CASCADE LOCKS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Erickson attended the wedding of their son, Elton, to Miss Paula Darrison, in Portland Saturday. Sunday afternoon the Ericksons attended the wedding dinner at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Olin Harrison.

Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" Carns motored to Hood River Tuesday, as did Mrs. Mae Silvia, popular owner of the Bridge of the Gods hotel, the following day.

Fred Gray, hero of last year's prize salmon marks (one weighing 48 1-2 pounds, a total of 74 fish for the season) tested the rapids Sunday, but reported the chinook run has not yet started.

Mrs. Joe Burt, of the Lakeside hotel, was confined to bed several days this week with a severe cold that threatened pneumonia.

Morris Scranton, Locks lad, has departed for Seattle to take up a position in a factory there with his brother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe were Portland visitors Friday.

Also in the city during the week were Ira Owens, Joe Burt and Doc tor Fred Folsom. Burt's was a business trip, but the other pair, Saturday night "pleasure before business" reigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hewitt are doing their part in the spring clean-up campaign. The Lakeview addition pair are painting the interior of their modern home and laying a new floor.

Lou Duncan returned to the Locks Saturday night after a three week's stay in Oakland, California.

Mrs. Lee Ducette and her daughter moved to Portland last week, leaving only Mr. Ducette to take care of the fine Lakeview addition home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Livingston and family, of Portland, visited with the former's mother, Mrs.
Grace Scott, Sunday.

Guests at a surprise party given Monday for Mrs. William Sundsten on her birthday included: Mrs. Charles Haggblom, Mrs.
George Haggblom, Mrs. Charles Olin, Mrs. E. Granstrom, Mrs. B.
Granstrom, Mrs. Carl Rosenback, Miss Helen Merrill, Mrs. Arthur Sundsten, Mrs. Herbert Frasier, Mrs. Arthur Warren, Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mrs. E. Erickson, Mrs. F.
W. Reuterskiold, Mrs. Carl Reu-terskiold and Mrs. L. L. Sprague.
Severe cold forced Mrs. Jack Eimer, of the Variety shop, to spend a day in bed this week.

Del Easley, of Stevenson, was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Nix.

Mrs. James Wainwright, of Portland, visited with her husband at the Columbia hotel over the week-end.

The butchering trio, Melvin, Wesley and Wendell Andrews, spent the week-end at their Gresham home. Their assistant, George Linton, also resided with his parents in the small town over Saturday and Sunday.

The W. C. "Tuck" Andersons visited friends and relatives in Portland and Lebanon Tuesday.

The J. D. Kyles have a new car, at least it's new to us, although they have been driving it almost three weeks.

The concrete protective wall in front of the West Coast Power company's Locks office was completed Monday by Cascade Lumber men. It is to prevent the new highway grade from sliding into the front yard of Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph J. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hewitt and daughter, Donna Jean, spent Sunday and Monday in Portland, celebrating Mr. Hewitt's birthday.

Virgil Myers, nephew of Jack Stark, has returned to Kansas after a six months visit here.

Mrs. Annie Withman, of the Columbia hotel, shopped in Portland Tuesday.

Miss Margaret Lacy and Miss Catherine Walker, Locks school teachers, motored to Portland for the week-end in Mrs. Richart's car. The former stayed with friends, the latter at her home.

Noble F. Hyde, Locks post, saw his mother, Mrs. J. W. Tedrow, for the first time in five years, when she arrived early Wednesday morning by train from Cloverdale, Michigan. Mrs. Tedrow will spend two months with her son.

Marr Uger visited at her Portland home Sunday. Also in the city this week was Mrs. Vern Henderson.

Mrs. Fred Anderson, wife of the Dew Drop inn owner, was confined to her bed four days last week with a minor nervous breakdown.

With a carpenter crew of five men working day in and day out, regardless of weather, the Odd Fellows new lodge hall, on Main street in the Locks, is rapidly taking shape.
