Scenes and Persons in the Current News

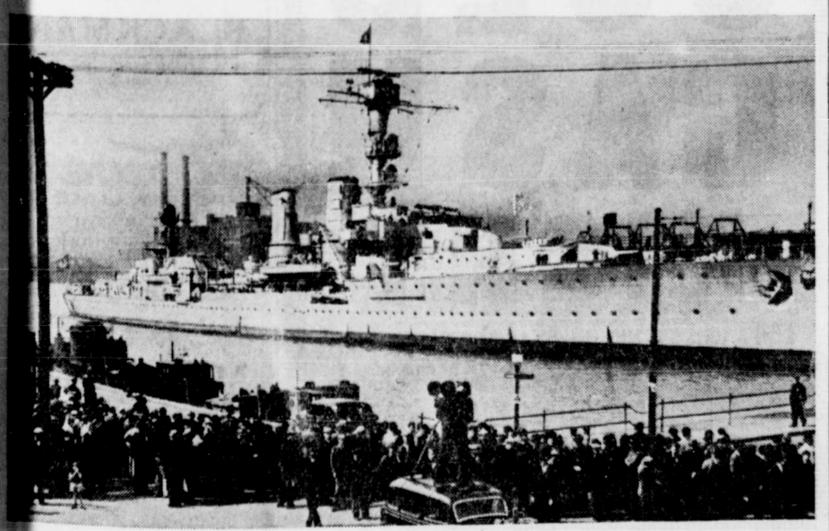

1—Unveiling of monument at Lille which French government erected to commemorate the 20,000 trained thing pigeons killed in the World war. 2—Students of Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill., demonstrating against war and Fascism. 3—Delegation of east coast seamen demanding of Secretary of Commerce an investigation of the American merchant marine.

California Barber Is a Railroad Builder

Here is Leo P. Ridgman, a barber of Hawthorne, Calif., with the codel railroad which he built as a hobby. It represents an intestment of $1,400 for parts alone. Ridgman is secretary of a club of codel railroad builders. The road illustrated has 166 feet of intricately-bid track and all modern equipment. There are streamlined trains and cogines of latest patterns, switch towers, roundhouses, stations and codes, and the whole affair is attractively landscaped.

Another Emden Visits American Ports

Scene at the Baltimore waterfront where the German training cruiser Emden was tied up during a tenvisit. Police were on hand there and at other ports where the Emden called to suppress anti-Nazi demontrations, but all was quiet.

Won't Have to Pull the Plow Any More

For three years Paul J. Green of Jena, La., and his wife and young daughter, have been trying to work their small farm plot by pulling the plow themselves. Now they have received from the Rural Settlement administration the horse shown in the picture, and are comparatively happy. Another daughter and a son make up the family of five, which has been too proud to go on relief.

Helping Celebrate a Harbor Opening

When the Newport bay and harbor on the coast of Orange county, Calif., were officially opened the other day, these pretty and plucky girls took part in the water sports. The celebration, including all types of aquatic events, was held to mark the completion of a two million dollar federal improvement which gives southern California one of the finest yacht and pleasure harbors in the world.

Barring Alien Labor From Colorado

National Guardsmen are seen inspecting a bus for indigents and alien laborers seeking to enter Colorado. Gov. Ed. C. Johnson ordered the guardsmen to patrol a 360-mile strip along the southern border of the state to prevent entry of alien laborers.