SCHOOL NEWS
CASCADE LOCKS

The Locks basketball team played Parkdale at Parkdale last Friday night. Parkdale won by a score of 29 to 6.

The Parent-Teacher Association awarded prizes to students in both high school and grade school for those who sold the most tickets to the L.D. S. Choral Club concert. In the grade school Carol Burt and Eileen Sprague tied for first place among the girls and each got a compact. Richard Kenney sold the most among the boys and received a pen and pencil set. In the high school Reta Barker won the compact and William Morgan won the pen and pencil set.

Jeanne Walker has been absent from school due to illness.

The fifth and sixth grade are taking their six weeks tests.

Miss Barbara Smith enrolled in high school this last week.

Richard O'Dell has resigned from the Locks high school and is now going to school in Camas.

Miss Coldwell is substituting in the first grade due to the illness of Miss La Verne Barker.

Miss Betty Mannis has moved to North Bonneville.

The Girl's gym teacher, Miss Ruth Buche is organizing a basketball team in the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades. The tentative schedule of games lined up is: Dec. 6, Parkdale here; Dec. 7, Hood River here; Dec. 13, Odell there; January 17, Parkdale there; and Feb. 7, Odell here.

The enrollment in the first and second grades is now 44 pupils. There are 25 in the first grade and 19 in the second.

MAJOR HARRY A. SKERRY TALKS ON BONNEVILLE

Major Harry A. Skerry, engineer corps, U.S.A., executive officer of the second Portland district, was the principal speaker at Tuesday's luncheon-meeting of the 381st infantry in Meier & Frank's tearoom.

Major Skerry gave an illustrated talk on "The Bonneville Dam and the Organization of Personnel," according to Colonel William A. Aird, who was in charge of the affair. An invitation to attend the meeting was extended to all reserve officers.

What AGE does to the pupils of your eyes...

As you grow older, the pupils of your eyes let in less and less light. Thus you need increasingly more light as birthdays pile up. Without it, eyestrain is inevitable. And 60% of all people over 50 now have defective vision due largely to improper lighting.

Is the light in your home of the right quality and quantity for effortless seeing? Our lighting expert and her sight meter can tell you instantly. This lighting advisory service is given to all Northwestern Electric customers without charge or obligation. Telephone or write for your test today.

MID-COLUMBIA C. OF C.
DISCUSS FREE BRIDGE

Plans for promotion of the scenic attractions of the mid-Columbia country and of the potential power and navigational benefits of the Bonneville dam, held the attention of delegates to the newly reorganized Mid-Columbia Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held in Hood River Tuesday.

Delegations from points between Pasco and Vancouver attended the meeting.

Proposals included an eastern extension of the North Bank road, reconstruction of the Columbia river highway, and elimination of tolls on the Bridge of the Gods.
