

Ordinances Of The City Of Cascade Locks, Oregon

ORDINANCE NO. 6

An ordinance entitled "An ordinance to impose and regulate licenses upon certain trades or callings, and regulating the manner of issuing licenses".

Be it ordained by the Common Council of the City of Cascade Locks:

SECTION 1—No person, firm, company or corporation shall be engaged in, prosecute or carry on any trade, business, occupation, pursuit or profession for which a license is required by this ordinance, or any ordinance of Cascade Locks, until he or they shall have obtained such a license as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 2—That any person, firm, company or corporation required by this ordinance or any ordinance of the city to obtain a license to engage in any trade, business, occupation, pursuit or profession for which a license is required, shall first pay to the city treasurer the sum or sums required by ordinance to be paid therefor and thereupon with the receipt of the treasurer, which receipt shall set forth the kind of business for which the license is required, they shall apply to the recorder, who shall issue a license to the parties applying, in accordance with the receipt of the treasurer. Every such license shall set forth the purpose, trade, business or profession for which the license is granted, and the name of the person taking out the same, the time which the license is to run, the date on which the same expires, and the date of issuing the license; and any person exercising or carrying on such trade, business or profession, or doing any act for which a license is required shall on demand of any city official produce such license, and unless he do so, may be taken and deemed to have no license, and placed under arrest by the proper officer for violation of this ordinance, and brought before the recorder to be dealt with according to law.

SECTION 3—In every case where more than one of the pursuits, employments or occupations for which a license is required, shall be pursued or carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, license must be taken out for each according to the rates severally prescribed. All licenses may be issued at any time, but no license shall be issued for a less time than the shortest time named and provided for such license in this ordinance, or any ordinance of the city.

SECTION 4—Any person or persons, firm, company or corporation who shall engage in, prosecute or carry on within the limits of Cascade Locks any trade, business, occupation, pursuit or profession, for which a license is required by this or any ordinance of Cascade Locks, without first obtaining such license as herein provided, or who shall violate any provision of this ordinance, shall on conviction thereof before the recorder's court be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or punished by imprisonment not less than two nor more than twenty days, or both.

SECTION 5—Auctioneers who follow their vocation in the day or nighttime only, shall pay a quarterly license of five dollars, or two dollars and fifty cents for each day or night. Auctioneers who follow their vocation both day and night shall pay a quarterly license of ten dollars, or five dollars per day. Every person shall be deemed an auctioneer within the meaning of this ordinance, whose business it is to offer property for sale at public outcry.

SECTION 6—Every person or association of persons who shall peddle any goods, wares or merchandise for sale within the limits of Cascade Locks, except they be products of their own farms, garden or dairies, or articles of their own manufacture, shall pay therefor the sum of thirty-five dollars per year, or ten dollars per quarter.

SECTION 7—Hawkers shall pay a license of five dollars per day. Anyone who offers goods for sale by outcry, or who shall conduct business from a stand on the street, shall be deemed a hawker under this ordinance.

SECTION 8—Any person who shall within the limits of the city set up and run any photograph gallery in which photographs are taken, in any tent or temporary or moveable structure, without being permanently located in a permanent building, shall pay a daily license of one dollar per day, or ten dollars per month.

SECTION 9—Retail commercial travelers, who shall pursue their vocation within Cascade Locks, shall pay a license fee of five dollars for the first day, and two dollars and fifty cents for each and every succeeding day he or they shall engage therein, and the term "retail commercial traveler" shall be construed to include any person or persons who shall either bargain, sell, offer for sale, solicit or agree to deliver, either by sample or from stock, at retail to persons for their private use, provided, however, that every person or association of persons who shall peddle any fruit or meat for sale within the limits of the City of Cascade Locks, Oregon, except they be productions of their own farms or gardens, shall pay therefor the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars per quarter.

SECTION 10—Billiard tables, bowling alleys, pool tables and pigeon hole tables shall pay a license according to the number of alleys or tables belonging to or used in the building or place to be licensed. When not exceeding one alley or one table the keeper of such house shall pay a quarterly license of five dollars, and when exceeding one alley or one table an additional sum of two dollars and fifty cents for each and every additional table or alley. Every place where bowls are thrown, or billiard, pool or the pigeon hole game played and open to the public, with or without price, shall be regarded as a billiard room or bowling alley under this ordinance.

SECTION 11—Shooting galleries shall pay a quarterly license of ten dollars. Every place or building where guns or pistols are kept for shooting at targets, whether for hire or not, shall be deemed a shooting gallery under this ordinance.

SECTION 12—Keepers or proprietors of every circus shall pay a license of twenty-five dollars for each and every show. Every building or tent, space or area where the feats of horsemanship or acrobatic sport are exhibited shall be regarded as a circus under this ordinance.

SECTION 13—Keepers or proprietors of every skating rink shall pay a quarterly license of twelve dollars and fifty cents, or a daily license of two dollars and fifty cents.

