

Hair-dressers, a Chicago dispatch informs us, complain that "ordinary barbers in the Midwest are calling themselves hair-dressers, to the great detriment of the advanced profession."

Reminds us of the late Judge Joseph Quinn of the Massachusetts Superior Court. In his court one day the District Attorney, questioning a witness, asked:

"You are a barber, aren't you?" The witness replied, pompously, "I am a tonsorial artist." "Well, now," put in Judge Quinn, "isn't that splitting hairs?"—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

If bread is to be raised it seems to be the general idea of the consumer to let the yeast do it.—Norfolk (Va.) Ledger-Dispatch.

But adults can't expect real results from the same sweet syrupy concoctions that you'd give to a child.

As a matter of fact, that powerful yet smooth, creamy creosoted emulsion known to druggists as Bron-chu-line Emulsion is not loved by children; it's a medicine for grown-ups, but it sure gives results and speedily, too. Get a bottle at Bonneville Drug Store tonight and put it to work at once—it strikes right at the source of the trouble—satisfaction guaranteed.
