

MORNING HOUR SELECTED FOR FLORAL PARADE

THE 1936 PAGEANT OF FLOWER DECORATED FLOATS, WILL MOVE AT 10:30 A.M., JUNE 12, IN PORTLAND

Because of adding new features to the program to be staged at the twenty-eighth annual Rose Festival celebration, the directors, who serve three years each without pay, have designated the hour of 10:30 A.M. of June 12 for starting the magnificent parade of flower decorated floats that is the high-light of the Festival. The floats are also much more beautiful in the dewy morning hours.

Other factors that influenced the change were the expectation that hot weather (for the Northwest) would again prevail during the rose show, and the terrific traffic jams that attend the breaking up of the crowds after the parade is over and people are heading home for supper. It is always cool in Portland during the forenoon, and the parade being over by 1:30 P.M. allows plenty of time for autoists, buses and street cars to deliver their loads at home in time for an early dinner, and permitting a return to witness the night shows.

The Festival will open with the gorgeous ceremony attending the crowning of the Queen of Rosaria on Wednesday night, June 10, at the Stadium.

DODSON

M. M. McCrady spent Sunday in Portland.

Lee Sams spent Saturday in Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robertson returned Wednesday from a three-day visit to Eugene for the funeral of Mrs. Robertson's aunt, who died Friday evening. Burial was at Brownsville, Mrs. Robertson's former home town.

"Fisherman Bill" Marsnaill caught three steelhead in the Columbia river off the old cannery last week, the first of the winter run. The fish averaged seven pounds in weight, a little heavier than usual, according to Marshall. He looks for the height of the steelhead run the end of next week. Thursday he caught a salmon and expects a small run around the end of the month. The fishtrap, he says, is half full of suckers and small sturgeon, with the suckers running in strong.

Bonnie Park garage underwent the finishing touches Monday of a paint job begun some time before Christmas. A decided improvement is noticed.

Mrs. C. F. Beatie entertained the Bonnie Park Women's Wednesday Sewing club yesterday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. E. S. Barnum of Oregon City visited her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. McCrady, several days last week. Mrs. McCrady spent several days with her at her Oregon City home.

To the sixth birthday party of Gladys Lee Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris, came on Saturday Jimmy and Joan Lash, Goldie and Betty Palmer, Connie and Betty Correll, Dorothy VanMeter, Lillian and Carol Bucher, and Billy Beatie. Cake, ice cream and cookies were served.

A. R. McAden, senior photographer at the dam, took a typical postman's holiday Sunday, but instead of going for a walk, he took Mrs. McAden for a ride down the highway, stopping at the various falls to take pictures of the spectacular ice formation. "Mac" takes so many pictures during working hours at the dam that one would think he wouldn't want to look at a camera on Sunday.

Rent your rooms and apartments thru a classified ad in The Chronicle.

Warrendale

Mrs. L. J. Mitcheller was hostess to a bridge tea Tuesday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. R. Baty, Mrs. George Houtz and Mrs. Bert Falconer, the latter from Bonny Villa.

Mrs. T. B. Beck entertained the Warrendale Women's Bridge club Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Mitcheller drove to White Salmon, Wash., Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Falconer of Bonny Villa. They found the highway sheathed with ice in a number of places.

Mrs. Bly, of Big Sandy, Mont., is a house guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bly.

Mrs. L. E. Stevens was a Portland visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Hargesty and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kline were deceived by the bright sunshine Sunday afternoon. They hiked up McCord creek trail with the idea of cutting across above the falls and coming out at Warrendale. But sheets of ice on the steep hillside fooled them; they had to retrace their steps.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries returned this week from a two-day visit with friends near Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Roxy Hill spent Monday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Klingbeil spent Sunday in Camas, Wash., visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gauden, on their way to Portland Sunday, stopped at Horsetail and Muttonmah falls to take photographs of them with their massive mantles of ice formed from the spray.

Mrs. Leo Cook spent Sunday in Portland.

A want ad will get results.

'CAN'T PINCH ME FOR PARKING,' SAYS GUARD

"Gosh, aren't the boys getting strict about parking regulations?" U. S. Guard Charles Bellarts muttered to himself Monday afternoon as he took a white slip from the windshield of his car.

Bellarts had parked his machine on Bradford Island before going across to North Bonneville for duty. Guard Ed Turrish failed to recognize a brother guard's car, gave Bellarts a slip calling for a visit to Capt. John Torkelson.

