

Eagle Creek

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Vern Thompson of Portland, spent the week-end at Florence, Or., on the coast. Mrs. Clyde Hubbard of Wee Cove is being visited by her sister-in-law from Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. Gladys McKenzie. Mrs. McKenzie's baby is also with her. This week the three spent a day with Mrs.

Robert McGilvray here. Mrs. Esther Orino from San Francisco is visiting her father-in-law, Ralph Orino, here for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Ballinger will leave for the east to spend a month with parents in Superior, Wis., and Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Nutting spent last week-end with Mr. Nutting's sister, Mrs. Carl Rodolf, at Aloha, Or. Monday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parrish, cousins of the Nuttings from Oakland, Calif., and a group of Portland relatives spent the day with the Nuttings. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Snider celebrated the Fourth by attending the terminal dedication at The Dalles. The Misses Frances and Margaret Kortge, Mrs. Snider's sister and niece, returned with them to Eagle Creek for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Hickok are both on two weeks' vacation. The Hickoks will spend a week at the coast and a week in eastern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Bell

Cascade Locks

Colin Merrill, genial marshal, and M. L. Morgan of Morgan's service station were business visitors in Portland Monday. Bill Romans, Troy laundry representative here, is vacationing with Mrs. Romans at the Oregon beaches. City Attorney Teunis Wyers, his wife and baby are vacationing at the beach. Mrs. Thelma Miller of Yakima and her daughter, Shirley, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hill over July 4. Mr. and Mrs. A. Geitner and family spent the Fourth at the movies in Portland.

C. H. Beltz, president of the Hood River Townsend club, was a Locks visitor Monday. Epworth Leaguers last Sunday enjoyed hearing reports by delegates to the conference in Corvallis two weeks ago, including their discovery that some Salem milkshakes are too big to be carried. They also brought back some new ideas for their own services. After church services Sunday evening the Misses Beth Manchester and June Hust, accompanied by Everill Broliar and Howard Harrison, drove to Hood River with Mrs. L. G. Weaver, who is employed at Duckwalls.

Miss Marion Hulse entertained several friends at a beach party last Thursday evening. Light showers failed to interfere with a good time. M. A. Shearer and children, Marquerite and Jimmy, with Marion Hulse, made a trip to Longview Friday, returning the same day. They stopped at Jantzen beach. Bob Moulton and Charles Hulse joined them Saturday when they drove in to Jantzen beach for the Fourth. Mr. and Mrs. Bybee have returned to Cascade Locks from California, where Mr. Bybee has been working. Mrs. Marvin Lambert has been in bed with the mumps about four days. Miss June Hust of The Dalles visited Miss Beth Manchester this week from Saturday until Wednesday. Cascade Locks' chief executive, Mayor G. E. Manchester, and Mrs. Manchester are spending a two weeks' vacation in Port Angeles, Wash. Miss Averill Stewart visited Mrs. James Rasmussen for a week here. Mrs. M. L. Morgan was surprised when her husband gave her a new gas-freezing refrigerator for her birthday, because he had already told her she couldn't have one.

Tom Waring celebrated his birthday Tuesday. Mrs. M. T. Beem of Portland will spend next week with Mrs. I. C. Hall here.
