ANDERSON CRAWLS 80 FEET THROUGH PIPE

Ernest Anderson, superintendent of the state fish hatchery at Bonneville, crawled 80 feet through the hatchery's water supply pipe under the highway at Bonneville Tuesday to see where it needed patching.

The pipe has been the cause of a recurring bump in the road for some time. Anderson is directing the cement patching and believes the bad spot in the highway to be cured.

WOMEN'S CLUB HOLDS CARD SESSION TODAY

All women of the dam area are invited to the card party to be given this afternoon in the government auditorium club rooms by the Bonneville women's community club.

Hostesses are Mrs. Leo Miller, Mrs. James Bell and Mrs. Stanley Trefren. A large attendance is expected. Another party is planned for early February.

DOCTOR JORDAN OPENS OFFICES IN PORTLAND

Dr. Lewis W. Jordan, formerly with National Hospital association on the dam reservation, has opened offices in the Selling building and at 6304 Sandy blvd., Portland, for private practice as physician and surgeon.

He will be at the Sandy blvd. address evenings and by appointment in the Selling building during the daytime. A number of his Bonneville friends have already visited him.

LOCKS FILLS MUDHOLES

Directed by Councilman Silver Perras, the Cascade Locks street cleaning department is hard at work filling up mudholes around town. Because the streets are so hilly, the gravel washes away as fast as it can be put on, according to Perras, but the worst spots, where cars are likely to get stuck, are receiving daily attention.

OIL ENGINEER SOLVES DIESEL WOES AT DAM

Standard Oil company established its first Bonneville office on the reservation back of Pacific Steel company's buildings early this week.

In charge is Kenneth Ayer of Portland, expert on diesel engines and fuels. Mr. Ayer will solve diesel problems for engineers and contractors around the dam.

DRUNKS SENTENCED

Robert E. Donigan drew 50 days in the county jail when he pled guilty to charges of fight-ance and being intoxicated near a public highway. Holt Bonebrake was sentenced to five days when he pled guilty to charges of fighting. Both men were arrested Thursday at Bonneville by Multnomah county deputy sheriffs Minielly and Weckert.

VETS DANCE SATURDAY TO CELEBRATE BONUS

Veterans, with news of the bonus ringing in their ears, should be specially gleeful Saturday night when they attend the veterans of Foreign Wars' dance in the American Legion hall at Carson, Wash.

Ted Johnson, entertainment chairman, has obtained the well-known Meeker's Five Aces dance orchestra and other entertainment. Refreshments will be served by ladies of the post.

TRUCK BLOCKS HIGHWAY

The Columbia river highway was blocked Saturday at 2:30 p. m. at Ruckel creek when a gasoline tank truck and trailer, operated by Asbury Transportation company, skidded on a turn as a result of the snowstorm. Traffic was resumed after several other trucks hooked onto the big tanker, dragging it clear of the bank. Damage was negligible and the truck went on to Portland under its own power.

LOCKS TO GET LOOK AT YACHT MEETING

First "out-of-town" meeting of the Cascade Yacht club will be held in Cascade Locks at the Columbia hotel Friday at 8:30 p. m., according to Commodore Herschel Shreve.

Purpose is to make the activities of the yachtsmen known to Locks residents, and all others who care to attend. A general discussion of the club's activities in promoting Columbia river yachting is planned.

DAM HOOPSTERS LOSE REIMER, STAR PLAYER

Bonneville dam's all-star basketball team won over White Salmon Monday evening, 59-47, but it was a costly victory.

Jimmy Reimer, star forward, was put out of play early in the game when he pulled a ligament in his back. He will probably be unable to play for the rest of the season, although the injury is not sufficiently serious to keep him away from his work on the USED switchboard. With Reimer off the team, Bonneville's record of no defeats is expected to be a bit harder to keep up.

ROOMING HOUSE SOLD

Sale of the Checkerboard rooms, Cascade Locks, to the Misses May and June Morgan of Portland was announced Friday by Mrs. Rene Keith, proprietor for several years. Mrs. Keith's plans for the future are indefinite.

LICENSE EXAMS SET

Examinations for motor vehicle operators' and chauffeur licenses will be given by a testing state examiner today from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. in the public library on the dam reservation. Examinations will also be given February 29 and March 13. License fee is one dollar and examination is required only for those obtaining their first driver's license.

LOCKS FIREMEN ELECT NEW OFFICERS FRIDAY

Election of new officers will be held by the Cascade Locks volunteer fire department when it meets Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the council chambers.

All members are urged to be present. A chief, assistant president and other officials will be elected.