SECTION 14—Jugglers shall pay a license of twenty dollars per week, or five dollars for each day of their exhibition. Every person who performs by sleight of hand shall be regarded as a juggler under this ordinance.

SECTION 15—The keepers, proprietors, managers or operators of any public swing, or merry-go-round, shall pay a license of ten dollars per day.

SECTION 16—The keepers, proprietors, managers or operators of any public cane, knife or ring game, or any game operated by means of throwing knives, rings or missiles of any kind, shall pay a daily license of five dollars per day.

SECTION 17—All public spindle games, or wheels of fortune, and all other public games of skill of every kind and description whatever, which shall be operated within the limits of Cascade Locks shall pay a daily license of five dollars per day.

SECTION 18—Any person or persons who shall give any street exhibition, trapeze, rope walking, athletic or sleight of hand performance, or who shall have any animals perform, or who shall exhibit any phonograph or other machine, or shall give any performance of any kind upon any street, alley or place within the corporate limits shall pay a daily license of five dollars, or fifteen dollars per week.

SECTION 19—The proprietors or agents of all other exhibitions, amusements, entertainments or shows for money, except moving picture shows, whether collected as an entrance fee or by collection shall pay a license fee as follows:

By the day.....	$ 3.00
By the week .....	12.00
By the month .....	18.00
By the quarter .....	25.00

provided that all exhibitions given by bona fide residents of the City of Cascade Locks shall not require a license until after the third entertainment. Provided, however, that any person, firm or corporation who shall give a dance or operate a dance hall shall pay a yearly license of ten dollars per year, or a quarterly license of five dollars per quarter or a daily license of three dollars per day.

SECTION 20—Every person or association of persons who shall engage in or carry on the business of a broker or brokers shall pay therefor the sum of ten dollars per quarter.

SECTION 21—Pawnbrokers shall pay a license of ten dollars per quarter. Every person whose business or occupation it is to take or receive by way of pledge, pawn or exchange, any goods, wares, or merchandise, or any kind of personal property whatsoever, for the repayment or security of any money lent thereon shall be deemed a pawnbroker under this ordinance.

SECTION 22—Every person, firm or corporation who shall, in the City of Cascade Locks, operate a laundry wagon without an established place of business in the City of Cascade Locks where part of the work is done shall pay a yearly license fee of one hundred dollars per year, or a quarterly license fee of thirty dollars per quarter. Anyone who shall solicit laundry, cleaning or pressing work, and either by himself or his agents collect and deliver the same, and who has no established place of business in the City of Cascade Locks where part of the work is done, shall be construed to operate a laundry wagon under this ordinance.

SECTION 23—Wholesale or commercial travelers who shall pursue their vocation within the City of Cascade Locks shall pay a yearly license fee of thirty-five dollars, or a quarterly license fee of ten dollars per quarter. The term "wholesale commercial travelers" shall be construed to include any person or persons who shall bargain, sell and deliver from stock any goods, wares or merchandise at wholesale to retailers and for resale to the public.

SECTION 24—Any person, firm or corporation who shall maintain a place of business for the selling of goods, wares and merchandise or service to the public, or shall wholesale within the City of Cascade Locks, Oregon, shall pay a yearly license fee of ten dollars per year, or a quarterly license fee of three dollars per quarter.

SECTION 25—Any person, firm or corporation who shall operate a dart game within the City of Cascade Locks shall pay a yearly license of five hundred dollars per year.

SECTION 26—Any person, firm or corporation who shall operate any pin ball machine or skill machine or device of any kind which is operated in part by the insertion of a coin into said machine, and who is not an "owner" as hereinafter defined, shall pay a yearly license fee of fifty dollars and shall, in addition thereto, pay a license fee of five dollars per month on each and every machine, other than a pin ball machine, and shall pay a monthly license fee of one dollar per month on every pin ball machine. A pin ball machine is hereby defined as: A machine operated by driving a ball over a board with pins or other stops, or a machine operated by a mechanical shaking of dice. Provided, however, that no license shall be issued for any machine or instrument whose operation would be a violation of the general statutes and laws of the State of Oregon. Every license issued for individual machines shall be attached to and plainly exhibited on each machine. Every machine operated within the City of Cascade Locks in violation of this ordinance is hereby declared to be a nuisance and the marshal is hereby authorized to abate such a nuisance and to prevent the operation of such machine or machines. The word "owner" as herein used is hereby defined as a person who operates pin ball or skill machines in his own place of business and who owns said machine or machines. An owner shall pay a monthly license of $..... on each skill machine and $..... on each pin ball machine.

SECTION 27—It shall be the duty of the marshal to see that the provisions of this ordinance are enforced, and to make complaint in the recorder's court of all violations thereof. The recorder shall from time to time furnish the marshal with a list of the licenses in force, and it shall be the duty of the marshal to arrest any person or persons liable for any license and who have not paid the same, and take them before the recorder to be dealt with according to law.

Passed the Common Council of the City of Cascade Locks, October 7, 1935.

CHARLES H. NELSON,
Mayor.
