

CASCADE LOCKS NEWS

Richard Potts went to The Dalles Friday to join George Lind picking cherries and peas. Floyd Potts returned last week after two weeks with Lind in the orchards.

J. W. Rowntree, proprietor of the Columbia Gorge hotel at Hood River, was a business visitor Friday.

Parker Hilly, returned from his home in Chicago to the Locks Friday morning. After a taste of the west, he just couldn't stay at home, they say.

Miss Lenna Collins is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. Manda Collins, following her graduation from Albany high school.

Mrs. Grace Easley's birthday Friday was the cause for the party given in her honor by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. MacKinnon.

Everill Broliar celebrated his 18th birthday last week with a party downstairs in the Dew Drop inn. A large number of friends were present.

Angelo Immordiani is expected to arrive from San Francisco this week. Angelo Cartomeglio will arrive from Chicago within the next week or two.

Mrs. C. C. Chapman and son, Mark, now make their home with Mr. Chapman here, arriving last week after school was out in Portland.

Miss Laura Eskelson left last week for Lexington after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harrison.

Anderson and Gibson Harrison left Thursday for The Dalles to pick cherries. They expect to return in two weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Blake returned home from the Portland hospital where she was confined with a broken arm.

A new concrete porch was built on the Jim Merrill residence last week by Colin Merrill.

A Dalles Freight Line truck came too close to a telephone pole in Portland, returned to Cascade Locks to have a new right side built on the body by Ben Scott. Damage was immaterial except for the smashed panelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shea, Jr., moved last week to Portland from the Rose apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams are being visited for several weeks by their eight-year-old nephew, Robert Brock, Jr., whom they drove back last week from Clatskanie where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brock, Sr.

Mrs. Karl Rosenback and Helen and Henry Rosenback left Saturday morning for a visit with friends in Aberdeen, Wash.

Miss Katherine Karavanich was recently married to J. Goetz at Monterey, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrison are being visited by Mrs. John Burke and daughter, Jean, of Newberg.

Marie Miller and Betty Keller of The Dalles were Saturday evening guests of Everill Broliar.

Chuck Hill is almost a hero this week. He can't swim, but that did not daunt him Thursday when he saw Lucille Anderson struggling to climb the bank out of the murky waters of Government lake at the airport. Courageously he jumped in feet first to land with a thud. The water was only slightly over ankle deep. Jean Anderson and Curly Helvogt were still laughing when the forerunner came back to town.

S. E. Sporseen left last weekend for a three-week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mart in Oakland, Calif.

R. D. Jacobus of Centralia, Wash., arrived Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Piper for several weeks.

Mrs. Fred Anderson thinks she will have to apply for a driver's license before she can navigate her wheelchair around town. She was wheeled out into the air for the first time Thursday since her automobile accident several months ago. She was visited last week by her aunt, Mrs. Mabel Anderson from Valley Junction, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ellis have gone to Grants Pass, where Mr. Ellis will be employed. They plan to return in several months.

Mrs. Pat Wilson was a visitor to Hood River Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williams were entertained Sunday evening at a pinocle party given by Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevens. Mrs. Williams was a visitor to Portland on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harrison spent the weekend in Newberg with Mr. and Mrs. John D. Burt, who were visiting the Harrisons here that week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Piper and son, Bobbie, went to Portland Saturday to meet Mrs. Piper's father, R. D. Jacobus, of Centralia, Wash.

Hugo Mort, who lives at New Deal cafe, is recovering in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland from a broken shoulder sustained when he fell from scaffolding in Tooth rock tunnel, where he was working. He will not be able to return until the bones knit, expected in a month or more.

Nells Sandberg was a Portland visitor over the weekend.

Lloyd Mallory is spending the summer with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Mallory. Lloyd has just returned from his first year at Oregon State college in Corvallis, where he will return this fall.

Mrs. William Sundsten is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. E. Johnson, in Portland. She is expected to return before Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Checkettes have purchased a lot, plan to build a new home soon in the Anderson addition. The Checkettes now live in Eagle creek circle, back of Moran's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. "Tuck" Anderson motored to Albany over the weekend on business and pleasure.

The new partially enclosed booth section of the Horn club will be opened next week. The section, located where the old barber shop was, will have its own entrance, will seat 14 at tables, is expected to attract family trade.

Several small boys are complaining of tummy aches this week. Suspected reason: cherries are ripening on the trees.

L. H. Livingston is recovering in Good Samaritan hospital in Portland following a toe amputation several weeks ago. Doctors now believe that should no complications set in, he will be able to leave the hospital in about a month, after which an extended rest will be necessary before he will be able to take much strenuous exercise.

Leroy Wheeler of Denver is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hill. He is foreman for Gates Rubber company in Denver. The Hills are expecting this week Mrs. James Boyle and two children, who are coming from Denver by way of California.

Mrs. Clayton Rand was called to Butte, Mont., by the serious illness of her father, for whom little hope is held for recovery. Mrs. Rand had just returned from visiting her father in Butte.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson were visited Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dillon of Vancouver, Wash. When the Dillons left, they took Mrs. Anderson, wheelchair and all, to Vancouver with them to spend several days.

