

Turns Down $37,500 for One Square Inch of Paper

Would you bid $37,500 for a square inch of undistinguished plum-colored paper, which most people would not bother to pick up if they saw it lying on the floor? At the recent auction in London of the famous one-cent British Guiana stamp of 1856, this princely offer, made by Mr. J. L. Pemberton, was refused. Insured for $50,000, the stamp's reserve price has been fixed at $42,500 by its owner, the widow of Mr. Arthur Hind, the distinguished New York collector.

Yet 62 years ago, a schoolboy, L. Vernon Vaughan, picked this treasure out of his album and, not liking the look of it, sold it to a fellow enthusiast for $1.50!—Tit-Bits.

STAR DUST
MOVIE AND RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE

ONE of the best pictures made in this or any other year is R K O's "Follow the Fleet," the new Rogers-Astaire effort. It's delightful from start to finish. Fred Astaire has developed remarkably as a comedian. And the Irving Berlin songs are all hits, especially "We Joined the Navy," which has been played and sung so often on the radio. Randolph Scott makes a good foil for Astaire, and Harriet Hilliard, a recent recruit from the radio, does very well indeed. Ginger Rogers' very pretty young mother feels—and says, without hesitation—that Ginger isn't getting enough credit for her work as a member of the Rogers-Astaire team. She points out the fact that Ginger was an accomplished dancer when Fred was still taking lessons. Whereupon the lively Fred's friends and admirers rise up to declare that he is a natural dancer, that Ginger was never so good before she began dancing with him.

The arrival of Laura LaPlante's infant daughter has sent many a cable buzzing over the sea, for Laura has always been popular in movie circles, and so has her husband, Irving Asher. He is now European representative of one of the big motion picture firms.

Remember Helen Holmes, of that hair-raising scandal of the old days. "The Hazards of Helen"? She is working in W. C. Fields' new picture, "Poppy," on the Paramount lot. She has only a small part, but hopes to get bigger ones, though she has no illusions of becoming a star again. She has never worked in talking pictures; she retired from the screen before they came in, and went with her husband, a cowboy who had worked in pictures, to live on their ranch.

It doesn't seem possible that the talkies are ten years old; surely it isn't ten years since we saw the

Kidnaping Is Not Entirely an American Crime, Nor New

The crime of kidnaping is not a new one or confined to this country, though the organization of kidnaping gangs for profit has been more greatly developed here in recent years than anywhere else. It is a curious fact that the word "kidnaping" came into use not in America but in England about 250 years ago and referred to the business of stealing young people in that country to provide indentured servants or laborers (virtually slaves) for the American plantations.

In Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," written in 1684, occurs the sentence, "Thou practisest the craft of a kidnaper; thou gatherest up women and children and carriest them into a strange country, to the weakening of my master's kingdom." Maj. Arthur Griffith's "Mysteries of Police and Crime" states: "Child stealing has always been a profitable trade, practiced at the instance of greedy relatives anxious to remove a rightful heir; full-grown youths of muscle and sinew were entrapped in great numbers during the first half of the Eighteenth century to be sold as white slaves for the American plantations."—Detroit News.

first one, and thought them terrible. But the tenth anniversary has come round, and will be celebrated by the re-making of "The Jazz Singer," the picture that made Al Jolson a screen star.

The tremendous success of "Rose Marie," with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, has boosted his concert fees. Three years ago he got $300 a performance; now he receives $2,500 and 60 per cent of the receipts over $3,500. Not bad!

Paramount likes Carole Lombard and Gary Cooper as a team; they're scheduled to make three pictures together. Meanwhile Gary is having a grand vacation and doesn't even want to remember the movies, much less talk about them.

Charlie Farrell must have been happy when he landed in Australia and the film fans mobbed him; it's been a long time since the public showed any particular interest in him as an actor. He'll make a picture there, and may like it well enough to stay and do several.

Ethel Shutta, widely known in the world of night clubs, is now a regular radio visitor each Saturday night at 10:30 p. m., EST, over a coast to coast NBC red network. Best known for a rather torrid type of vocalizing, she privately prefers lullaby tunes. Maybe that's because in private life she is Mrs. George Olsen (wife of the band leader on this same program) and the mother of two youngsters, Charles, aged eight, and George, Jr., aged six.

Through A WOMAN'S EYES

by JEAN NEWTON

IF THE CEYLONESE ARE THE MOST BEAUTIFUL—

AFTER a "world tour" a German professor announced positively that the most beautiful women in the world were the Ceylonese.

The German frauleins were indignant and their men up in arms in support of them.

An American editor announced: "It is plain that the Herr professor has not adhered to the traditional thoroughness. His conclusions as to the most beautiful women in the world would have been vastly different had he completed his world tour. His statement that the Ceylonese women are the most beautiful is positive evidence that he has not visited the United States, and it develops that he has never set foot on American soil. Should he eventually visit this country, he will find his judgment premature!"

The American editor thinks American women the most beautiful.

Unfortunately, we have no comments from France on the professor's selection of Ceylonese women as the most beautiful; nor from Italy, nor Spain. In fact we know only the German and American reaction. But it is not difficult to guess that the others would be similar. "The most beautiful women in the world are our women. No man choosing others could possibly have seen our women!"

But the Ceylonese think the professor right!

And it's rather comforting to have

Let Fortune Come, but Let Us Aim at a Clean Record

It does not matter so very much after all, whether you make a fortune or not; but it does matter very much whether or not you keep sweet, have a clean record, and live a balanced life. Some of the greatest men in all history were total failures as money makers, but they were notable successes in nobility and balance of character, cleanliness of life, mental stability of purpose, and sweetness of disposition.—O. S. M.

proved again that beauty is largely a matter of taste. For it gives us all a chance to be beautiful. It tells us we need not feel foolish for listening seriously to that fervent assertion that "You are the most beautiful woman in the world." We do not have to take it with a sense of humor. For if the professor can find his ideal of beauty in the Ceylonese, why shouldn't another man find it in me?
