Tom Brannan and Marguerite Fee accompanied by Maury Seranton visited Portland together last week.

Mrs. Juanita Lewallen has returned from Portland where she visited 10 days.

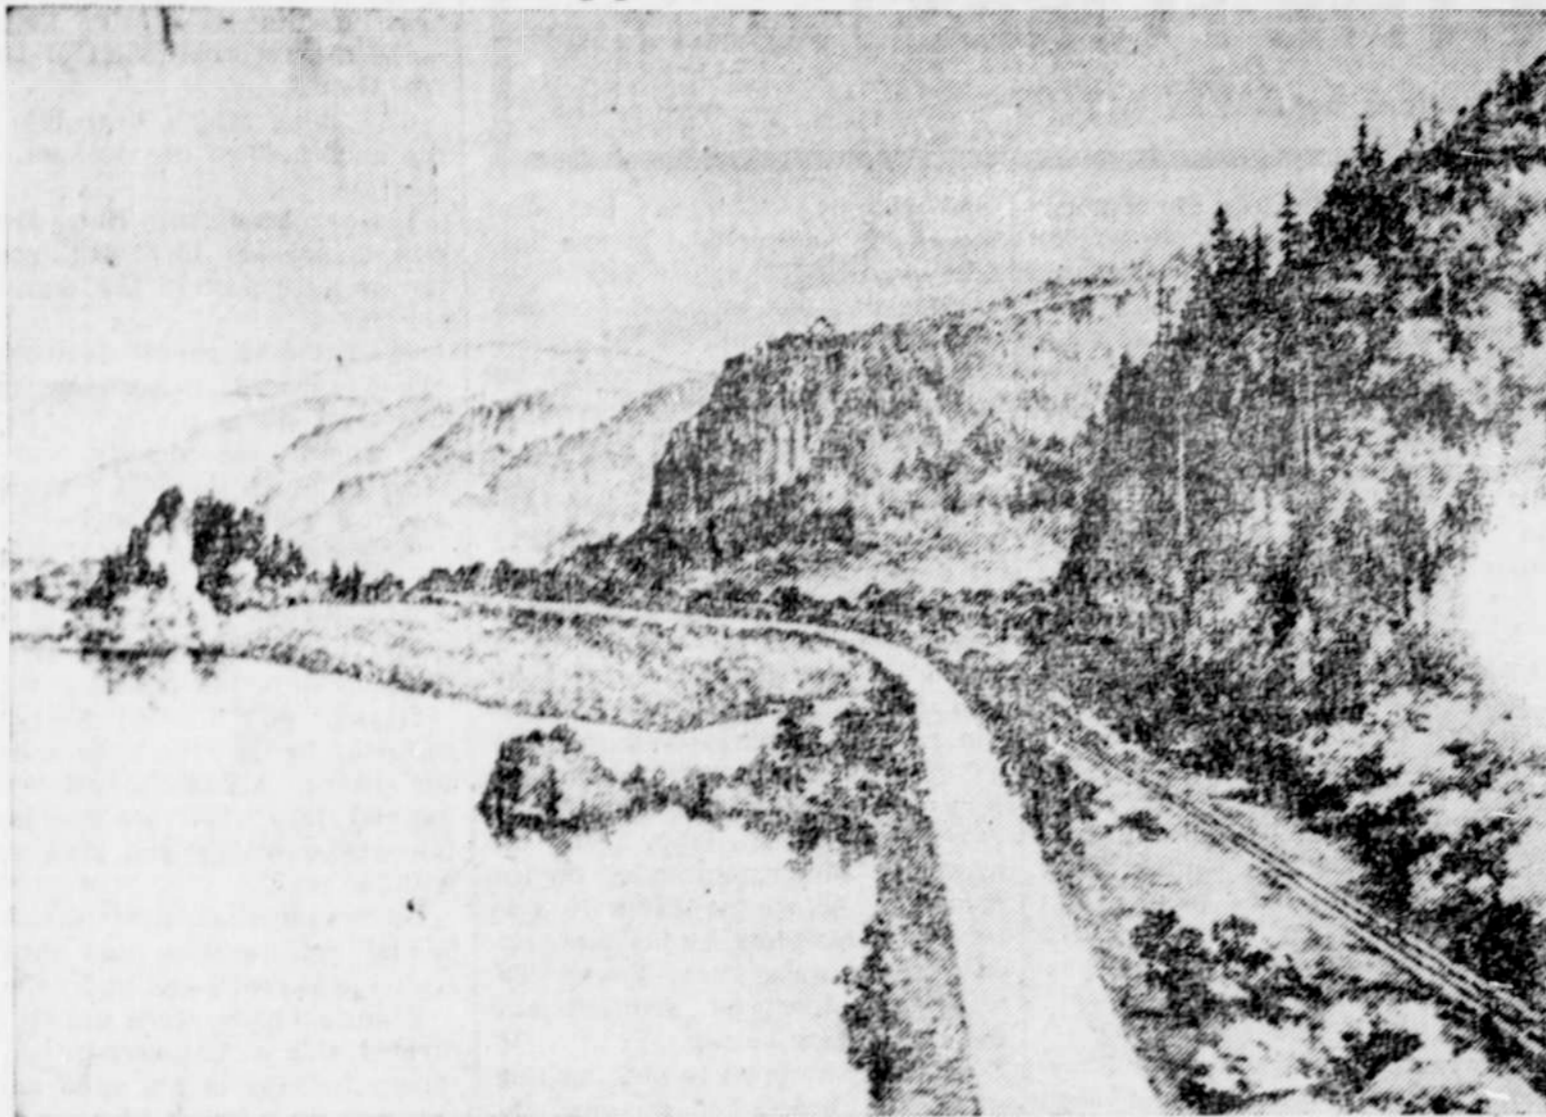

Thelma Dougherty, still a bit hoarse, is back from the Hood River hospital where she has been confined with quincy. She was without food, save for injections, from one Saturday to the next.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hyde had 11 visitors from Portland Sunday who also inspected Bonneville dam. Jack Biles, Dorothy Biles and Mona Rae, entertainers for the Sunday night floor show at Merrill's pavilion, dined with the Hydys Sunday.

Mrs. Oscar Hyde returned Friday from Portland, where she had been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Goetz. She left here three weeks ago.

Eric Erickson and A. L. Scriber, who fished East lake near Bend Saturday and Sunday, came home with the limit of eastern brook trout,

Route of New Upper Columbia River Highway

The above sketch shows how one section of the upper Columbia river highway will look when the route is shifted from the bluffs to a water grade. In the upper center can be seen the Vista house, which marks the present route. The changes between Troutdale and The Dalles will cost $10,000,000. Sketch by F. G. Hutchinson, highway commission landscape artist.

taken in three hours. The trout, averaging one and a half pounds, took worms dropped from a still boat.

Mr. Yeoman, a candidate for United States senator in Indiana, has been conferring with lumbermen during his stay in Oregon. His son, Ralph, and a granddaughter, Marilee Palmer, are at the Hills' also. A family reunion was held at the home of Jack Yeoman, a

REED'S NEW PUPPY HAS MIXED BLOOD

Bobby Reed, dynamo rhythm monger at Merrill's dance pavilion, is sporting a real pet these days.

