Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilbert and children, Charlene and Bobby, and Mr. and Mrs. Prien of Portland were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lanius.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Nikkelson entertained a group of friends before the auditorium dance last Friday night at their home. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Peacock Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Micheal Miller, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Inch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kanzler, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lanius, Bob Weller, and Sid Taylor.

Mrs. Carroll Price entertained at bridge luncheon, Thursday. Mrs. Harry Olsen, Mrs. O. Boyle, Mrs. R. P. Kitchen, and Mrs. Tom Hamilton.

Mrs. V. A. Scott and son of Avery, Wash., were recent visitors at the Carroll Price home. Mr. Scott is in charge of Columbia's gravel pit on Rabbitt island.

A group of women from the Portland Federation of Women's clubs headed by Mrs. Olin Hosford visited the dam Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Protheroe of Longview returned to her home recently after a week's visit with Mrs. Walter Kanzler. Mrs. Protheroe was the incentive for several small afternoon affairs during the time she was here.

Mrs. S. S. Inch entertained wives of Columbia officials and government men at dessert bridge both yesterday and today. Three tables were set for each day.

Ralph Buckley of Tyrrell's Tavern coffee shop visited his brother, Gene Buckley, in Hood River Saturday. "Buck" returned with two lovely turkey hens. He spent all Sunday afternoon in the rain constructing a pen for them. It is said that years of past experience handling ducks will be very beneficial to him now.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Marvin and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bauer enjoyed a novel Italian dinner in Cape Horn district in Washington Thursday night.

Mrs. F. L. Abbott and Mrs. Walter Fenchel motored to Seattle and Aberdeen last week, returning Saturday. In Aberdeen they visited Mrs. Marilyn Shiek, who formerly lived on the island.

At one of the most pretentious affairs of the season, Mrs. T. J. Torkelson entertained forty guests at bridge dessert last Wednesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Wells returned Sunday night from a hunting trip south of Dale. Mrs. Wells returned with a beautiful buck.

Mrs. A. P. Henny entertained Tuesday afternoon with four tables of bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. May and family of Portland were house guests over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Waggoner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Jonason spent Friday on a fishing trip on Lake Merwin at the Ariel dam.

Mrs. Howard Rigler and Mrs. Horace Skinner entertained Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Arline Benedict visited her sister, Mrs. O. C. Hartman, Tuesday.

Mrs. Dave Williams recently recovered from a slight illness.

Mrs. W. Lanius entertained 17 members of the Junior Circle of the Centenary Wilbur M. E. church of Portland at luncheon Tuesday. In the afternoon they conducted a tour of inspection of the dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Marilyn Shiek, of Aberdeen, were house guests at the H. F. Davis home Friday night.

Mrs. Stanley Kimball left Saturday for Portland to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Seymour.

Mrs. H. W. Trefren is home again after her two weeks' stay with her daughter, Mrs. William Foster, and new grandson of Eugene.

Word was received early this week by O. F. Gibson, office manager for Orino, that his lovely bungalow in Helena, Mont., had been demolished in the earthquake. One wall is all that is left standing of the house and garage.

Word from Frank Linnton, government safety engineer, who is attending the 24th Annual Safety Congress in Louisville, Ky., writes that he is working plenty hard and enjoying it very much. Linnton will return to the area on the last of the month.

Mrs. I. E. Burks, Miss Harriet Burks and Mrs. Colb Myers motored to Seattle last week. While there they visited Lt. Robert McDonnell, who was formerly stationed here but is now located at Fort Lawton. They returned Sunday.

WOMEN'S CLUB PLANS HALLOWEEN PARTY

The Bonneville Women's Community club meets today in their club rooms in the auditorium at 2 P. M. The regular meeting this week will be in the form of a Halloween party. A cordial invitation has been extended to all women of the area to meet with the club at this meeting or at any other they will have in future.

The hostesses for today will be Mrs. W. C. McArthur, Mrs. J. L. Herman and Mrs. Stanley Sporeen. Mrs. Fred McGee is acting as entertainment chairman for the day.

At the Theatre

A fantastic story, a dramatic musical, and a comedy thriller, are in store for the patrons of the Roosevelt theater at Bonneville this coming week.

"She", billed for Friday and Saturday, with a cast of 5,000, starring Helen Gahagan, Randolph Scott and Helen Mack, is a tale of high adventure and fierce conflict. Two scientists, following an ancient legend, search an ice-locked country far beyond civilization's last outpost for a flame of life-giving fire. It is a story highly charged with mystery. They find a kingdom of fabulous grandeur, a lush tropical country ruled by a woman of immortal loveliness—a woman two thousand years old who doesn't look a day over thirty.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday brings "Love Me Forever" with Grace Moore.

The story deals with a wealthy cafe owner and gambler, an ardent lover of fine music, who makes Grace Moore, a singer in his cafe, his protegee. He sacrifices wealth and position to satisfy an ideal, to make of his beautiful singer the greatest soprano in the world, to give her the fame she deserves.

Grace Moore, as the cafe singer who eventually finds success and happiness, brings to the screen a vivid, colorful, acting personality. It is this experienced artistry that has endeared her to audiences the world over.

Leo Carrillo featured with Miss Moore, plays the fiery gambler. His is the leading male role. Luis Alberni, who was also featured in "One Night of Love," plays a comedy role, that of an excitable little Italian.

For Rent: Room with two beds by young lady that folds up.

Wanted: A high-chair for baby with cane seat.