Since parking on the island is perfectly legal for a guard in the line of duty, Bellarts merely snorted, scrawled "I'm sorry," across the ticket, left it on captain Torkelson's desk, rushed out to kid Turrish.

At the Theatre

"Grand Exit," dramatic production of the G-men of the fire investigators, will be shown at the Roosevelt theatre on the Bonneville dam reservation Friday and Saturday with Edmond Lowe and Ann Sothern in the leading roles.

Lowe portrays a happy-go-lucky ladies' man, albeit one of the most intrepid of insurance company private fire detectives. Investigating a series of incendiary fires, he finds his suspicions unwillingly directed towards Miss Sothern, for whom he has fallen completely. He risks everything on a strategic ruse to trap the real criminal. How he does this provides the basis for the thrills in the drama, which despite its underlying theme of death and destruction, contains a light vein of comedy and romance.

A new high in motion picture spectacle is "The Last Days of Pompeii," to be seen Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Roosevelt.

Scene is the Roman city of Pompeii (pronounced Pompay) some 2,000 years ago. Marcus, the young blacksmith (Preston Foster), embittered by poverty and loss of his wife, becomes a famed gladiator, makes acquisition of wealth his goal. He finds that, as lack of money cost him one son, the possession of it must cost him another.

Basil Rathbone plays the part of Pontius Pilate, judge who condemned Jesus. His sympathetic portrayal of that much-abused character is one of the high points of the picture.

The lavish splendor of ancient Rome—the arena, the slavery, the cities and their temples—are all magnificently reproduced. End comes when the volcano, Vesuvius, erupts, forces the citizens of Pompeii to flee for their lives.

"Bordertown," combining the talents of Paul Muni and Bette Davis, will be shown Wednesday and Thursday.

Combining the fighting fury of "I'm a Fugitive from a Chain Gang," and the man-wrecking star of "Of Human Bondage," the show portrays what happens when a woman raises a man from the depths, hurls him down again. In the drama's fine supporting cast are Margaret Lindsay and Eugene Pallette.

35¢ ROOSEVELT Theatre ON THE BONNEVILLE DAM RESERVATION

Direction J. J. Parker

FRIDAY, SATURDAY—FEBRUARY 7-8 EDMUND LOWE—ANN SOTHERN

"GRAND EXIT"

LOWE as a G-Man of the Fire Fighters... Matching Cloes and Kisses With a Blonde Baby Who Knew More About Arson Than Love!

SUN., MON., TUES.—FEBRUARY 9-10-11

PRESTON FOSTER—ALAN HALE AND A CAST OF THOUSANDS

"The Last Days of Pompeii"

BEHOLD! The Last Mad Days of a Pagan World That Laughed at Impending Doom!... Thrill... To the Slave Mart! the Circus! Vesuvius in Eruption! Frantic Mobs Rushing to the Sea! Scenes of Astounding Magnitude That You Must SEE TO BELIEVE!

WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY—FEBRUARY 12-13

PAUL MUNI—BETTE DAVIS

"BORDERTOWN"

One Woman Died to Escape Him... Another Killed to Possess Him... What was the Lure That Held Women to This Man They All Called "SAVAGE"?

Doors Open Daily and Sunday, 6:45—Matinee Sun. 1 p. m.

Chronicle want ads cost only one cent a word. Use them to tell people what you have to sell.

**?
HAVE YOU JOINED THE LOCKS SUIT CLUB?
—SEE—
LOCKS CLEANERS & DYERS
CASCADE - - - LOCKS

D-R-Y
MILL ENDS
Kept Dry 'Till Delivered To You!
◆
THE DALLES FREIGHT LINE
Cascade Locks

BUY MILK at your local dairy
Grade A Raw, Grade A Pasteurized Orange Juice, Eggs, Butter
DELIVERED DAILY
HOLLYWOOD DAIRY
JOE BUCHER, PROP. DODSON

Wonderful Meals
Pleasant Atmosphere
Good Beds
Convenient
THE WORKINGMAN'S HOME
Free Drying Room For Patrons
CRAIGMONT HOTEL
John Almquist, manager

FUEL OIL and KEROSENE
BY THE GALLON AT
Morgan's Standard Service
UNSURPASSED
Cascade Locks