CASCADE LOCKS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hewett have given up their home in the Lakeview addition and returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams and daughter, Mary Ann, left Saturday evening for Rex, near Portland, to visit Mrs. Helmut Schwartz. Mrs. Williams' sister, Mr. Williams returned Sunday evening, his wife and daughter staying until Wednesday when they went to Clatskanie to visit her mother, Mrs. Rose Benoit for the rest of the week. Mr. Williams plans to join his wife Saturday to spend the weekend at Seaside.

Miss Jeanette Wilson of Seaside spent the weekend with Miss Lillian Martinsen, Sunday. Miss Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson of Hood River, had dinner at the J. H. Martinsen home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Myers have moved into the A. Alger home. Mr. Myers is employed by Columbia Construction company. Mrs. A. Alger has rented a cabin from A. W. Foote near the high school and plans to move into it.

K. D. Lytle of Bend, district engineer for the state highway department, was in the Locks Saturday inspecting progress of the paving work.

"Bob" Woodward took his young cousin, Clifford Woodward, for a two-day hike around Mud lake. The pair decided to hit directly back for the Locks over Benson plateau, got tangled up in the brush, were plenty tired when they got home the other evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baker have almost completed their new home in Lakeview addition. They have moved in and are putting finishing touches on what is probably one of the nicest homes in that district.

C. K. Bybee has moved into one of Al Myer's houses on the hill near Oscar Hyde's home.

George Trimble, brother of M. E. "Ed" Trimble, returned last week from Portland, where he has spent the summer as foreman for Kern and Kibbe on jobs in Hillsboro and Forest Grove. Trimble says he is going to have a little vacation now before returning to work.

Mrs. Carl Epping entertained Mrs. Stanley Sporseen, Mrs. Galen Fancher and Mrs. Newton Clark Friday afternoon with a table of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Roberts were visited several days last week by Mr. and Mrs. Leo R. Burton of Los Angeles, Calif. Mrs. Burton is Mrs. Roberts' sister. Mrs. Roberts left with them Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. E. Bryan at Butte, Montana.

Frank Walters, resident state engineer inspecting the highway work through town, spent Sunday visiting his wife who is confined to the hospital in The Dalles. Mrs. Walters' condition is serious but not dangerous.

R. E. "Bob" Andrews spent Friday in Portland on business.

Miss Patricia Rasmussen returned last week to her home in Tillamook after a week's visit with Miss Anne Rasmussen, her cousin, who accompanied her to the coast city to stay until Labor day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trimble of Modesto, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Trimble, Mr. Trimble's parents, several days last week. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley, also of Modesto. Robert Trimble is foreman for Borden's Condensing company and hadn't seen his father for 12 years, so Ed was delighted to have him come.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman are completing a 10 by 16-foot addition onto their home in Anderson's addition.

Miss Helen Christianson of Stevenson spent Thursday visiting her many friends in the Locks.

Ralph Kernan spent Thursday in Portland on business.

Dave Jones of Merrill's barber shop was forced to close his shop several days last week while he was in bed suffering from a bad cold. He had ridden down from Hood River one evening in the rumble seat of a car and believes that responsible for the cold.

Howard Harrison, Everill Brol-liar, Mrs. T. C. Harrison and Mrs. Fred Anderson spent a day in Stevenson, Wash., last week.

Mrs. Agnes Branlin was visited by her nieces and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver of Portland last week. The Weavers marveled at the changes that had taken place in Cascade Locks since their last visit, two years ago.

Wesley Andrews of the meat market spent several days in Portland last week.

Miss Mildred Keaton spent the weekend in Hood River visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Finch.

Sidney Nuttle has returned to his old quarters in the Columbia hotel after a summer's absence. He is employed by Columbia Construction company.

Dick Shook spent several days in Portland last week.

Monte Gay wasn't trying to high-hat people last week. For two days he suffered with a stiff neck that wouldn't permit him to turn his head very much.

Miss Betty Thom and Miss Barbara Warren of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker at the new Locks Cleaners shop last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Silver Perras went to Portland Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pointer were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Campbell and Miss Lorraine Dillon of Yamhill last week.

Mrs. Hattie Legget visited Mrs. Shirley Moore Friday evening.

Glen Beers of Odell is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. C. O'Dell of the fruit and vegetable market this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kernan spent Sunday in Portland. Mr. Kernan is in charge of the Locks road reconstruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Christianson and J. H. Fulgham went to Larch mountain Sunday to pick huckleberries, came back with a large amount but reported picking bad because of so many people using the spot. More than 50 cars were counted at the end of the road.

Mrs. William McGarrigle went to Portland Monday morning to meet her sister from New York. They planned to spend most of the week visiting another sister who lives at Salem.

That bright, light blue brand new V-8 roadster with chromium plated wheels belongs to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Neils. They brought it back from Portland where they spent the weekend. Neils is connected with safety work for the U. S. engineers.

Mrs. George Hewett's mother, Mrs. Wilson, has returned from Gothenburg, Nebr., where she has been since the first of the year when her husband died. She will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Castle in Portland. The Castles visited the Hewetts Saturday. The Hewetts were in Portland Sunday.

The Misses Ida Glazier, Elma Glazier, Nina Glazier and Geraldine Rankin, and Lenne Glazier and Bert Banks ate picnic lunch at Dry creek falls Sunday.
