BONNEVILLE

Workmen have strung protective wire fences from the dam entrance towards the new administration building to keep people off the newly-seeded areas where the old entrance road used to run. A wire fence on heavy wood posts has been placed along the highway beginning across from Tyrrell's tavern and running up towards the new station road.

Mrs. Dave Marvin and daughter, Margie, have returned from a three-weeks' visit in Los Angeles and other parts of southern California.

Dan Casey of the U. S. engineers survey crew has returned after being confined to his Hood River home by illness.

A. I. Eckleson and Harold Richen have been transferred to the district engineer's office in the Pittcock block, Portland.

Dick Holbrook is now in charge of the U. S. engineers "navy" the tug Bonneville and launch Sandy. Holbrook succeeds Fred Getty, transferred to the first Portland district several weeks ago for dredging operations on the Willamette river around Newburg.

"Sonny," cocky bulldog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Archy Cook, now wears a ragged ear as the result of a yelping dog fight last week back of Tyrrell's tavern. A large number of dogs were involved and "Sonny" rushed in. His ear was ripped for almost its entire length, necessitating a long stay in a Portland dog hospital, where it was sewed up.

Frank Ewen has just completed his new home in Cook's addition.

New switchboard operators at Columbia Construction company's office on the island are Mrs. Edelyn Marshall and Mrs. Gertrude Johnson. They replace Miss Janet Olds, who with her mother, Mrs. A. R. Olds, has joined Mr. Olds at Boulder dam, and Mrs. A. B. Darden. Mr. Darden was transferred three weeks ago to Columbia's job of building the south jetty at Grays Harbor, Wash.

Perry McViegh and Victor Berg are among those building new houses in Cook's addition.

A. B. Bebevan has moved into his new home back of French's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sandwick of Corvallis spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Linton. The Sandwicks are Mrs. Linton's parents.

When Horace Skinner's wire-hair terrier presented him with 7 pups the other day, he didn't know what to do with them. The pups, he says, are "50 per cent registered," and he will give them away free to anyone who wants one or any number of them.

R. F. Scoffern of Oregon City visited his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Scoffern, at the Roosevelt hotel the first half of the week. The Scofferns spent Sunday in Oregon City, returned with the elder Scoffern.

The Honeymoon dance Friday evening at the Bonneville dam auditorium was hailed as a great success. Honored guests included Newlyweds (within the past three months) Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. John Houck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vogland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Karg, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barks, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lofton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Brett Phelps.

Harry Thom of the Piggly-Wiggly store spent the weekend in Vancouver.

DODSON

Mrs. Ted Johnson returned to her rebuilt home Saturday morning after over a month's stay in Portland where her new daughter, Nila, who'll be a month old September 1, was born. She's been busy all week straightening up the house.

M. D. Chase, brother-in-law of Mrs. J. B. Lash, is spending an indefinite stay at the Lash home. They brought him back up from The Dalles, where the Lashes, accompanied by their children and Miss Louise Sigmund, spent from Thursday to Sunday. Miss Sigmund, their niece, left from The Dalles for her home in Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McShatko spent Sunday picking huckleberries on Larch mountain. Mrs. McShatko spent the best part of the first of the week cleaning them for use.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kimbrough spent Sunday in Tacoma, Wash., attending a family reunion in honor of Mr. Kimbrough's father, Mr. W. J. Kimbrough, whose 75th birthday it was.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCrady were in Portland last week on business.

F. R. Fenton spent Monday in Portland on business.

Mrs. O. B. Gunter spent last week with her mother, Mrs. G. D. Finch, in Hood River.

Miss Nona Finch has gone to Hood River to work in the pears for a week or 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Duyck spent Friday in Portland. Monday, Mr. Duyck went in on business.

R. H. Robertson of Medford arrived Tuesday to spend the winter with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robertsons. The Robertsons motored to Portland to meet him.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McAden spent Sunday on the sandy river beach, swimming, picnicking.

L. S. Ostrander spent Saturday in Portland on business. He is planning to paint his big roadster this week, if the dust dies down enough.

Miss Clara Doherty and Miss Margie Coggins of Brownsville, Ore., visited Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robertson last week. The Robertsons have finished putting the first coat of white paint on their home to protect it from the winter weather ahead.

Mrs. F. C. Fales and daughter, Mildred, dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Correll early one morning last week for breakfast, on their way to Orleans, Nebr., to make their home. Mrs. Fales is Mrs. Correll's mother.

APOLOGIES TO MESSRS. STARK

The Chronicle erred in its August 15 issue when, in Cascade Locks news, it stated that Jack Stark had pulled a good many salmon from the rapids near the toll bridge. Jack Stark owns no fishing tackle, no fishing license, doesn't fish, doesn't want the fish warden to think he does. To Jack Stark, out apologies. To his brother, L. C. Stark, who has fishing tackle, a fishing license, likes to fish, and who caught the fish in question, also our apologies.

CLODFELTER DONATES ROOM

In addition to the Cascade Locks city council holding meetings in Seth O. Clodfelter's big room, the Locks volunteer fire department has accepted his invitation for its free use. The fire department previously has been meeting in the Odd Fellows hall.

DALLES ASKS SURVEY

Introduction of a senate resolution asking a review of the proposed Columbia river power and navigation dam at The Dalles has been promised The Dalles chamber of Commerce by Senator McNary. The chamber had requested such a survey, says it has no intention of bucking the proposed Umatilla dam.

FIRE BRINGS FINE

H. C. Bowen and Joe Brown, sheepherders for New Madden of Hermiston, left their campfire burning at Rainy lake, which isn't so rainy at this season of the year. Forest guards apprehended them. Justice Stranahan in Hood River Monday fined them $14. Their employer appeared for them, paid the fine.

CROWD FAVORS OREGON

Total of 3,995 persons registered at the Oregon View point Sunday, with 405 signing the book at the new Washington View point and probably as many more going down to the railroad tracks to look at the dam. Week ago Sunday the Washington side saw 785, the Oregon point 4,253.

LICENSE EXAMS GIVEN

Drivers who have not obtained Oregon operator's or chauffeur's licenses for the coming two years may see the license examiner Thursday between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. at the Bonneville library back of the postoffice. No examination is required for renewals except in rare cases.

FIRE TRUCK SERVICE

The Bonneville dam fire truck cannot be called out of the reservation except on request of the forest service. Lieut. Colby M. Myers announced yesterday. Persons whose homes or property is on fire must call the forest service to fight the flames, and if it deems the dam fire truck necessary it will call for it.

MAYOR'S NAME GIVEN PUPPY

George Metcalf, who is employed at the dam, has a beautiful black cocker spaniel puppy. Metcalf calls the little black puppy. He calls the little black fellow Captain Nelson. It is the first instance that has come to public attention where either puppy or baby has been named in honor of Cascade Locks' first mayor.
