

Bonneville

Miss Edith Stratford of Kennewick, Wash., visited Ray Marsh here the first part of last week.

Miss Dorothy Dubord of Portland was a recent guest at the home of Carl "Red" Fox.

Bill Kaiser, Curly McNitt and Mac Sharp, steelworkers, took the limit out of Lost lake last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bobo who spent the Fourth of July at Long Beach, Wash., complained that they and their friends were packed in the tiny cabins like sardines. But they enjoyed the clams.

Chuck Jones, librarian at Bonneville for the past year and a half, will pull stakes July 31 when the library is closed down during the day, to remain open thenceforth only in the evening. The hours have not yet been announced. Chuck will be missed by his many friends of both sexes.

Miss Eliza Stevens, Bonneville school teacher during the rainy three-fourths of the year, visited friends at the Roosevelt inn one day last week.

Mrs. Pete Gandolph is visiting her husband at the Roosevelt inn for two or three days.

Folks around Bonneville are whispering that Sam Lesman has a new girl friend. We would appreciate a confirmation.

Mrs. May Linden, who got a brand new fishing license recently, went fishing up Tanner creek last week-end and returned with a four-inch beauty. "I threw a lot of small ones away," declares Mrs. Linden proudly.

A. P. Keppel of the Union Pacific was a guest at Roosevelt inn Wednesday night.

Guy Davis, electrician for the Columbia Construction company, has been working swing shift so long—nine months, to be exact—that he has a hard time seeing now on account of the daylight. His day-shift boss even has a hard time finding him.

Leona "Peewee" Spatz visited relatives in North Bonneville last week-end.

Roy Knox, U. S. guard, also a lieutenant-colonel in the officers' reserve, has left for two weeks at the officers' summer encampment.

Lieutenant Bonny Whitsitt is spending a one week's vacation at Crescent City, Calif.

The latest check-up at the postoffice shows 121 bonus letters have been received here. All have been delivered and "most of them spent," according to Charley who dishes them out.

Admiral Dave Collins and Mrs. Collins of Vallejo, Calif., visited Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Armstrong from Wednesday until Monday, enjoying "one continual round of pleasure." The admiral, who has been at sea for 15 years, had difficulties navigating as far inland as Tanner creek falls, but after much channel sounding and clever piloting he turned the trick. The ship to which he has been assigned will be completed about December 1 and will make its maiden voyage to Australia.

Miss Arlene Sawyer took a civil service examination during a two days' visit to Portland with her mother last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ewen have moved from Cook's addition to their home near Tiggard, Oregon.

Wayne Lowell of La Grande Ore., was a recent visitor at the home of his brother, Jack Lowell.

Lucille McCully, Bonneville telephone operator, left Friday for a week's vacation in southern Oregon.

Jack McEachern has moved to his new house in Bonny Villa, while Mr. and Mrs. Guy Collins have moved into their house in Cook's addition where Jack had been living.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. I. Ray Chapman of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sawyer here one day last week.

Walter H. Fenchal, struck on the chest by a flying object a week ago Wednesday while on the job at the spillway dam, was laid up for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Williams are spending two weeks' vacation in California.

Betty Davis, niece of Mrs. Stanley Davis, celebrated her eighth birthday with a party for two neighborhood children last Thursday. Present were David and Kathleen Donaldson, Betty and Frances Lanius, Nancy Davis, Jack Kimball, Junior Horton, Bob Miller, Pat and Ann Bedford, Charley Kruz, Marston Williams, and Sue and Billy Mikkelsen.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Bebeau are expecting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Primeau of Schenectady, N. Y., for a visit July 20.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. George spent two days in Portland recently.

Mrs. Pearl Davis and her daughter Betty, sister-in-law and niece of Mrs. Stanley Davis, have been visiting the Davises here. They will remain about two weeks more.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bowman have returned from a two months' vacation in Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kimball and family are spending a two weeks' vacation visiting several towns in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lanius and children returned a week ago Tuesday from a two weeks' stay at Rockaway beach and Crater lake.

Edward Gardiner of Camas, brother of Mrs. O. M. Mikkelsen, has been visiting the Mikkelsens every week-end.

Mrs. Robert Kitchen is back from the Emmanuel hospital in Portland and is well along the road to health. Her mother, Mrs. Peter F. Klein, has been staying with her.

Cascade Locks

Seventeen members of the Foote family attended an impromptu reunion in Portland last week-end. They included Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Foote, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Foote and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Foote and family, G. H. Foote, Alvah Foote, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Foote and family from California.

Jack Roth, employee at the Lakeside hotel and long the only regular paid bartender in Cascade Locks, this week announced his moving to North Bonneville, where he will take over the bar at the casino, run by John Quinn. He was formerly a safety man for the government on the dam project. Roth left the Locks Tuesday night.

Frank Tessier, Dorothy Tessier, Shirley Woodward and Forrest Hess enjoyed a wienie roast by the river Sunday night.

Audrey Allen, vacationing from her position at the Bonneville postoffice, is spending her two weeks off at home in Cascade Locks. She made a pleasure trip to Portland last week-end.

Jimmy and Adelbert Merrill and Teddy McGarrigle have built a club house, equipped with electric lights. They plan to spend this Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights there.

