O'DELL TAKES OVER FRANCIS BUILDING TO INCREASE STOCK

Remodeling operations were started Tuesday on O'Dell's Market and Don Francis's second hand store. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert O'Dell have taken over Francis' lease and are renovating the whole building. With this work completed they will move their produce and grocery stock from the present location into the remodeled building.

Living quarters are being built in the rear of the Francis building for the O'Dells. In addition to their regular stock they are filling out their grocery stock and adding hardware and used furniture.

Andy Clyde, who has been working for Frank Moran, is taking over the present location of O'Dells Market and proposes to open a lunch counter and card room.

CASCADE LOCKS
