DAM BASKETEERS BOW TO REED COLLEGIANS

The unmarked record of the dam's all-star basketball team went down with a crash Thursday night in Portland when Reed college trounced it, 36-21, outclassed the dam from the start.

Reed college was taken for a trimming the week before, when its team visited the dam. The volleyball team repeated its triumph of two weeks ago over Reed by chalking up 2 more victories. The "dam widows," the women's volleyball team, were beaten by the Reed coeds after leading through the first half. In handball the dam teams won three out of five over the collegians.

Over 40 Bonneville players were guests of Reed college, returned saying they'd been treated royally.

Music classes are talking "Op-eretta". We wonder if that is an announcement?

We wish to express deepest regrets to our fellow students, Claude and Bernard McCandless, upon the loss of their father. In extending our sympathy we also wish them a speedy return to school.

The program given last Friday evening at the Civic Auditorium by the school was well attended. We wish to thank our friends for their interest. After all expenses were paid $36 was cleared.
