up their cream like so many kittens and they're wolfing down their cereals in the morning.

Adipose upholstery is no more popular than it has ever been, but bones must be neatly padded, the feminine anatomy a harmonious combination of lines and natural curves.

How is the featherweight going to chuck the boyish shape, be womanly looking? She must go in for those exercises that produce a high chest and small, lifted rounded breasts. Deep breathing will help, but callisthenics that give hard pulls on muscles will prove a speedier method of expansion.

Effective Trim

Facings of a contrasting color or fabric are much in evidence, introduced at necklines, cuff edges, hemlines and slashed panels.

Touches of Pigskin Are Predicted by Stylists

Pigskin will not be confined to bags and shoes in the spring wardrobe, according to style predictions. It will be featured on street dresses in the form of belt and as bodice lacing. One of the most attractive frocks recently displayed was made of navy wool with beige pigskin used as a trim belt and as bodice lacing.

Doctors Know!

... and they use liquid laxatives

You'd use a liquid, too, if you knew how much better it makes you feel.

A liquid laxative can always be taken in the right amount. You can gradually reduce the dose. Reduced dosage is the secret of real and safe relief from constipation.

Just ask your own doctor about this. Ask your druggist how popular liquid laxatives have become. The right liquid laxative gives the right kind of help—and the right amount of help. When the dose is repeated, instead of more each time, you take less. Until the bowels are moving regularly and thoroughly without aid.

People who have experienced this comfort, never return to any form of help that can't be regulated! The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara, and these are natural laxatives that form no habit. It relieves a condition of biliousness or sluggishness without upset.

To relieve your occasional upsets safely and comfortably, try Syrup Pepsin. The druggist has it.
