

BONNEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dipprey left the end of last week for a month's vacation, to be spent at the ocean beaches.

Men bridge sharks are playing again after a summer's rest. They met Thursday evening in the auditorium west lounge, will meet each succeeding Thursday.

Dan Casey of the U. S. survey crew has been confined to his home in Hood River.

Captain and Mrs. John Torkelson left Monday for Seaside, where they plan to spend their two-week vacation.

Paul Flegel spent Friday evening in Portland watching the Golden Gloves boxing tournament.

Ernest Powell is building a new home in Cook's addition.

Harry Thom spent the weekend in Portland.

Rudy Bagby, Community center manager, spent the weekend in Portland.

Mrs. Archie Cook spent the weekend at Powers, near Marshfield visiting her sister.

A large sign, dark green letters against a white background, has been hung from Tanner creek viaduct over the reservation entrance to tell visitors that they are entering Bonneville dam, "under construction by the Corps of Engineers, USA," and that it is "Federal Public Works Project No. 28."

Russell Gaylor spent a day in The Dalles watching the American Legion convention last week.

Jack Hall, known to his buddies as the "Hood River flash," hiked 18 miles up Tanner creek Friday, returned with 14 good-sized trout.

Mrs. Margaret Thomas left Thursday for her home in Centralia, Wash., after a three-weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McVeigh. Mrs. McVeigh, her daughter and family, accompanied her to spend the rest of the month in the Washington city.

Gene Todd, genial barkeep, returned to his post behind French's bar Monday after an absence of a month or so, spent in Portland.

Paul Hohberger spent the week end in Portland.

Leslie French, Jr., has returned from Portland to spend the rest of the month until his high school opens, with his father, L. M. French.

Chuck Jones, reservation librarian, spent Friday night in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Bowen entertained Miss Margaret Rankin and Leonard Greeson of Cascade Locks at dinner Sunday evening.

Bill Nowotny, rigger for General-Shea, and Charles Jones, reservation librarian, spent Sunday at The Dalles visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Rorick.

Paul Flegel spent Sunday in Portland looking after his new service station which he and his partner, Jim Rich, purchased several weeks ago. The new station is being repainted and remodeled, is doing fine, according to Flegel.

Doctor and Mrs. S. E. Wells spent the weekend at their home on the reservation, left again to continue their vacation, which will run for several weeks more. Dr. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Wells, accompanied them last week on a drive around Puget Sound and to the ocean beaches, returned Monday to their home in Iowa.

Mrs. O. L. M. Hauser visited "Doc" Hauser at the drug store Sunday. Mrs. Hauser has been living in Portland, will move to the district probably the first of the month, as soon as they can find a house.

Mrs. Mike Bowen's sister, Miss Mary Nelson, is now recovering in The Dalles from an illness that Leonard Greeson and Benny Ostrom of Cascade Locks are building themselves a home in Cook's addition into which they plan to move to set up bachelor housekeeping the first of the month. She has kept her in bed most of the summer. She is now able to walk a little.

FRENCH REARRANGES PLACE AT BONNEVILLE

L. M. French's newly redecorated and rearranged recreation center on the highway at Bonneville was opened Monday.

The interior is painted in white enamel, which, with the removal of the partition between the bar and restaurant, greatly adds to the sense of spaciousness. The lunch counter, from which French will serve moderately priced meals and sandwiches, has been moved closer to the bar.

The former restaurant section is now a card room, the booths being removed. The former Darto room is now wholly partitioned off. The cigar stand, presided over by Eddie McVeigh was moved near the door several weeks ago to make room for O. L. M. Hauser's drug store.

French is inviting everyone to drop in and look around. He welcomes any suggestions as to improvement of the present scheme.

CCC CALLED TO FIND LOST BONNEVILLE TRIO

Mrs. Elizabeth Scoffern, wife of D. R. Scoffern, manager of the Roosevelt hotel at Bonneville, and her brother and sister, Richard Boeckman, 16, and Dorothy Boeckman, 14, have recovered from bad scratches resulting from spending 13 hours lost in the brush and cliffs of Tanner creek canyon.

The trio left, clad in bathing suits, last Wednesday noon, lost the trail. They finally ended up in the cliffs high above the west side of the stream. At dark Scoffern grew worried, sent his assistant manager, Jack Dennis, and John Biehl, Pacific Coast Steel company employee, to search for them. Then he called Ranger Albert Wiesendanger from Eagle Creek. He, with 10 CCC men from Benson camp, finally located the party, brought them back to the hotel at 1:30 a. m. Their shivering vigil left them without serious effects except for deep cuts and scratches from brush and rocks.

GREEN NEARLY READY

First putting green of the dam reservation's projected golf course is expected to be ready for play within a week or two. The green is just back of the auditorium. Until a hole or two of the course is finished, the green is expected to be fitted with nine holes and used for putting practice.

CALIFORNIAN INJURED WHEN CAR OVERTURNS

Mrs. W. O. Edwards of Pasadena, Calif., was taken to St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Saturday with slight injuries suffered when her car turned over on the first curve west of the toll bridge.

The car, in which she and Mr. Edwards were driving towards Portland, skidded on the wet pavement as it rounded the turn. Dr. J. H. Breyer, also of Pasadena, with his wife, were in the car following and he treated Mrs. Edwards for shock and a strained back until the Bonneville ambulance arrived.

A sudden shower was blamed for the mishap. The car turned over on its side against the bank, didn't leave the highway.

DANCERS AT MERRILL'S STOPPED BY HAMPTON

Before a crowd of 200 couples, Lionel Hampton, known as the world's fastest drummer, whooped it up last Wednesday evening in Merrill's pavilion at Cascade Locks.

Hampton's inspired drumming, not only on the drums, but on chairs, on the floor, on anything that happened to be close at hand, stopped dancers more than once to crowd around the orchestra stand. He juggled three drumsticks at a time without missing a beat, even the slipping of a stick out of his grasp several times failing to mar his rhythm. Dancers thought music from his colored 12-piece orchestra perfect, his floor show highly entertaining.

Hampton has been signed by J. A. Merrill to return to the Locks pavilion for the Labor day dance, September 2.

POINTER OPENS STORE

H. E. Pointer opened his new $4000 confectionery, restaurant and service station last week in Cascade Locks across from the Columbia hotel. The building is painted white, the two-pump Richfield station in light yellow. The Pointers have living quarters in the rear of the building.

VOLLEYBALL BECOMES DAM'S POPULAR GAME

Volleyball is becoming one of the leading sports of dam employees.

From 12 to 24 men can be seen almost every night in the reservation auditorium playing the game. Teams of six men each are springing up like mushrooms from the various units at the dam. A tournament is projected to start within a few weeks, as soon as teams are well enough up on their practice. Best matches so far, perhaps, have been those between Columbia Construction company office force and contract 13 field office.

Teams organized at present include the USED shops, USED warehouse, USED janitors, USED mess, National Commissary, Columbia, General-Shea, Orino Birkemeir and Saremal, contract 13 field office. U. S. engineers in the old administration building have split in two teams, one from each side of the main hall. USED gardeners are said to be planning to enter the field with a team of huskies.

WORKER ASKS $15,000 CLAIMS BLAST INJRY

Jack Benton, jackhammer man, is asking $15,000 personal damages from Columbia Construction company as the result of a blast which sent a five-pound rock flying through his automobile window.

Benton filed suit last week in federal court in Portland, alleging in his complaint that the blast, set off 2500 feet away from where he was driving on Rose avenue in North Bonneville, was improperly shielded. The rock, he claims, hit his left leg, injured it permanently. He also wants $75 for damage to his car.

A want ad will get results.
