EAGLE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ranke returned this week from a 10-day visit to Seattle, where Mr. Ranke appeared as witness in a court trial.

At a shower for Mrs. Van Skimhorn last week end were present Mrs. Art Fleming, Miss Fern Ware, Mrs. Roland McFarland, Mrs. Bert Birkenliere, Mrs. F. H. Hale, Mrs. Alfred Ware and Mrs. Herbert Bean.

Lloyd Bates received the visit of his two-year-old daughter from Portland last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bean motored to Portland over the week end.

Mrs. Frank Moran and children returned Monday from a four day visit to Lebanon for the 59th birthday party of Mrs. Myrtle Fee, Mrs. Moran's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Kissinger entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bates and daughter Vera, Mrs. Kissinger's brother and wife, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shoop this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Matlock were visited for dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCristy of Cascade Locks last week.

S. E. Kissinger, caterpillar man for Columbia Construction company, has been laid up for a week with a strained back, but is recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

The new addition to the H. W. Matlock family is now accustomed to his new surroundings. He's a little wooly pup, six weeks old, with ancestry shared by coyote, police dog and Alaskan husky. Residents of the upper circle are awaiting with interest his growing-up to see what shape he'll be. Herbert Bean's unexpected talent for singing was revealed Saturday night at the Horn club when his fine tenor voice was heard to the accompaniment of Don Ingerlund's accordion.

Ed Johnson returned home Sunday from fishing near Tillamook creek with four fine salmon, 24 to 30 inches long, to find Mrs. Johnson had sprained her ankle.

Irvy Hall's white bandage covers an eye injured during the week. No serious damage was reported done.

Mrs. Glen Brauer entertained the weekly session of the upper circle bridge group last week. Present were Masdmes Hugh Ping, T. G. Warring, James Faubion, Lyle Hickok, James Bell, Edward Clark and E. C. McMaster.

Mrs. E. C. McMaster of Portland visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark last week.

WARRENDALE

Mr. and Mrs. Gerge Houtz spent several days fishing at Waldport, on the ocean beach, last week.

When Mrs. Lee Jaborra returned from a visit to Seattle last week her husband had a pleasant surprise for her—a new sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bousha have moved into their completely equipped trailer house.

J. J. Westerlund spent Saturday in Portland on business.

D. B. Lively of Portland is supervising the general clean-up of his grounds, including the making of new flower and rock gardens and the planting of lawn.

Dan Leach, who sustained a sprained ankle several weeks ago, is recovering slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Walk visited with Mr. Walk's grandmother in Portland last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Tilley visited friends at Scappoose last week.

William Steiner's new two-pump service station, now building on the east side of the store, will soon be open for business. The gasoline pump in front of the store will be moved to the new building.

Mrs. Carl Erickson is a Portland visitor.

E. May is doing a particularly noticeable job this week of fixing the grounds in front of his house to include a lawn, flower beds and large rock gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Silvers visited Don and Ollie Wickhizer at Lents last week.

An artistic piece of crayon drawing, the head of a young woman, is on display in Steiner's store this week. The artist, Viola Beecher, draws for recreation, does work as good as a professional, doesn't want it mentioned.

Mrs. B. Carter spent the week end in Seattle visiting her par-
