PROGRESS NUMBER 30

Bob Andrews and Max Millsap move within the week into their new quarters in the Odd Fellows hall. Postmaster Frank Hall is moving the postoffice into the new structure, too. A new grocery store is going into Silver Perras' building. A new woman's dress shop is locating in the building with Oscar Hyde. Power and light poles are being relocated for the new highway through town. Cascade Locks moves on. We congratulate it and wish it luck.

WEST COAST POWER CO.

MATMEN GRUNT

AS FANS CHEER

Eddie McMillen of Denver triumphed over "Spud" Murphy of Portland in the rough-and-tumble main wrestling event at Merrill's pavilion Thursday night.

After seven minutes of Murphy's rough and ready tactics, Mac gained the first fall with a body scissors and armbar. A body punch won Murphy the second, with McMillen taking the third in a handsome body slam. Murphy resented Referee "Rough-House" Keith's decision; told him and McMillen what he thought of them; left the ring fighting mad.

In the semifinals Tony Darro, Jack Gorman and Referee Keith all seemed to be in the fight at the finish from the struggling mass of bodies. Referee Keith emerged to hold up Darro's arm in token of victory.

The first bout saw Billie Avery and Indian Ockley struggle to a draw, with fans of the opinion that the redskin had a bit of the edge on the white boy, especially during the first few minutes.

No bout will be held this coming Thursday.
