

ALL Water Rents

Past Due and Due Must Be Paid by February 1, 1936. A. T. STEWART, General Manager, Cascade Water Co.

CASCADE LOCKS

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Nelson were Portland visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slason name the parents of a seven-day old baby boy in Portland Saturday. Mrs. Slason was the former Miss Mina Fretwell, graduate of the Cascade Locks high school.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Morgan returned Monday in Portland. Mr. Morgan was completing purchases of equipment for the city's new truck which arrived that day. At the Hood River County Sunday School training course Monday evening at the Riverside community church in Hood River the following were present from the locks: Mr. and Mrs. L. Richart, Mrs. Ora Hathaway, Mrs. Galenmacher, Miss Wilma Eddy, Mrs. Meland, the Rev. L. G. Weaver. The classes will be held each Monday evening for three more weeks. Cascadia lodge of the Rebekahs met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Wuner. George Thomas is ill this week with a septic sore throat.

Buddy Bates, well known to baseball fans, is back in the locks from Portland. He plans to appear at second base on the ball team this summer. He's working at Columbia.

To Mr. and Mrs. Lore Richart was born a six-pound six-ounce daughter Sunday noon.

Mrs. H. E. Pointer returned last week from Yamhill where she has been since before Christmas nursing Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teegarden, her son-in-law and daughter, and their children, through a bad siege of scarlet fever. Mrs. Pointer was immune to the fever, having had it one time before.

Mrs. Jess Glazier is now employed at the R. E. Andrews home taking care of the children.

Mrs. Jack Elmer's broken leg is still in the cast. Mrs. Elmer says it hurts almost as much now as it did when first broken, when she fell on the ice in front of the high school gymnasium.

Helen Christianson left the locks telephone switchboard Saturday to go to her home in Stevenson, Wash. She plans to return to the telephone office February 1 to help Mrs. Manda Collins, the manager.

Ralph Williams spent Monday morning in Portland attending the funeral of his uncle, Basil Gilbert.

Leo Kimsey has moved to a new home on Levens heights from one of the Jack Elmer cabins.

Claude Marquis of the state highway department has been transferred to Drain, Ore. He lived in No. 4 of the Haskins houses.

LeRoy of Merrill's Beauty shop spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Portland.

Gibson and Addison Harrison are employed by Clark's fuel yard, east of town, cutting timber.

Noble Hyde and his crew were laid off by the U. S. engineers at the end of last week from their job clearing land along the river, for the coming of Bonneville lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tucker and erson last week from a several-day visit to friends in Eugene, Corvallis, Lebanon and other Willamette valley cities.

Norma Heppner returned to her home in Warrenton Saturday after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heggblom. Mr. Heggblom, her grandfather, accompanied her to Portland where she took the train.

John Oberg returned to the Locks last week after an extended visit with his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Steele, in Portland.

Fred Anderson of Jennings Lodge, former owner of the Dew Drop Inn at the Locks, was a business visitor here last week.

Seven-year-old-Mary Ann Williams planned and carried out a birthday party for her mother, Mrs. Ralph Williams, Tuesday night. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Doctor and Mrs. Melvin E. Johnson and Edgar Benoist, Mrs. Williams' brother. Mary Ann pains her youthful mother frequently by telling strangers that she's "going on 72!"

Frank LaConte was a business visitor to Portland several days last week.

George Johnson has returned to his home after a month's hospitalization in Portland. He was injured when he fell from a high-line bucket at the dam. It is not expected that he will be able to work for some time.

Seventeen women and the Rev. L. G. Weaver of the Locks community church attended the regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society Thursday. Mrs. C. A. Brolliar was hostess. Mrs. C. E. Carns assisted in serving refreshments.

Howard Harrison has returned to work at Chapman's grocery after an attack of appendicitis which confined him to his bed several days early last week. It was an awfully bad tummyache, says he.

Carl Epping was a Hood river visitor last week.

Mrs. Wilbert Harrison is suffering from severely burned hands, result of plunging them in boiling water at her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Worden moved last week from their home near Mrs. Harriet Clodfelter's.

Frank Jones left for Portland Friday evening to spend the weekend with Mrs. Jones and their small son. Mrs. Jones moved last week from the Locks to Portland. Mr. Jones is staying in the Locks because of his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tessier and family moved last week into their Portland home. Mr. Tessier plans to stay in one of the bunk-houses on the dam, where he is employed. Their daughter, Virginia, plans to attend Grant high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Glazier and son, Howard, were Portland visitors Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenback were Portland visitors Tuesday.

Jimmy Merrill, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Merrill, was glad because he sprained a finger playing basketball at the school.

last Friday. The splints and bandage made it impossible for him to wash his hands. Now he's said to be trying to figure out a way to damage his ears so no water can touch them.

Attorney G. A. Cobb just bought a new Studebaker sedan.

Fred Rawson, former Locks resident, is now living at Eagle creek lodge. He is resident state highway engineer overseeing the building of the highway bridge across the stream.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lash entertained Earl Molesworth, and Manfred Olman of The Dalles, Miss Della Erwin of Rowena, and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Rogers of Odell at their home last week.