Mrs. Charles Haggblom, who hasn't rowed a skiff for 35 years, paddled one out to the seining grounds on the sandbar west of the emergency landing field last week without a bit of trouble. Mrs. Karl Rosenback accompanied her.

The Ladies' Aid met Thursday this week with Mrs. C. A. Brolliar.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweeney and a brother of Mrs. Sweeney from the east visited Mrs. Sweeney's sister in Portland recently.

Mrs. Otto Achord and her daughter Clara are back at the beach, where they will be visited soon by a former school teacher of Clara's from Idaho.

Mrs. Glenn McCahn of Hood River is spending a few days here with her grandmother, Mrs. Isabel Osbourn.

A new two-story frame structure joining the Cascade garage and the garage office and residence building next door is being built by Tony Karavanich, operator of the garage. The addition is being put up primarily to enlarge Karavanich's living quarters. He says it will be completed in about two weeks.

Miss Pearl Eurney, teacher from Burlington, Wash., and Miss Verna Eurney are visiting this week at the Vic Wigren home.

Ed Matheny returned this week from his work in the mountains with the forest service.

Mrs. Del Bradburn and children spent the week-end at The Dalles.

Ralph Williams of the West Coast Power company left Saturday for California for a two week's vacation. He will meet his wife there and bring her home with him. Jack Eimer accompanied Ralph south.

Blanche Bouthillier, Herman and Osmon Hauge, and Mrs. Mary H. Kerr, Mrs. C. F. Lewallen's mother, spent Sunday with the Lewallens.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wilbur were in Portland over the week-end.

George Thomas, mechanic at Morgan's garage, drove to Hood River Monday with the Locks school bus to act as witness in a lawsuit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reuterskiold and Mr. and Mrs. France Reuterskiold returned last week-end from the midwest, where they have been touring for two weeks.

A. L. Scriber spent the week-end in La Grande with his brother's family.

Tiny Mitchell, Johnny Hill, Hank Brink and "Tuffy" Strater were fishing on Rainy lake over the week-end. Hank got three, Tuffy four, Tiny one big one while Johnny had no luck.

Mrs. Margaret Thomas and Mrs. Essie Hendricks of Chehalis, mother and sister of Mrs. E. J. McVeigh, are expected Sunday for a two-weeks' visit with the McVeighs at the Cascade hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson left last week-end for San Francisco where they will spend their vacation.

The boys' class of the Cascade Locks church, numbering about 30, held a picnic Tuesday afternoon on the government grounds at the locks. Lunch was served and the boys played games.

Nick Harrison came down from Tanner butte look-out, where he is working during the fire season to visit his parents and family Sunday.

Bill Romans, driver of the Troy laundry route, returned this week-end from the Oregon beaches, where he and his family have been vacationing. Crescent City was the southern terminus of their tour.

Howard Harrison was entertained at dinner by Miss Lenna Collins Tuesday night.

Mrs. Sue Woodward, her son Bud, and Stella Woodward were shopping in Portland Saturday.

The last rehearsal for the play to be given next Friday night at the high school by young people of the Cascade Locks church will be held on Wednesday night. This will be a dress rehearsal.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nichols, daughter and son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Manchester, came down from The Dalles this week for a visit with the Manchesters.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Keith became the parents Sunday of a son, born in a Portland hospital. No name has yet been selected for the little fellow.

The Ladies' Aid met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Brolliar.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Finley are back in Cascade Locks after a month's stay at Grand Coulee dam.

Mayor G. E. Manchester returned Saturday from a 10 days' vacation trip with Mrs. Manchester.

Martha Randolph, sister of Mrs. Tom Cole, returned to Gaston, Or., following a two weeks' stay here.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Barnes and family were visitors of the M. L. Morgans and R. W. "Pop" Wuners Sunday.

Bill Ryer, red headed ex-editor of the Chronicle now covering Grange news for the Vancouver Columbian, was in town for a short while Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knopp, Mrs. C. O. Rankin, Miss Geraldine Rankin and Frank Rankin motored to Celilo falls Sunday afternoon.

Bobby Reed, who returned a while back from New Westminster, B. C. where he played a short engagement, went fishing five days straight this week and reported good catches. He was accompanied by Barber Mike Long Sunday.

Jack Myers, Portland scout scout official, accompanied by a young lady friend, spent Sunday with the M. L. Morgans.

M. L. Morgan and V. P. Nelson went fishing up Wind river Sunday, catching a nice mess of trout.

Frank Walker left Thursday for Liberty lake where he will visit his wife, who is vacationing there and make arrangements for the appearance of Walt Schuman and his U. S. C. collegiate band.

DRINK
Goats Milk

for health

Leave orders at Lakeside
Market

Cascade Locks

Free Pick Up & Delivery Service
In Cascade Locks

Daily Freight Service to and from Portland and Hood River.
LESTER AUTO FREIGHT, INC.

C. J. WELLS

Local Representative at the TOOTH ROCK GARAGE
Cascade Locks Phone 293

NOW!
OPEN ALL NIGHT
Try Our Delicious
Waffles

MORAN'S LODGE

Cascade Locks