

Tall Fellow

The tallest man in history, according to the record of all authenticated cases, lives today in Bushire, Iran. Although only 20 years of age and still growing, this Persian giant is ten feet six inches in height and weighs 450 pounds. Incidentally, he is so weak that he cannot walk or hold up his head for more than a few minutes at a time. — Collier's Weekly.

what Irvin S. Cobb thinks about:

Haile's Private Treasury SANTA MONICA, CALIF. —Had it not been a foreign dispatch, a fellow might have thought it referred to one of our own investment councillors, specializing in looking after widows' and orphans' funds, and having a neat line of European securities to dispose of, and prominent in welfare work and uplift movements in his home community—in short, a typical specimen of sub-variety that seemed to sort of peter out in the years immediately following 1929, some quitting by request, some by indictment and some just vanishing into space, taking with them the clients' remaining cash assets, if any.

But this happened to be a cablegram from Geneva stating that, when Emperor Haile and Farewell Selassie hurriedly departed from his capital, he so thoroughly cleaned out the bank of Ethiopia that all the invading Italians found in the vaults was a large throbbing vacuum.

How Mencken Can Write THIS campaign will liven right up if Henry Mencken, the official human gumboil of the writing craft, takes pen in hand to discuss the men and the issues. You don't have to agree with Hen. You may quarrel with his premises and dispute his conclusions.

But can he make the language pop like a bull-whip! When he gets excited he throbs like a mashed thumb, and cuts loose like an avenging angel. Expressing himself, he always picks words of the right shape and the right color.

Literary Garbage LET'S admit that southerners of the Col. Carter of Cartersville type were mainly the far-fetched creations of overly-sentimental fictionists. Let's admit the business of painting a largely imaginary a-tah-de-wah South was for many years crowded.

But why, in the revolt to debunk this sugary romance, should the land so generously spawn a crop of alleged realists who'd have the rest of the world believe the only party of the South worthy of being written about is almost exclusively peopled by loathsome degenerates of the "Tobacco Road" variety?

If one of these literary garbage collectors will but look about him, he'll find southerners who might make interesting copy and yet, excusing that they leave the sugar out of the corn bread and the lower case "r" out of the language, are pretty much like the run of their fellow Americans elsewhere.

Heroic First Aid Measures WHEN those three gallant men were imprisoned in that Moose river mine cave-in up in Canada, facing death in the darkness—one of them, you'll remember, did die—and the rescuers finally bored a slender shaft through to their living tomb, almost the first thing sent down from above was some hot coffee with a slug of brandy in it.

Now the Rev. A. A. McLeod has formally protested to the government of Nova Scotia about putting in the brandy.

So I've been sitting here all day trying to make up my mind, if I'd been buried in that freezing, slimy pit, which I'd prefer—to have 'em send along some spiked coffee right away or keep the mixture up on the surface and lower the Rev. A. A. McLeod with a pitcher of ice water.

Uncle Phil Says:

It's Pleasant to Forget

How pleasant to wake up in the morning and not be able to remember what it was that worried you the evening before.

Promises that are the hardest to obtain are the surest of fulfillment.

Life is a grind, but it doesn't always make things smooth.

Don't use your common sense so much to take your friends to task. Be thankful that they like you.

Despair Often Close

Few know the thin partitions that separate their fellow men from despair.

If you're going to be lonesome anyway, why not climb to the top of the ladder of fame?

Life is but a fleeting show—yet it is the best show man has on earth.

Leave Worker Alone

A man who does his work best is the one who does it his own way. Be satisfied and say nothing.

Saddest change in our old friend, when affluence and honors are heaped upon him, is that he grows more effusive than ever to us and thinks about us far less frequently.

For Higher Education

There is a total of 656 colleges and universities, 262 professional schools, 163 teachers' colleges, 78 normal schools and 438 junior colleges in the United States. There are also 58 Negro colleges, three Negro professional schools, 12 Negro teachers' colleges, 12 Negro normal schools, and 24 Negro junior colleges.

Total number of white institutions, 1,597; total number of Negro institutions, 109, making a grand total of 1,706.—Washington Star.

That's the Good Nature

Good nature is frequently imposed on—and seems to like it.

Swift Lightning

Lightning travels at speeds ranging from 14,900 to 68,400 miles a second, the average velocity being 28,500 miles a second or 15 per cent of the speed of light, it was recently learned by a committee of engineers in South Africa and reported here by Science Service.
