

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL NEWS

The third and fourth grade class is interested in stamp collecting. Mrs. Waring has been kind enough to teach the children about the different stamps on Tuesday of every week.

The fifth grade has increased in population in the coming of Donald McFadden, of Seattle. He also has a brother, Jerry McFadden, in the eighth grade.

The fifth and sixth grade dramatic class will complete the work outlined for this year Friday. We are planning to take a more active part next year, when the auditorium will be ready for use.

The junior chorus, composed of seventh and eighth grade girls, is planning to go to Russellville

April 28 and participate in the Multnomah spring festival. They are practicing numbers to be sung there this week.

Mrs. Emmons, assistant county school superintendent, visited the school Friday. She gave a short but interesting talk at the student-body meeting.

Teachers of the Bonneville school attended institute in Portland last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson stayed over and saw Jean Stratton Porter's "Laddie," which they reported was very good.

Fifth and sixth grade art class is beginning a project on photograph albums. They are making the entire book, and it will require four or five art periods.

The Schoolboy Sluggers won the championship of the school in the final league game last week. New teams, for the coming games, were also picked. Captains were Jack Wilson, Harvey Bolin and Billy Noble.

BONNA VILLA

Sunday visitors at the C. I. Grim home included Mrs. Lyla Ostrand, of Portland; Charles Pullun, Oregon State college student, who visited with the Grims son, Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Waddle and daughter, June, of Springfield.

Four large homes, of the most modern type, were completed by D. R. Kibler Monday in his Bonnevill addition to Bonny Villa. The quartet will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. O. L. M. Hauser, of the Bonneville Drug company, who have been living at Moffett Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Ancil Hoffman; Mr. and Mrs. Schimm, who returned here from Grand Coulee, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Laird, transfers from another Kibler cabin.

Work was also gotten under way on three other homes in the popular 40-mile post colony by Kibler. Addition are to be made to the residences of the Bud Winslows, O. H. Johns and Richard Goodrichs.

Hal Babbitt, co-owner of the Bonny Villa tavern, spent his bi-monthly Sunday off in Hood River, rounding his golf game into shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellen and the George Bellens and daughter, all of the Shady Nook community, motored to Portland for the week end.

Shopping in the Locks Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dippery and Mrs. Bud Winslow.

Portland travelers from Bonnevill last week included Mr. and Mrs. Bud Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turrish and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johns.

Shady Nookers also journeyed to the city during the past seven days, no less than ten residents spending a day or more. They were the Dunmire brothers, Ernie and Roy; the Griffin brothers, Ray and Harvey; Paul Cook, Al Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Baggert.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edlund, of the Bonneville postoffice, will take over the Bonnevill home left vacant by the Fred Lairds, who are transferring their belongings to a larger 40-mile camp house.

Mrs. Stanley Johnson's parents, the Whites, of Seattle, are visiting this week.

The James Faubions, of Eagle Creek heights, were Friday night guests of the Richard Goodrichs.

Charles F. Beaty and R. C. Anderson, of Portland, have purchased Ray Griffin's trailer house at Shady Nook, and plan to live in the popular little community. Griffin recently built himself a new trailer house.

Mrs. Stanley Johnson, Mrs. Robert Perrin, Mrs. S. S. Fulkerson and Miss Victoria Ford motored to Hood River Saturday on a shopping tour.

Mrs. Robert Perrin's father, mother and sister, and Mr. Perrin's mother, all of whom live in Portland, spent Sunday afternoon in the dam district.

Mrs. Charles Black entertained her sister and niece, of Portland, Sunday afternoon at Bonnevill.

Mrs. S. S. Fulkerson, who returned from Portland Tuesday with her husband, left Wednesday for a two weeks stay in Seattle.

The student-body passed several laws last week, which went into effect the first of April. Steven Strom was instrumental in carrying them out.

BONNEVILLE

Mrs. Calhoun, representing Mary Cullen's home economics department of the Journal, was guest speaker at the bi-monthly meeting of the Bonneville Women's club Thursday, in the Community Chapel. A large turn-out greeted the visitor enthusiastically and thoroughly enjoyed her talk. Mrs. Stanley Wells, president, announced that Mrs. C. A. Saunders, of Cascade Locks, would give a piano recital at the meeting of April 18.

Mrs. Don Orput was a Portland visitor Friday, and Mr. Orput on Saturday, the latter motoring in on business, the former on a shopping tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goff and Mr. and Mrs. William Laxton were Saturday night dinner guests of the Henry Masons last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller and children motored to Yakima for the week-end, visiting with Mrs. Miller's relatives.

Mrs. Arnold Henny, Mrs. Jack Miles, Mrs. Ben Torpen and Mrs. William Laxton motored to Portland last week on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spencer, of Eugene, were Thursday visitors at the home of the Don Orputs, on the government reservation.

Dave Marvin motored to Portland Saturday afternoon on an emergency call, taking Charles Carruthers, sick Locks carpenter, to the Veteran's hospital. Marvin is commander of the local Legion post, Carruthers a member.

LOCKS NEEDS TEACHER

The Locks Chamber of Commerce appointed a committee of three, composed of Louie Folsom, Roy Barnes and G. E. Miller, at its regular meeting last Thursday, to meet with the county school board this week and request full or part-time services of an additional teacher in the high school.

ALLEN CLARK INJURED

Allen Clark, General-Shea carpenter, received minor but painful injuries Sunday afternoon when he slipped from his perch in the powerhouse, landing on a single upright bar of reinforcing steel. The heavy bar penetrated his loin to a depth of four inches.
