

BONNY VILLA

U. S. Guard Herschel Shreve has bought and moved into the Arrowsmith home at Wee Cove from his houseboat near Warrendale. When asked if rumors were true that he bought such a large place because he was planning on getting married, he emphatically stated: "Well, no!" Commodore Shreve plans to keep his houseboat for use in the summer, will live in his mountain home during the winter.

A. D. Look of Lively's addition at Warrendale has moved into the Wee Cove home vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Scheufflee.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Nichols and Lyle Shreve visited Herschel Shreve last Wednesday evening, played games for several hours. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Holt of Portland spent Monday evening at the Shreve home.

C. R. Grimm had a narrow escape Sunday afternoon from what might have been a serious accident due to the high wind. He had just stepped inside the portable chicken coop in his back yard when a gust of wind blew the top completely off, landing the heavy wooden frame in the path where he had been standing only a moment before.

Mrs. C. R. Shinn was surprised Tuesday evening by a shower in her honor given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones. Those present included Mrs. Edith Lee, Mrs. Christianson, Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. John Tucker, Mrs. Donald Taylor, Mrs. Bud Wilson, Mrs. David Collins, Mrs. Mina Horton, Mrs. Ray Fuhrman, Mrs. Fred Mathis, Mrs. Louie Jossund, Mrs. Thomas Braund, Mrs. Earl McGinnis, Mrs. Roy Lush, Mrs. Mike Bowen, Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Shinn. Buffet supper was served by Mrs. Jones following the shower.

Bud Tanner of Corbett spent the weekend with his elder brother, Jimmy Tanner.

Hal Babbitt spent Monday in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ponylete of Gresham are new Bonny Villa residents. Mr. Ponylete is a concrete worker for General-Shea.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson have moved into the home they bought from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wirth, who moved to North Bend.

Mrs. Jim Ellis and daughter, Mildred, of Corbett visited Mrs. C. R. Grimm last week.

Eva May Jones, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Jones, was treated by an eye specialist in Portland Saturday for eye strain.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCandless were both in Portland hospitals this week suffering from bad cases of septic sore throat. National Hospital association ambulances took her in last week, him Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Corrigan and son have returned to their home in Portland after spending New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hicks.

O. B. Gunter has returned to work for General-Shea after a 6-weeks' layoff because of kidney trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shallenberger's daughter, Jackie, was ill with a bad cold the first of the week.

Noah Bickel visited the dentist in Portland Saturday, came back with several of them missing. Rumor is that he may install demountable rims.

Earl Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnson, Sr., was expected home yesterday or today on his first run-around from the navy, which he joined three months ago. It is expected that he will stay two weeks before re-joining his ship and then that he will be transferred to the east coast. His friends are all anxious

DODSON

The wild west wind that whistled up the gorge Sunday ripped half the tar paper from the roof of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McAden's home. M. M. McCrady assisted Mr. McAden to nail the paper back in place while Mrs. McAden stayed inside to see that the rain didn't wash the furniture out.

Mrs. C. C. McGowan entertained the Bonny Park women's sewing club week ago Wednesday at her home. Those present included Mrs. Lee Sams, Mrs. M. M. McCrady, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Harold McShatko, Mrs. E. E. Davis, Mrs. J. B. Lash, Mrs. John Kark, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Eade. Cakes and coffee were served. Mrs. Davis will be hostess to the group at her home next Wednesday.

Mrs. Tom Morris has recovered from a severe attack of chicken pox.

The windstorm also ripped a large number of shingles from Joe Bucher's dairy barn. A number of small trees were uprooted near the homestead. Power was cut off for a large part of the day when a big fir fell across the wires near Dodson. L. E. Sams was forced to tie back a large tree which the wind kept shoving against his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson returned to hear him spin a few saltwater sailor yarns.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braund returned from a visit to Portland Thursday with a new Sperton radio.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Haskett have moved from Bonny Villa into the old Warrendale schoolhouse.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Ferrington last week were Rolph Enquist, Lester Maxson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braund and sons, Robert and Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Miller spent the weekend visiting friends and relatives in Hood River.

The Rev. Stanley Trefren was forced to go to bed Monday noon, suffering from a severe pain in his back.

turned Sunday from a four-day trip to Seattle. They left their children with their grandmother in Portland.

Jimmy Lash, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lash, was out of school several days the first of the week suffering from chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McShatko spent the weekend in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chic Johnson moved Wednesday from their "upper 40," the old farmhouse on the hill above the highway, to the 40 mile post.

The Columbia river highway in front of Dodson seems to be a nemesis for cars and trucks. Saturday, the Rose City Pie Co.'s truck took to the ditch along side of Joe Bucher's front gate. Soon after, J. V. Clow, who is putting in wood in Archie Cook's addition at Bonneville, went off the highway nearby. Sunday morning a big Asbury Transportation gasoline tank truck and trailer crashed into the brush. Broken glass cut the driver severely. None of the other drivers were hurt nor were their cars damaged badly. Soft dirt on the highway shoulders was blamed for all three crashes.

Warrendale

Larry Sherman and Leo Ostrander drove to Portland last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira J. Haskett have moved into the old Warrendale schoolhouse from Bonny Villa.

U. S. Guard Herschel Shreve has forsaken his houseboat home to hole up in the hills for the winter. He purchased the Arrowsmith home at Wee Cove, but will retain the houseboat for summer use.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Thompson have moved into Leo G. Twine's former home near herman's Inn.

Yes this is Mr. 'Arrison. Cawn't you understand? 'Arrison! Haitch, hay, two hars, a hi, a hess, a ho and a hen!
