OUR PROGRAM

1. Develop a fire protection system.
2. Create a water district and develop lands between Craigmont hotel and Herman creek.
3. Install street lights.
4. Lay down sidewalks—even though they are wooden sidewalks.
5. Urge the federal government to purchase the toll bridge and make it a free bridge.
6. Launch a campaign to make the lake back of the dam the most popular resort on the West Coast.

LOCKS DEMOS SPONSOR

CARD PARTY TUESDAY

The first of a series of card parties will be held at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday by the Cascade Locks Democratic club in the small back room at Merrill's pavilion.

Prizes will be given for the best sores in both 500 and pinochle. Luncheon will be served. Admission is 25c.

MISSIONARY TO SPEAK

IN BONNEVILLE CHURCH

Bonneville churchgoers will hear Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, missionaries just returned from the interior of China, at the regular 11 o'clock Sunday morning service at the dam auditorium.

Mr. Fisher was in charge of the first mission to which the Rev. Stanley Trefren's sister, Doris Trefren, was stationed and of which she is now in charge.

SCOUTS MEET WEDNESDAY

The Bonneville boy scout troop has changed its meeting night to each Wednesday, according to the Rev. Stanley Trefren, scoutmaster. Nineteen scouts were present at last week's meeting.

DALLES EAGLES LOSE

The Bonneville dam basketball team added another scalp to its collection Monday evening when it won from The Dalles Eagles, 57-25. Lineup for the Eagles was McKeldererig, Brown, Holman, Crowder, Kennedy and Stern. For the dam, players were Humphreys, White Puupera, Collins, Stansberry, Brink, Konner, Drager, Kincaid and Reimer.

CHURCH PLANS SOCIAL

A surprise social will be given at the Cascade Locks community church next Friday evening. The public is invited. The surprise is the announcement at the end of the party of the evening's guest of honor.

EAGLES HOLD BANQUET

Eagles of the Cascade Locks aerie will give another basket social next Thursday at 8:30 p.m. at Craigmont inn.

Fred McGee's Powerhouse Serenaders will provide the music. Ladies are all asked to bring baskets. Tickets will be good for a 25c refund on the baskets. Everyone is invited to come.

PTA GIVES PROGRAM

THURSDAY AT LOCKS

The Cascade Locks PTA Thursday night will present an evening of entertainment for the public at Craigmont inn.

Featured is a book review dealing with early pioneer days by Miss Ineodora Gustafson, Locks high school teacher. Music will be furnished by a trio and a pianist. Luncheon will be served by John Almquist, the Craigmont's noted chef.

A beautiful piece of chromium plate will be given as a door prize. PTA members believe the program, luncheon and prize will be well worth the 25c admission charge. It will begin at 7:30 p.m.

STEVENSON DEFEATS

LOCKS BASKETEERS

The Cascade Locks town basketball team was defeated by the Stevenson V-8s 41-14 Thursday in the Locks high school gymnasium. Lineup was:

V-8s	Locks
Leer (6)	F S. Harrison (2)
Pink (2)	F Brolliar (2)
McCallum (8)	C J. Johnson (4)
Schwartz (15)	G H. Cramblett (6)
Robinson (9)	G G. Harrison (9)
Ash (10)	S Eadien (0)

Referee was Howard Harrison of Cascade Locks.

HURT IN FALL

Homer Lee of Cascade Locks was seriously injured Thursday when he fell from the Eagle creek highway bridge, now under construction. He was taken to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland with several dislocated vertebrae. Lee was working on steel for the bridge.

SMITH OPENS INN

Dew Drop Inn at Cascade Locks was reopened this week under the new management of Mr. and Mrs. Allen E. Smith, featuring snort orders, dinners and fountain service. The Inn was formerly operated by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, who have moved to Jennings Lodge. Mr. and Mrs. Smith come from Emmett, Idaho. They have two sons, Lorne and Darrell. Lorne plans to enter the second year at Cascade Locks high school as soon as he can.

CANCO CHALLENGES

The American Can company has issued a challenge to the effect that its ping pong players are better than those the dam can produce. All aspirants to play in the contest, yet to be scheduled, should register at once in the administration building.

TREFREN INSTALLS PHONE

The Rev. Stanley Trefren, pastor of the Bonneville community church, announced this week the installation of a home telephone for convenience of all those who wish to get in touch with him. The number is Bonneville 1805.

MORGAN FIXES CLOCK

No longer will the harassed dam employee on his way to work get a jolt from looking at the illuminated clock in front of M. L. Morgan's service station in Cascade Locks. Morgan called in two clock experts last week who regulated it so it is guaranteed to keep good time. The lock dials were repainted black and various other changes made to enable the easier reading of the time from a distance.

