

Paris Getting Ready for Exposition of 1937

There is going to be a big exposition in Paris, France, in 1937, which is likely to attract many Americans. It will be built on the ground shown in this picture, the site where the Trocadero formerly stood. In the background is seen the base of the Eiffel Tower.

Plan for Pan-American Hospital

This is an architect's drawing of the proposed Pan-American Post-Graduate hospital which will be constructed in New York at a cost of about $7,000,000 and which will be ready for occupancy in 1938. Similar structures will be built in Central and South America. The New York institution will be the first of its kind in this country and will have on its staff students, physicians and surgeons from Latin-American nations.

Only Boulder Dam Is Higher Than This

Owyhee dam, main feature of the irrigation works of the new Owyhee reclamation project on the Oregon-Idaho border, is the second highest dam in the United States, second only to the great Boulder dam. It is 405 feet in height and creates a storage reservoir of 1,120,000 acre-feet capacity which will serve 112,000 acres of land.

California Coeds Learn the Art of Carpentry

As further indication of the invasion of women into what has heretofore been considered the realm of men, fifty co-eds at the University of California at Los Angeles are taking a course in carpentry. The girl students pictured above during class will be able to qualify for work with hammer, saw, drill or chisel, when the need for a handy man around the house arises.

BANKER IS ACCUSED

Oliver P. Arnold, assistant vice president of the Denver National Bank of Denver, Colo., was one of seven persons arrested for complicity in extensive mail robberies. Charges were brought by United States post office inspectors.

Red Cross Nurse Highly Honored

Two thousand delegates to the American Red Cross convention in Chicago saw Red Cross Nurse Mrs. Elsbeth H. Vaughn of St. Louis receive the Florence Nightingale award for her long record of nursing service. She was presented with the medal by Admiral Cary T. Grayson, national chairman of the organization.

Portland Has Queer "Mercy Boat"

This odd-looking affair is a sea-going ambulance put into service the other day by the city of Portland, Ore. It is popularly called the "mercy boat" but technically it is an "aerohydrocraft."

Cannot Pawn Balloons

State pawnshops of Paris will not lend money on balloons. A man has just been successful in pawning an airplane, and in doing so was told it was lucky he was not trying to pawn a balloon, because the institution had loaned money on a balloon 60 years ago, and had a suit brought against it because the balloon's fabric burst and made it leak badly. There is everything in the storerooms of the shop—saucepans and bicycles, gold teeth, and toys, sewing machines, furniture, and even a canoe.
