

MEETING IS CALLED TO ORGANIZE YACHT CLUB

Plans of the formation of a local yacht club are being completed by Herschel Shreve, U. S. Guard, a former licensed officer of the U. S. Merchant Marine. A founders meeting will be held at French's cafe, Bonneville, at eight o'clock, Friday, March 22. Among those expected to be present are: Captain Howard Rigler, A. H. Kellogg, Elmer Shrock, Heinie Bellarts, Bill Karven, K. A. Ayers, Ed Cosby, R. R. Rudolph, J. W. Miles, W. I. Graham, C. M. Andrews, Frank Marshall, G. W. Howe, Harry Lee, Jack Bracey and Wallace Macgregor.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Sawyer and daughter wednesday, visited the family of E. S. LaCombe, at Odell, Oregon.

LOCKS LADS INTEREST BOY SCOUT EXECUTIVE

Parents and boys interested in the scout troop now in formation at Cascade Locks, gathered Monday night at the high school to hear William F. Johnson, field executive for the Portland area, speak on scout work and explain the steps necessary for forming the troop.

Following the brief speech, Jack Travis, acting scoutmaster, divided the 20 boys into three patrols, and announced that the boys would have an opportunity of passing their tenderfoot tests Saturday afternoon, so that by Monday night, the next meeting date, actual formation steps could be taken.

Miss Josephine Gage, Mrs. Libby Lacey, Tommy Brennan and Morris Scranton, were Hood River visitors.

Community Fair

The Bonneville Woman's Club will hold their "Community Fair," first of its type to be staged in this district, Friday night at the Bonneville school. Members of the local American Legion post and students will aid the ladies wherever possible.

Amusement and refreshment booths will be numerous, but the main attraction will be the famous, celebrated and internationally known Bonneville "Kitchen" orchestra. Short plays, vaudeville and novelty entertainment are included in the evening's program.

The purpose of the fair is to raise money for the school's much needed piano, and the work of the club, under the leadership of President Mrs. Stanley E. Wells, deserves the support of the entire community.

ALDERWOOD BRIDGERS WIN TO EVEN SERIES

Members of the Alderwood Country Club, Portland, won the second half of a home-and-home bridge tournament Thursday night in the guest house from the pick of the reservation. The visitors were also taken on a tour of the dam during their short stay.

Winning margin was 4800 points. The previous match was taken by the Bonneville, who bettered their opponents by 2820 points. A third, or rubber match, has been discussed. Those participating were:

Bonneville: Captain J. S. Gorlinski, Leo Miller, Albert Bauer, Ben Torpen, Horace Skinner, Howard Rigler, William Laxton, Harold Ritcher, Jack Miller, Arnold Henny, Charles Johnson and Leo Summerville.

Alderwood: Dr. E. L. Metschan, Captain N. H. Anderson, O. J. Miller, B. Bert, A. H. Craig, C. Meyers, John Lichty, Dr. R. B. Watson, J. Aherm, B. Wolverton, E. M. Moeton, A. Welant, F. M. Blankenship, H. D. Janger, M. Hunter, R. Woodruff, A. H. Gould and Ralph Shattuck.

Mrs. William Keeler was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

WEATHER IN BAD MOOD; SNOW FALLS ON HILLS

March weather of the past week has been as temperamental and uncertain as a spoiled child. Hard rains have fallen, causing the river to rise slightly, and Thursday night snow fell on the mountains. Flowers and fruit trees are further advanced in the Willamette valley than in the Gorge, but at the Craigmont hotel property the almond trees are beginning to bloom. The daffodils are in full bloom in the fields below Corvallis, but are just coming into bloom in the dam district.

John Kelly, writing in The Oregonian, declares the United States senate has degenerated into a circus. Once the foot and mouth disease gets a foothold it is hard to stamp out.
