

Bonny Villa

Bob Grim, recently departed from the district, caught the public eye as he drove up in his new brilliantly painted and high-powered Flint phaeton. The "red demon", to judge from the rumble of its exhaust, is pregnant with multiplied horsepower.

David ("Scrub") Collins, returned from the big city this week at the wheel of his newly acquired Ford convertible coupe.

Mrs. Glen Frank and son, Dale, returned in company with her mother, Mrs. Enquist, after a two weeks' tour of the Oregon beaches.

Rolf Enquist was the guest of Elmer Shrock in Portland Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Erdman left for Portland Sunday for a week's stay in the big city.

Miss Geraldine Williams and Miss Mary Lawrence Heckbert of Portland were guests of Hugh Williams over the week-end.

F. McDonald, of Yuma, Arizona, was in the area this week visiting the offices of National commissary.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were visitors in the district this week-end.

Jimmy Bowens, who for some time has been seriously ill with spinal meningitis, is reported well on the road to recovery, and will soon be about again.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hart of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Crowe over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Glavey of The Dalles stopped on their way to Portland to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fargher.

Mrs. Jim Ellis of Corbett and Mrs. Ted Wright of Gresham were guests at the C. R. Grim home Sunday.

Mrs. C. R. Grim was called to the back of the store Monday morning by children and saw grazing just below the bank a deer, who seemed unconcerned about all the fuss that was being made about its appearance. The animal slowly grazed its way over the hill and disappeared in the underbrush.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller were in Portland Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McAlpine of Vancouver took Sunday "potluck" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Braunds. Robert and Charles Braunds spent Saturday in Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roth of Los Angeles, Calif., spent Friday afternoon at the Fargher home.

Wee Cove section of Bonny Villa was well represented at the recent music festival held in Russellville Friday. Yvonne and Harvey Bolin, Dick Teerink, Russell Kelsey and Betty Phelps lent lusty voices to the melodies that featured the event.

Janet Stoby has been ill for several days, but is expected to be about again very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fargher of Bufur, Oregon, visited the Stanley Farghers in their home here Friday.

If you were to return from an extended trip away from home and find yourself officially listed as dead what would you do? Three soldiers who returned from the war answered this problem with hilarious results in "Three Live Ghosts" opening at the Roosevelt theater, Friday and Saturday of this week.

The Ghosts, Richard Arlen, Claude Allister and Charles McNaughton find themselves wrapped up in a situation which presents all sorts of possibilities. They escaped from a German prison camp, return to London to find themselves on the official dead list.

What happens from then on you will have to see for yourself.

And who is the lady? Beryl Mercer, the woman who creates on the screen the same role in which she rose to fame on the stage before New York's critical audiences. Cecilia Parker plays the love interest.

An inimitable team again together in what promises to be effervescent entertainment—just say Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell and what more need be said? Remember "42nd Street"? Well, here is another one that will keep your attention from beginning to end. "Shipmates Forever" crowns the bill of entertainment at the reservation theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday with rapid-fire action, repartee and the well-known Powell personality.

You saw "Flirtation Walk" and if all about the United States Naval Academy and the romantic attachments that the implication brings, you didn't you surely heard about it. This is another with the same setting. A crooner who goes to sea with the colors of Annapolis. Fine photography and excellent shots taken aboard the U. S. S. Pennsylvania, flagship of the Pacific fleet.

It is without doubt the most pretentious film ever made by this grand pair and with the supporting cast behind them, what a show this is. Lewis Stone long has cast envious eyes on the brilliant trappings of an admiral of the navy, and here finds himself wielding the power of a "king of the seas".

Songs? Sure. Isn't Dick Powell in the leading role? And Ruby Keeler, that talented little trooper, isn't far behind. It's a show that everybody will enjoy. Sunday, Monday and

CONCESSION GIVEN LOCAL RESTAURANT AT DAM ENTRANCE

Operators of the community center eating place on the reservation have set up shop in a tent alongside the entrance to the dam proper at the railroad tracks. First appearance was made Sunday when the establishment was opened for business.

Being located directly across the road from the trail leading to the viewpoint, an excellent opportunity was had for business. Pop, sandwiches and the usual assortment of beverages are available. It is planned to open the place for business each Sunday.

Concession was granted by the U. S. Engineers as the property upon which the establishment stands belongs to the government.

Tuesday at the Roosevelt theater on the reservation.

Not "G" men this time but "T" men, from the treasury department smashing the income tax racket. Through the rattle of machine-gun fire and the deadly hail of bullets, government sleuths close in on the ring-leaders of a billion dollar crime trust. Raids, killers at bay and a persistent newspaper reporter hot on the trail of a new lead. And the girl? In a jam, and what a jam. What's it all about?

There is only one answer to that. See "Special Agent" showing at the district's most popular playhouse, the Roosevelt Wednesday and Thursday, May 13 and 14. George Brent, the reporter; Bette Davis, the girl; Ricardo Cortez, the dictator or the powerful band of crooks, looting the government of millions of dollars in income taxes, a killer without a soul, and a cast of many other well-known players.

One of those fast-moving, tense films, packed with hair-raising incidents. Bette Davis, a past master at the art of portraying the role she is cast in here. George Brent, a reporter, and you know what that means. Well, we could go on for pages here but the best bet is to see the show. Wednesday and Thursday at the Roosevelt. It's a date.
