

Scenes and Persons in the Current News

1—Gen. John J. Pershing delivering the principal address on Memorial day in Arlington national cemetery, Washington. 2—Admiral Joseph M. Reeves, commander-in-chief of the United States fleet, being decorated by "Neptune" as the battleship Pennsylvania crossed the equator, the sea queen standing by. 3—Jean Trowbridge of Stuart, Iowa, winner of the national spelling bee in Washington, receiving plaques for herself and her school from Dean George B. Woods of American university.

Village Built for the Olympic Athletes

An aerial view of the Olympic village which has been completed on Berlin's outskirts, where the athletes from all over the world will be housed during the forthcoming Olympic games.

Another of the Sunken German Ships Raised

Salvaging of the German warships that were scuttled by their crews at Scapa Flow, Scotland, after the World war, is going on all the time, the vessels being brought up to be junked. In this picture the bow of the 25,000-ton battleship Kaiserin is seen breaking water as she is brought to the surface upside down.

Tribute to Seamen Lost at Sea

Mrs. Lily W. Reed placing an American flag on a wreath at the customs house in New York as a tribute to seamen who have died at sea. Later the wreath, made from bouquets contributed by women of all the states, was towed to sea by pilot boats and cast adrift, while navy and coast guard airplanes dipped over it in salute.

Lindbergh Estate to Be State Park

On the ninth anniversary of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's non-stop flight to Paris, WPA announced its final plan for the project to make the Lindbergh estate at Little Falls, Minn., a state park at an expenditure of $23,777. The residence is shown above.

POLAND'S NEW ENVOY

Count George Potocki, Poland's newly appointed ambassador to the United States, who arrived on the new motor liner Batory's maiden voyage. The count is an Oxonian, a big-game hunter and a member of one of the most illustrious families in Poland. He is popular with American sportsmen, many of whom he has entertained.

COMET DISCOVERER

Leslie C. Peltier, garage employee of Delphos, Ohio, who discovered the first new comet to be found this year. Peltier, who is one of the leading amateur astronomers of the world and is thirty-two years old, has discovered five comets. The new comet is of the ninth magnitude, visible through small telescopes.