Bill Johnny, after a month or so in Portland, returned to the Locks last weekend.

Four new booths, seating 16 persons, were installed Sunday on the east end of Merrill's tavern.

Mrs. Max Millsap, Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Mrs. Ed Johnson spent Monday in Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson were visited Sunday by Brother Harry Nelson of Albany, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strader visited friends in Hood River Saturday evening.

Miss Macy Elizabeth Johnson was visited Sunday by her mother, Mrs. Gustaf Alvin Johnson, her sister, Miss Emily Jane Johnson, her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stanley and daughter, Katherine Frances, all of Portland.

Carl Epping all by himself Sunday fished Herman creek to bring back 25 trout from eight to 12 inches long, cussed when a tire blew out on his way back.

Pete Gandelph has returned after a brief absence.

Ed Johnson is now working for OHS on the railroad relocation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Miller left Monday night for a month's vacation visiting friends in Michigan and Wisconsin.

Ranger and Mrs. Albert Wiesendanger are now in residence at Eagle creek ranger station. Mr. Wiesendanger had hoped to come about May 1, but work in the Portland office delayed him until last week.

C. Hagbloom is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Heppner, in Warrenton.

Miss Helen Rosenback is visiting Miss Normal Heppner in Warrenton.

Miss Dorothy Goodrich of Hood River visited at the Karl Rosenback home Monday.

Mrs. Errie Auld, who has been visiting her sons, Ralph and Edward Auld, left Tuesday to return to her home in Otis, Colo., accompanied by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roe Vincent, from Nevada. They will travel by way of northern California.

Thirty-nine candles flamed on the birthday cake of Lou Duncan when he was surprised by a party Tuesday evening at the Inn of the Bridge of the Gods. Present were: Dr. F. Folsom, Louis Folsom, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Erickson, Mrs. Pat Furlong, Mrs. Babe Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meehan, Oscar Lewis, Miss Vi Stark.

Complete Line

OF

Fishing Tackle

HUNTING AND FISHING

LURE

CASCADE DRUG CO.

CASCADE LOCKS

CHURCH SERVICES

Community M. E. Church

Cascade Locks

Rev. Lewis F. Smith, Pastor

Sunday School 10:30 a.m.

Public Worship 11 a.m.

Evening Service 7:30 p.m.

Prayer meeting Thursday 8 p.m.

Community Center - Clatskanie

Bonneville

Rev. S. D. Tiedem, Pastor

Sunday School 10:30 a.m.

Preaching 11 a.m.

Pressure Greasing 75c

RICHFIELD SUPER SERVICE

Opposite the Reservoir Entrance.

EPPING'S Red & White Store

WE HAVE THE LARGEST VARIETY OF GROCERIES IN CASCADE LOCKS. COME IN AND LOOK OUR STOCK OVER. FREE DELIVERY---9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

SPECIALS FOR FRI. - SAT., JUNE 21 - 22

WHITE KING GRANULATED SOAP	CHEESE TILICUM	TOILET PAPER BLUE AND WHITE
lge. size . 29c	lb. . . . 17c	3 rolls . . 13c

Dill Pickles	In Bulk 2 For 5c	Oats	Mother's. No premium 27c
WAX PAPER	50 ft. roll 5c	CANDY BAR, 4 For	15c
PAPER NAPKINS, 100 count	10c	FLAPJACK FLOUR, 10 lb. bag	55c
Pineapple	2 1/2 16c	Albers
Blue & White		Flavor-Jell	3 For 14c
TOMATO JUICE, 3 for	25c	The summer dessert
PRUNES, Lb. Oregon Italian	5c	SALT Red & White Shaker 2 for	15c
Coffee Red & White	lb. 25c	SHORTENING In a Pail 4 lbs.	52c
		Oleo DelMar	2 lbs. 29c

FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

WATERMELON, lb.	3c	TOMATOES, lb.	10c
Red and Ripe		Firm, Ripe
CANTALOUPE, 3 for	25c	CELERY	9c
Large yellow meats		Crisp, white stalks
LETTUCE, large head	3c	ORANGES, dozen	14c
		For juice

WANT ADS

One Cent a Word

FOR SALE

ROYAL ANNE CHERRIES. Place your canning requirements now. Captain Charles Nelson, Cascade Locks. 12p

SMALL HOUSE in city, partly furnished, running water. Alyce Harvey, Cascade Locks. Phone 141. 11c

BEAUTIFUL COTTAGE on Eagle creek heights priced for immediate sale. See Moran. 13p

SOWS—ready to felt. C. Ceciliani, behind schoolhouse.

FOR FULLER BRUSHES write O. Scramstad, 2126 Northeast 17th avenue, Portland. a25-5tp

FOR RENT

FURNISHED cabins with lights and water and showers, by the week or month. Trailer space for rent. Inquire Tooth Rock garage, Cascade Locks. 12c

APARTMENTS FOR RENT—See Captain Charles Nelson, Cascade Locks. 12p

Try a Want ad—it pays.