REBEKAHS MEET JANUARY 22

Cascadia lodge of the Rebekahs will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. R. J. Wuner in Cascade Locks. All Rebekahs of the dam area are invited to attend.

FIRE DEPARTMENT TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Cascade Locks volunteer fire department will elect a new chief and other officers when it meets for reorganization January 24 in the council chambers.

Lack of attendance caused postponement of the regular annual election in December, according to President M. E. Trimble. A campaign is under way to insure a large attendance for the election.

"Doc" Slices Finger

A mighty woodcutter is Dr. Melvin E. Johnson of Cascade Locks, but last week the axe slipped. Result: one left forefinger nearly cut in two. Dr. Ralph Suckow of National Hospital association at Bonneville repaired the damage, placing Dr. Johnson's hand and arm in a cast to the elbow. Dr. Johnson, after several trips to specialists in Portland for treatment and x-raying, believes the finger will be healed in several months and hopes that it will be useful.

Club Notes

Fourteen members of the Y. B. & R. club held their regular business meeting last Tuesday evening. The usual matters were discussed pro and con. At about 9:30 p.m. the members dropped the business in hand to consider the suggestion that the name of the group be changed to the B. Y. O. L. club. The motion passed the house with but one negative vote. The dissenter was said to have been unable to fathom the significance of the new symbols.

CHOIR PRACTICE SET

Bonneville church choir will practice at Mrs. Leo Miller's home on the dam reservation Friday night at 7:30, the Rev. Stanley Trefren announced. All members are requested to be present.

LOCKS CHURCH SERVICES

"Jonah's fish story" will be the sermon given by the Rev. L. G. Weaver at the Cascade Locks community church at 11 a. m. Sunday. "A Life Decision" will be the evening topic, at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday school will begin as usual at 10 a. m.

ARROWS REPLACE BULLETS

Archery enthusiasts are being notified that they may use the pistol range in the reservation auditorium for practice. Further information may be obtained by calling at the auditorium.

FALLS HURT WORKERS

V. A. DeVauter and Fred May, who work for Columbia Construction company, were treated at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Saturday for injuries suffered from falls while at work.

A party was given for the Cascade Locks high school basketball teams, both boys and girls, Tuesday evening at the home of Luella Glazier. Present were: Robert Morgan, Jimmie Smith, Marjorie Smith, Verna Weeman, Wayne Hollenburn, Elmer Glazier, Eileen Sprague, Kenneth Piper. Refreshments were served and games played.

At the Theatre

Following tonight's showing of Kay Francis and George Brent in "Stranded" the tragic story of a woman in a great love crisis the Roosevelt theatre on the Bonneville dam reservation in the coming week presents a varied bill that includes a tropical war in the air, a versatile musical radio comedy and a jittery murder mystery.

Some of the most remarkable flying done in motion pictures will be seen in "Storm Over the Andes," coming Friday and Saturday. Starring Jack Holt, long-time screen hairy-chested adventurer, the scene is the green hell of the Grand Chaco, over which Bolivia and Paraguay have fought a war that in some ways is more terrible than the World War. Holt is the soldier of fortune who enters the war for money, finds that love is more important than money. Antonio Moreno, well-known silent picture star, makes a comeback in the talkies as Holt's best friend. Mona Barrie plays Moreno's wife and the girl that Holt falls in love with.

A veritable galaxy of stars, ranging from Bing Crosby to

Amos 'n' Andy, will be seen in "The Big Broadcast of 1936" showing Sunday to Tuesday. The picture is packed with comedy situations and hilarious episodes. The story centers around the hilarious adventures of radio entertainers when they are kidnapped by a young man. She kidnaps them. They escape, but in their frantic flight get tangled up in a broadcast contest. An uproarious comedy closes the fun film. Sure-fire entertainment, the cast includes such stars as Jack Oakie, Lyda Roberti, Wendy Barrie, Ethel Merman, Bill Robinson, Bob Noble and his orchestra, Mary Boland and Charlie Ruggles.

"Remember Last Night" sends shivers down a lot of spines when it comes to the Roosevelt Wednesday and Thursday. It's a party on swanky Long Island. Next day, a lot of hangovers and two murders, but no one could member just what happened the night before. The solution of the mystery brings surprising results to light. The picture will be remembered a long time as completely different in the line of theatres. In the cast are such stars as Edward Arnold, Connie Cummings, Sally Eilers and Robert Young. James Whale directed.

A want ad will get results.