In honor of Mrs. Fred Anderson, who has moved from the Locks to Jennings Lodge, near Oregon City, Mrs. Harriet Clodfelter entertained at her home last week. Present were Mrs. May Elliot, Mrs. Erwin Brolliar, Mrs. Wilbert Harrison, Mrs. Jack Eimer, Mrs. James Snyder, Mrs. Isabelle Osborn, Mrs. Jesse Mohr, Mrs. Lenore Sweeney, Mrs. Morten Sweeney, Mrs. Katherine Hardy, Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Jean, left with her Friday after school for their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lundy are visiting Mrs. A. Wittman of the New Deal cafe. Mrs. Lundy is Mrs. Wittman's daughter.

EAGLES GIVE BASKET SOCIAL AT CRAIGMUNT

A good time is promised by the Cascade Locks aerle of Eagles for those who attend its basket social tonight at 8:30 at Craigmunt Inn.

Fred McGee's Powerhouse serenaders will provide the music. Ladies are asked to bring baskets and will be admitted free. The admission price of 25c will be applied against the purchase of a basket.

HOOD RIVER PRODUCES OWN MUSICAL COMEDY

"Mystery in Melody," a three-act musical comedy, will be the Hood River Breakfast club's benefit show Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the Hood River high school auditorium. Many from the dam area are planning to go.

Proceeds from the show will be used to purchase an inhalator for use in the entire county, to revive victims of shock, drowning and asphyxiation. Only two inhalators are in public use in the state, both in Portland.

"Mystery in Melody" features local writing, composing, talent and production. Morey Graff and his orchestra are an added attraction. The curtain will go up at 8 p. m.

ROOSEVELT THEATRE GETS FAMED PICTURE

Regarded as an achievement for a non-metropolitan theatre is the announcement that "Mutiny on the Bounty", sea drama, starring Charles Laughton and Clark Gable, will be seen at the Roosevelt theatre on the dam reservation February 1 to 3.

Sidney Phillips, theatre manager, also announces the following changes in the program: "Grand Exit" will be shown February 7 and 8; "Three Musketeers", February 16 to 18; "I Live My Life," February 23 to 25; "Rendezvous," February 26 and 27. These showings are in place of those advertised in the January 2 issue of The Chronicle.

Rent your rooms and apartments thru a classified ad in The Chronicle.

LOCKS GETS LOOK AT ITS FIRST FIRE TRUCK

Shining in new bright red paint, Cascade Locks' first fire truck arrived Saturday.

The truck was purchased, with 200-gallon tank, for the volunteer fire department by Acting Chief M. L. Morgan with city funds. Morgan is now busy installing the truck's equipment of a pump, hoses and chemicals. The fire engine will be housed in a special garage which Morgan is building beside his service station.

MISS THOM SINGER AT MERRILL'S SATURDAY

Miss Betty Thom, little girl with the deep, deep voice, will be the featured entertainer Saturday evening at Merrill's Columbia Gardens in Cascade Locks.

Miss Thom, who comes from Portland, has proved a popular attraction each time she has sung. Music will be furnished by Johnnie Walker's "Orchestra," which will also play for the Wednesday evening dance.

A fine aggregation of vaudeville acts is in prospect for next Saturday night at Columbia Gardens, although definite announcement will be made later.

SEE "MAC" — AT THE — OREGON-WASHINGTON FOX FARM FOR THE OREGONIAN

DR. MELVIN E. JOHNSON
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Cascade Locks Phone 35

PRICES FOR SATURDAY AND MONDAY

CHAPMAN'S GROCERY

New Location, the R. E. Andrew's Store— CASCADE LOCKS

Sun Brite CLEANSER 1 for 1c WHEN YOU BUY 3 for 13c	Crackers Krisp or Graham 2 LBS. 31c
Rinso LARGE PKG. 24c	Soup Campbell's Tomato 3 FOR 22c
Peanut Butter Hoody's 1-LB. JAR 15c 2-LB. JAR 28c	Corn Beef LIBBY'S 12-OZ. CAN 18c
Tomato Juice SWIFT'S 3 TALL TINS 25c	Coffee M. J. B. 1 LB. 28c
SHORTENING ACORN 4 pounds 45c	Coffee EMPIRE 1 LB. 20c
RITZ CRACKERS 1 pound pkg. 21c	Peas 10c ATHENA No. 2 5 CANS 49c
	Corn Harvest Inn 5 Golden Sweet FOR 49c
	Flour Dalles Hard Wheat 49 LBS. FOR $1.59
	Milk TALL CAN 6c
	Rolled Wheat Triangle Large Pkg. 19c

Pool & Snooker
DRUMMOND HALL
Cascade Locks

MIKE'S
FOR FIRST CLASS
Barbering
Cascade Locks

STAGE INFORMATION
CALL 94
CLODFELTERS
Cascade Locks