CASCADE LOCKS

H. E. Pointer was a business visitor to Portland Thursday. "Skippy," Postmaster Frank Hall's small dog of indeterminate breed, is recovering from the gaping wound on the back of his neck inflicted early last week by Frank Moran's police dog.

Mrs. J. Stevens' hand laundry is now located in the first house west of the New Deal cafe.

The Locks Townsend club will hold its regular business meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in the Odd Fellows hall. A social meeting is planned for the next regular meeting, two weeks from Friday evening. The club reports a membership of 175, with prospect of many new members.

F. B. Waite of Portland, owner of the Rose apartments, was a business visitor in the Locks Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sundsten drove to Portland last week.

Max Millsap has moved into the Lakeside hotel and rented his house to Mr. and Mrs. Moffett.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wine-land, Mrs. Mondy and the Reverend an Mrs. L. G. Weaver attended Bonneville community church services Sunday morning, the Locks church being closed. Mr. Davis of Portland preached in the absence of the Rev. Stanley Trefren, ill with mumps.

The Rev. L. G. Weaver attended the Hood River County Ministerial association meeting Monday evening in Hood River. He reviewed two recent articles in "Current Thought"—"The Curse of Keeping up with the Joneses," and "The Twentieth Century, So Far."

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Petite entertained the Reverend and Mrs. L. G. Weaver at dinner Sunday.

Jacqueline Dean, tiny "incubator baby" daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Red Jackson, was taken to Stevenson hospital suffering from a bad cold Monday night. She is noted as being probably the tiniest baby ever born in the Columbia gorge.

Capt. Charles Nelson and son Henry made a flying trip to Hood River Monday on business.

Henry Nelson donned boiled shirt and tuxedo Saturday evening to dance at the Oregon State college Junior Prom at Corvallis. He was accompanied by several friends from Portland. His heart was in his mouth Friday night when the Nelson home caught fire and threatened to burn the tux.

Art Lovell took his mother and Jeanne Orvis to Hood river Thursday to visit Mrs. R. C. Morris, confined in the Hood River hospital. Mrs. Morris is well on the road to recovery.

W. N. Hulse and son, Charles, were Portland visitors Monday.

FIRE DAMAGES MAYOR NELSON'S RESIDENCE

Fire in the living room of Mayor and Mrs. Charles Nelson's home Thursday evening at 9:30 o'clock brought the Cascade Locks volunteer fire department and the town's citizens on the run, did small damage.

Blaze apparently resulted from a chimney fire overheating the brick base of the chimney. Ceiling of the living room and the floor above it was burned slightly. Greatest damage was done to clothes hanging in the adjoining bedroom. A number of Captain Nelson's shirts were burned, but the newest ones were saved.

The fire out and the excitement over, Mrs. Nelson was so nervous she couldn't sleep, she says, and so she got up, baked a cake which the family enjoyed for Friday dinner.
