ERNIE MEADOWS TAKEN ILL: PUT UNDER KNIFE

Engineers and friends were concerned this week about the condition of Ernie Meadows, car driver, who was taken to the hospital Tuesday for an emergency operation.

Meadows was employed on the clearing operation up the river and was taken suddenly ill while working. He was rushed to the hospital and the operation performed. It was feared that gangrene had set in and his condition was pronounced serious.

The cream of all absent minded professors is the one who, about to start on a journey, filled his wife with gasoline, kissed his road map goodbye and tried to shove his automobile into his pocket.

Bonny Villa

Billy Fargher came home from school Monday noon, ill. He will spend several days resting before returning to classes.

Mrs. O'Keefe, Miss Merritt and Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich drive through the Hood River valley last Sunday, taking in the panorama of blossoms now flowering the entire district.

Miss Turbelson of Gladstone is visiting for a month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johns in the Bonneville district.

Hal Babbitt, Miss Jerry Williams, Bill McDonald and Miss Mary Lawrence Heckbert swarmed over the sands of Hamilton island, Sunday, in quest of Indian relics. Result of the day was one large bone, tentatively identified as a leg bone and left at that. The bone, incidentally, was left at the sight of the diggings and abandoned in favor of a large dinner served that evening at the Bonny Villa tavern in true Babbitt style.

Mr. Enquist and son-in-law, Glen Ferrington, drove to Taft Saturday to visit their respective "bosses". They returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Grim visited Portland Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Snyder, suddenly taken ill, was driven to Portland where she will be operated on for gall stones. She left here Saturday.

G. E. Ferrington and Eric Enquist left last Saturday afternoon by automobile for Taft, Oregon, where they will visit with Mrs. Ferrington and Mrs. Enquist and her son, Dale.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Farar and family drove to Dufur Saturday evening to visit with relatives there over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hansen were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Buchholz last Friday evening on a trip into Portland in the Buchholz' new Oldsmobile. The party attended the theater after having dinner in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White made a shopping trip to Portland Saturday while Mrs. J. E. Miller took care of the Whites' baby during the day.

Mrs. Anna Lee Foster and Fred Brandt drove to Bonneville from their home in Grand Coulee last Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. McDougal and Mrs. Foster's daughter, Loyce. They returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. McDougal of Bonny Villa drove into Portland Thursday night to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lynds went shopping in Portland Friday.

Mrs. Oskar Eklund and her daughter, Miss Margery Eklund, visited in Portland Saturday.

Eleven Bonny Villa residents who made up a party to attend the V.F.W. dance last Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Eklund, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. McGinnis, and Shorty Bickel. They dined at the Roosevelt inn after the dance.

Mrs. Ethel Linton took her two small daughters to Portland Saturday to see a Shirley Temple moving picture. They returned Saturday evening.

Next Wednesday will be the final meeting of the year for the Bonneville Parent-Teacher association. The P.T.A. hopes to have a good attendance at this last meeting of the year.

In compliance with a petition signed by a number of residents of Bonny Villa the state highway commission has built a bus stop at a point directly across the highway from the Bonny Villa tavern. This was a much needed improvement as several accidents have been caused by persons flagging busses on the highway where there was no place for the vehicle to get off the pavement.

Mrs. B. A. Stark of Eugene was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lusch at their Bonneville home all last week. Mrs. Stark is Mrs. Lusch's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Faubian and B. H.

Bonneville

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. LaCombe of Odell and Ted Williams of Staples, Minnesota, were visitors at the home of Jack Sawyer Wednesday. Mr. Williams remained in the district to look over the dam and the surrounding country. It has been twelve years since Mr. Williams was in the district and he enjoyed noticing the many changes that have taken place.

Miss Arlene Sawyer, who is attending school in Portland, spent the week-end in the district, and reports an enjoyable evening at the Legion dance.

One time when one-arm driving may be indulged in without the usual lifting of eyebrows—Bill Bebo is the man, and he drove all the way from Salt Lake City where he and Mrs. Bebo spent a few days visiting the old home town. Mr. Bebo injured his right arm some time ago on the job, but his left arm is good for wheel work, he says.

The Bonneville Women's Gym classes were taking orders from Mrs. Myrtle Riley this week during the absence of Mrs. Stanley Levaek, who is enjoying a needed rest after her long and faithful direction of women's activities. Enthusiastic members of the volley ball team report Mrs. Riley doing a neat bit of coaching. Women's gym classes meet every Monday, Wednesday and Friday and are open to any woman in the district who wishes to attend.

Ray Marsh, remember the chap? He's back on the job with the Safeway store after an enforced vacation since the first of the year. Ray is minus his appendix now, and seems to be getting along well without it. At least there's a big grin on the face behind the counter.

Tommy Wentz, former manager of the store, here, is now located in Hillsboro. Tommy was out Sunday, saying hello to his many friends in the district.

The Bonneville Women's club held a card party Thursday afternoon and boast an attendance of sixty. Dessert luncheon was served by hostesses, Mrs. McArthur, Mrs. Sporseen and Mrs. Fancher. The club is sponsoring an attendance campaign with Mrs. Virgil Garner and Mrs. Stanley Sporseen and captains. The losers dine the winners.

Mrs. Frank Ewen deserves a vote of gratitude from the community at large for her untiring efforts on behalf of the Red Cross flood relief drive that has been in progress for the past week or so. She has made a thorough coverage of the entire district and inasmuch as there has been no official move in the area, Mrs. Ewen's humanitarian spirit needs recognition and support.

Reports are that several good sized fish have been caught in Tanner creek recently. C. R. Tidd of the Roosevelt annex having landed one that measured twelve inches and another unnamed fisherman proudly boasts a catch weighing 7½ pounds dressed. Anglers, oil up the old reel and join the sport. There are more where these came from.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Laird were Portland visitors Friday.

Lusch spent the weekend in Portland.

Miss Virginia Northway of Springdale was the guest of Miss Juanita Northway at Ye Gift Shoppe in Bonny Villa last Wednesday and Thursday.

Louie Walker Columbia Construction company rigger, and Bob Stevenson, press correspondent, drove to Vancouver, B. C., last Wednesday evening and returned to the district Saturday morning. Much amusement was had from the little English Austin seven cars, vest-pocket editions of the American Austin.

Ralf Erdman launched his fast motorboat, "Miss K", Monday afternoon after weeks of preparation. The new craft will do better than 30 miles per.
