"Say, do you know how long elephants should be fed?"

"Oh, the same way you feed short elephants."

"Say, I remember you! Weren't we messmates in the navy?"

"Sure. You used to get into the same messes I did."

WYETH

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kirby and Mr. and Mrs. Noble Hyde drove Mrs. J. W. Tedrow to Hood River Friday, where she caught the train for her home in Cloverdale, Mich. During her two months stay with the Hydys she gained 11 pounds, enjoyed the scenery and climate so much she regretted leaving.

Ed Matheny is filling a sizeable contract for hauling gravel for Paul Flegel and Jim Rich's new Richfield service station at Bonneville.

G. E. Corning is now living at the Ed Matheny house. Mr. Corning came from Big Springs, Nebr., to take charge of the government emergency airport following Noble Hyde's resignation.

Noble Hyde resigned his job last week as keeper of the emergency airport, anticipating passage of the veterans' bonus, the old age pension and the coming of summer. This week Noble Hyde gets a-fishing, glad that summer is here at least.

ENGINEERS VOYAGE UP SNAKE FOR SURVEYS

Army engineers sailed from Umatilla for Lewiston last week aboard the United States engineers' launch, Sandy, to continue their surveys on the Snake river in preparation for the report upon Bonneville dam by Glen Farrington, her skipper.

Major H. A. Skerry was in charge of the party, which included W. H. Rucker and Allan L. Darr. The Sandy, a 26-knot craft, was brought upriver from Bonneville dam Sunday by Glenn Farrington, her skipper.

When the engineers complete their Snake river report, it is expected that construction of a series of dams on the Snake to provide a 7-foot channel to Lewiston will be recommended. The dam across the Columbia at Umatilla would be necessary to make shipping to the mouth of the Snake possible.

CECILIANI LENDS TRUCK FOR LOCKS ROSE FLOAT

Cascade Locks float in Portland's Rose Festival parade will be carried on a truck donated by C. Cecilian, garbage man for the district, he told the Locks chamber of commerce.

Sketches for the float have been made by Hal Babbitt of Bonny Villa, to be approved by the chamber at today's meeting before detailed drawings are made. The float will probably have a sail boat as center of attraction, to typify the expected importance of Cascade Locks as a river port when Bonneville dam is finished.

Funds for the float are being raised through sale of Rose Festival buttons, entitling the wearer to admission to all events. Approximately $100 has been subscribed up to this week.