He calls it Dibo. It's a part-covote, part German-Shepherd, part-husky pup, bordering on four weeks old.

Dibo is a tiny little thing now, with graceful limbs and feet, a sad, solemn expression, and a wee wet nose. His markings are predominantly husky.

Six months from now we predict Dibo will be pushing Bobby all over the place. And Bobby ain't easy pushed.

LEGAL ADVERTISING ORDINANCE 17

An Ordinance Regulating the Auditing, Allowance and Payment of Claims for Special Purposes and Repealing Section 3 of Ordinance No. 5 . . .

BE IT ORDAINED by the Common Council of the City of Cascade Locks:

Sec. 1— All claims and demands against the City not provided for by Section 2 of Ordinance No. 5 shall be examined by the finance committee in accordance with Section 7 of Ordinance No. 1, and after the allowance of any such claim or demand, the Recorder shall draw a warrant upon the Treasurer for the sum, which said warrant shall be countersigned by the Mayor and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn.

Sec. 2— Section 3 of Ordinance No. 5 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 3— Inasmuch as the orderly and prompt payment of all the just claims against the City of Cascade Locks is essential to the credit and financial standing of the City and said claims and demands cannot be promptly paid without the immediate enactment of this ordinance, an emergency is hereby declared to exist and this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a three-fourths vote of all of the members of the city council and its publication as required by law and its approval by the Mayor.

PASSED the Common Council of the City of Cascade Locks, Oregon, on May 25th, 1936, and approved by me this 25th day of May, 1936.

Charles H. Nelson, Mayor.
