MORGAN BUILDS FENCE

A lattice fence was built this week by M. L. Morgan between his service station and residence at Cascade Locks to add a more finished appearance to the station. A gate leads down a short flight of steps to rest rooms.

60 CCC BOYS ARRIVE SATURDAY FROM EAST

Sixty boys from the Chicago, Ill. area arrived Saturday at Camp Cascade Locks at Wyeth for replacements in the CCC ranks.

Ranger Albert Wiesendanger of Eagle creek station, spoke before the new contingent Monday evening on Forest Safety and related topics to acquaint them with the problems they will face on what is probably their first experience with forests.

The arrival of the group brings the strength of the group to about 160. A number left for the East recently on expiration of their enlistment periods.

DR. MELVIN JOHNSON MOVES LOCKS OFFICE

Dr. Melvin E. Johnson of Cascade Locks moved his office and surgery to his home on the second floor of the Silver Perras building.

Doctor Johnson was formerly located at the east end of town in the building across Main street from Dew Drop inn. His phone number remains the same, Cascade Locks 35.

Dodson

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis and daughter, Melva Jean, and Mrs. C. C. MacGowan motored to The Dalles Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Robertson was honored with a shower at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kimbrough last Wednesday at the regular meeting of the Bonnie Park Wednesday Women's Sewing club. Those present were Mrs. C. C. MacGowan, Mrs. Arthur Eade, Mrs. Joe Bucher, Mrs. Marion VanMeter, Mrs. Lee Sams, Mrs. Harry Matthewson, Mrs. Harold McShatko, Mrs. Ted Johnson, Mrs. Charles F. Beatie, Mrs. Tom Morris, Mrs. J. B. Lash and Miss Zelma Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Vanmeter were called to Portland last week by the death of Mr. VanMeter's father. Mrs. Charles F. Beatie spent Monday in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Strom accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Garner of Eagle creek circle Sunday on a flower-picking expedition picnic near Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McShatko spent the weekend in Portland. Mrs. McShatko's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd returned Sunday with them. Mr. Lloyd started painting the McShatko house, staining the shingles gray with dark red trim. Mr. McShatko is finishing the job this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson were called to Milwaukie Sunday and Monday by the death of Mr. Johnson's father, Clarence J. Johnson.

Miss Virginia Connolly left Thursday to return to her home in Hood River after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Harry Matthewson.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Morris are proud owners of a new Chevrolet sedan. No one has yet been able to figure out exactly what the color is, because it seems to be between a green and a gray.

Springtime has hit the Dodson area with full force. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson are busy landscaping a new lawn and garden at their home. Grass is starting to sprout in Mr. and Mrs. Harold McShatko's lawn and a number of other residents are preparing to do a little garden work.

Mrs. C. C. MacGowan, Mrs. Lee Sams and son, David, were dinner guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren in Cascade Locks and enjoyed the afternoon later at the home of Mrs. E. Granstrom.

Mr. and Mrs. Robnette, formerly of Warrendale, moved last week into their new home in Bonnie Park addition.

The father of Marion VanMeter was buried Saturday at his old farm in Grass Valley, following his death Thursday night at his daughter's home in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Van Meter were called to Portland on news of his death and to Grass Valley for the funeral.

Izaak Walton

L. C. Sanders was chosen chairman of the big Izaak Walton blow-out and banquet set for May 11, when about 20 Oregon state chapter officials, including William S. Finley, nationally known naturalist, will visit the new Bonneville chapter.

All details of the big party will be announced through The Chronicle in the Izaak Walton notes section, a new feature beginning this week.

Other appointments at last week's meeting were: Hank Mays, membership chairman, and Chuck Bellarts, publicity director.

Plans were made for writing the public an open letter regarding the danger to wild life from dogs in the dam area. Dogs are seen chasing deer frequently, and in many instances cause them to jump over cliffs.

Members revealed many fishing secrets to one another, with the result that good catches are expected this weekend.

Fred McGee, club president, presided at the session, assisted by Bob White, secretary-treasurer.
