Marshal All Set To Put An End To Fast Driving

With purchase of a car last week Marshal Colin Merrill tightened up his belt, pulled his black hat down over his eyes and sat down on the curb and began to watch drivers rolling through Cascade Locks at 50 to 60 miles an hour. The end of the speeding, he promised, is in sight. And it will end when the city council and the state have completed two simple steps:

1. Place warning signs, indicating the speed limits, at both ends of town where they can catch the eye of motorists on the highway.

2. Enact a city ordinance, prohibiting speeding and fixing a penalty for violation of the law.

The council has agreed to pay the marshal $1.50 a day and let him provide his own car. With reasonable success in overhauling violators the police department is expected to turn considerable money into the town's treasury.

Enactment of the ordinance prohibiting speeding was passed Monday night. With that out of the way the fun will begin and the boys can begin to lay bets on the percentage of cars Colin overhauls.

MORANS GET FLOWERS FROM HOST OF FRIENDS

Flowers are usually reserved for the dead, but there are occasions when they go to the living. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moran among the living, fell heir to a large share of blossoms when they opened their new lodge in Cascade Locks some mornings ago.

The Cascade Locks Lumber company sent up a handsome bouquet. So did Jack Eimer, W. C. (Tuck) Anderson sent down two attractive bowls of hammered brass, filled with greenery. And thereafter the lodge took on the appearance of a bridal chamber and the guests ate and drank and were happy. So were Mr. and Mrs.
