

SEEN and HEARD ON MAIN STREET

Ice, says Dad Gummit, is an essential luxury, whether it be in cubes, cracked, shaves, or in chunks. However, he adds, the "ice" stuff is awful weak all by itself.

A lot of men, observes Dad Gummit, ask for a candid opinion, when what they want is a candied opinion.

If you think there is no such thing as perpetual motion, try to find a place to park on Saturday night.

There are two kinds of men, observes Dad Gummit; the kind who do what their wives tell them, and those who never marry.

TRUTHFUL WOMAN: One who doesn't lie about anything except her age, her weight and her husband's salary.

I've brought these trousers to be measured. I sit a lot, you know," says the Tailor. "Yes, and I hope you brought the last bill to be receipted. I've stood a lot."

The Bonds of Matrimony aren't worth much unless the interest is kept up.

A good many people have found economy in the last few years . . . the same way the boy turned to swim who was pushed out of the dock.

But, says the zoo keeper, the average life of a wolf is only ten years. Just let him stay on the bench.

STATESMAN: A man who can't solve the problems that wouldn't exist if it hadn't been for statesmen.

"This generation wouldn't appreciate it," notes Dad Gummit, "but the old fashioned way to keep the stomach in shape was to keep it with pork and turnip greens, and place it between two bow handles for an afternoon."

A MAN MAY LEARN MORE AT BEGINNING AT THE BOTTOM, BUT HOW ABOUT WELL-LEARNING AND SWIMMING?

"Faith, Mrs. Casey, you're a woman of wide perception."
"Yis, Mrs. O'Malley, and it's me own figure and I'll not be hearin' remarks about it."

SMASHUP RESULTS IN DRUNK DRIVING CHARGE

Serious traffic charges were filed against Lloyd A. Hewitt of Bonneville last Thursday in Portland following his arrest at N.E. 56th avenue and N.E. Fremont street where his car was alleged to have hit the machine operated by John Bloom. Mrs. Bloom suffered slight injuries. Hewitt was pronounced intoxicated by the examining physician at the Portland police emergency hospital. Sidney St. Martin, Indian, riding with him, was also pronounced intoxicated.

BURNED GIRL RECOVERS

Little Bonnie Jean McFadden, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. McFadden of Bonneville, is well on the road to recovery in the Portland hospital where she was taken after being seriously burned when her dress caught fire two weeks ago. She may be able to leave the hospital within a week or two.

VOTING PLACE ANNOUNCED

Ballots for the January 31 statewide election will be cast in Cascade Locks at the council chambers, next to the stage depot, voters are reminded by Mayor Charles Nelson.

LOCKS CHURCH SERVICES

Evening service, 7:30 p. m.; sermon, "Prepare for the Kingdom." Special music.

FOREST SERVICE NEWS

A recreational plan and map is being prepared at Columbia Gorge district ranger station by Bill Koyer, assistant to Ranger Roy L. Weeman. It includes areas at Oneonta gorge, Horsetail falls, Eagle creek and Wyeth, where the forest service plans to develop recreational facilities, such as picnic grounds and trails for visitors.

The area around Oneonta gorge and Horsetail falls was recently donated to the forest service by Multnomah county for recreational development.

A mortarless rock retaining wall is being completed beside the highway at Columbia Gorge station.

Harold Kitching of Estacada, veteran cat driver, is driving the bulldozer that went to work last week clearing out the hillside for construction of the new warehouse.

For cleanup and construction work, Columbia Gorge station is now making use of 208 boys. Majority are improving Eagle creek campgrounds.

Ten CCC boys are at work along Tanner creek trail, improving it for travel. Another 10 are clearing brush on Lindsay creek way trail.

James Bacaloff, Lois Linton, Anita Bellarts, John Miller and Robert Snyder.

The pupils in the fifth grade who have earned grades of 1's and 2's are: Doris Jones, Lois Linton, Jim Bacaloff, Richard Carter, Anita Bellarts and Roy Lusch.

MACHINE BIDS CALLED

The U. S. engineer machine shop at the dam is going to have some new equipment. Bids are being called by the Pittcock block office of the second Portland district for nine machines. They include: one 24-inch heavy duty lathe; one 14-inch lathe; various drills, shapers, grinders, saws and threadcutters. Proposals will be opened at 3 p. m. February 6 in the Pittcock block, Portland.

At the Theatre

"We've all heard about traveling salesmen, but here's a new one. "Traveling Saleslady," the adventures of a young woman who had quite a line to sell, will be shown on the Roosevelt theatre's screen Friday and Saturday.

Joan Blondell is the daughter of a toothpaste manufacturer. She has ideas, but her father refuses to listen to them or give her a job. But Miss Blondell, undaunted goes on the road to sell "coca-tail flavor" toothpaste. Uproarious comedy results. Supporting her are Glenda Farrell, William Garçon and Hugh Herbert.

Sparkling with bright dialogue, uproarious comedy and breezy performances by its stars, "Hands Across the Table," which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, should be marked down on your list of "musts" as a delectable bit of sprightly nonsense you shouldn't miss.

Seductive Carol Lombard turns from her sophisticated lady characterizations to the light comedy part of a manicurist who is out to marry money. Fred MacMurray, as the penniless playboy, has also abandoned love for a money marriage. When he misses his ship to Bermuda, a trip paid by his prospective father-in-law, she puts him up at her apartment until he can "return" from his holiday. They agree to carry out their plans to marry a bankroll. A high note of hilarity closes the film when they find themselves in love with each other!

The widely-praised George Raft-Constance Bennett comedy, "She Couldn't Take It," will be seen Wednesday and Thursday. Raft reverts to the gangster portrayals that made him famous, but this time he is the reformed rumrunner. Walter Connolly, millionaire imprisoned for tax evasion, sees he is earnest in his desire to go straight, names him executor of his estate when he dies. What happens when Raft takes charge, despite the protests of tempestuous Miss Bennett, is sure-fire comedy.
