

Bonny Villa

Mrs. Ted Hanson has gone to Portland to stay a few days.

Margie Eklund has returned from Tacoma where she has visited her grandparents the past month.

The Earl McDougalls and Fred Brants are building a duplex in North Bonneville, and expect to move over before school starts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nelson visited the R. S. Checketts, formerly of Eagle Creek, on the Checketts ranch near Parkdale Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Vic Nelson of Cascade Locks were also present. The three men each caught the limit in a short time in Dog river and the east fork of Hood river.

Mrs. Frank Logsdon and two friends from Los Angeles visited Mr. and Mrs. Pat Patterson here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Allen were in Portland Saturday having their car serviced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Buchholz and son Hughie, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fargher and children Patsy and Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller and children Eleanor and Jack had a steak dinner at Eagle Creek Friday night.

Bobby Snyder, who has been suffering from spinal meningitis, is getting along much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Fargher and family attended a reunion of Mr. Fargher's family in The Dalles recently.

Dr. Cecil Fargher visited his brother, Stanley Fargher, and family here Tuesday.

Tom Carmen, former state officer here, Mr. and Mrs. William Hays, Miss Velma Cox, Mr. Jenkins and the elder Mr. Hays from Portland had dinner at the J. A. Millers last Thursday. Miss Cox and Mrs. Hays are Mrs. Miller's sisters.

Mrs. Ed Brubaker, swimming instructor from Phoenix, Ariz., who has been staying with the Earl McDougalls, Monday commenced a series of 12 swimming lessons for women and children of Bonny Villa.

Art Fessler of the Bonneville Safety store is building a two-car garage in Bonny Villa just east of the Gift Shoppe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lawrence from Fort Peck, Mont., recently moved into a cabin in Bonny Villa. Mr. Lawrence is a welder and is employed on the dam.

Carl Miller, brother of J. A. Miller, visited the Millers here Monday evening. Carl has been in the navy 14 years, and is now with the U.S.S.

Covey, a destroyer, which is in Portland for fleet week.

Bob Allen took the limit from Eagle creek Sunday.

Attending a quiet little beach party and weenie roast Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Braund and children, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ferring-ton, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Christenson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller and children, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moss, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Mina Horton and Mr. and Mrs. Buck Hicks.

Troy Harlow from Rockwood, Or., has been spending the week with Charles and Robert Braund.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ferring-ton entertained Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Finley of Seattle, who were on their way to Wallowa lake, Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Commodore Ryan, their sons Robert and Philip from Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Ferring-ton of Portland visited the Glenn Ferring-ton's.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Foster Burnett, who were married Tuesday in Portland, had dinner Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williams here. Dr. and Mrs. Burnett set out on their honeymoon following the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lotisso, who were married July 25, have taken a house in Bonny Villa. Before her marriage Mrs. Lotisso was Miss Josephine Clause of Portland. Mr. Lotisso has been working for the Orino-Birkmeier-Saremal company the past 18 months.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Miller Sunday visited Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Wylie, in Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stobey caught the limit at Lost lake last week-end.

Fred Jones, who has been going to Portland and entertaining company here recently, says it's the real thing this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snider, who moved into a house in Bonny villa a week ago Tuesday, came up from Gresham where they entertained Mr. Snider's brother from Edmonton, Alta. Mr. Snider is employed by the Columbia Construction company.

Rolf Enquist, his father and mother and girl friend spent two days last week at Cannon beach. Rolf returned to work at the Bonny Villa tavern Saturday.

Fifty-four cities of the United States have one or more libraries containing over 200,000 volumes.

Warrendale

Robert and Carrie Berg of Raleigh, North Dakota, brother and sister of Mrs. Cliff Steiner, visited the Steiners here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Whorlow visited the H. E. Dodson home in The Dalles last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Armstrong and their daughter Annamae spent Sunday in Portland. Mrs. Armstrong and Annamae, with Mrs. R. A. Hill and her son Keith, were shopping in Portland Monday.

Annamae Armstrong celebrated her fourteenth birthday at a surprise party given for her by her mother and Mrs. R. A. Hill. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson of Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Whorlow, Patsy and Jane Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, and Jack and Keith Hill. Refreshments were served after an evening of cards.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Armstrong recently turned in their old car on a Model A Ford sedan.

Reports from Montana indicate that Mrs. George Houtz and her brother are "doing well in Kalispell." Ray Baty and Bill LeTrace, former Warrendale residents, have obtained jobs on the Fort Peck dam in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kendler spent Saturday in Portland.

Mary Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cook, entertained neighborhood children at her home this Friday in celebration of her sixth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Beck returned Sunday from Bremerton, Wash., where they spent three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimsey saw Portland beat Sacramento in a Vaughn street ball game Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blegen were back in Warrendale this week following a two weeks' vacation.

Portland's soap box derby attracted Mr. and Mrs. Fred Williams Saturday. There were plenty of thrills and spills, Mrs. Williams reports.

Guyla and Antoinette Galasheff returned last week from San Francisco, where they spent two weeks. They saw everything there is to see.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Russell of Portland, Mrs. R. A. Hendricks' sister and brother-in-law, visited the Hendricks Friday. Mrs. Hendricks went to Portland Saturday.

Mrs. A. Davis' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daniel of Portland, spent Sunday at the Davises.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clifton drove to Portland and back Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Myers made a trip to Wamie, Or., near Dufur, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Mrs. James Dow's sister and brother-in-law, and the Dows' niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wattles of Yakima, visited the Dows Sunday. Mrs. Wattles prolonged her stay through the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coleman both suffered touches of flu last week but are their old selves again.

Mrs. Robert Coleman's father, mother and brother visited the Colemans Sunday.

Jim Dow left Wednesday for two weeks at Camp Meriwether, Portland Boy Scout camp.

ENGLISH ENGINEER TOURS DAM PROJECT

D. H. Donaldson, M. Sc., of London, England, recently paid a surprise call on his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. David Donaldson of Warrendale, when he arrived at Bonneville for a scientific study of the dam project.

A member of the research staff of the English S.E.C., he is touring the United States visiting the chief electrical power projectst, including those at Niagara falls, Boulder dam, Bonneville, and other points.

He crossed the Atlantic on the Queen Mary and will return by the same vessel, carrying highly favorable impressions of Oregon and possibilities of Bonneville development.

Viento

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Neuffer a 10-pound son, Donald Edward, July 27th. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

Louise, Lucille and Mary, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. S. Mondelli, returned from summer school in Hood River last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jones of Klamath Falls are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Jones, the past week.

Geo. Bingham of Oak Grove, Or., is visiting at Happy Dell.

John Sverko returned from a Portland hospital Sunday much improved.

Bonneville

Mrs. C. B. Shinn's mother, who has stayed with the Shinn's the past month, returned last week to California.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Copenhagen of Portland visited the Shinn's Sunday. The party toured the Bonneville dam project.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lusch left last week-end for Valselt, where they will spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Black spent the past week at the beach.

Newcomers to Bonneville are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ward, who moved in a week ago Saturday. Mr. Ward is employed by the Columbia Construction company.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shortridge and their new Oldsmobile sedan made the Mount Hood loop trip Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Howard drove to Vancouver, B. C., last Friday and returned Sunday, taking in Vancouver's centennial celebration.

Dixie Goodrich, who recently entertained Audrey Parks at her home here, spent the week in Portland visiting Audrey.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Buck from the Steady Job ranch at Alsea, Or., visited Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Johns Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter McElroy spent the week-end at the home of F. C. Sexton, Mrs. McElroy's father, in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wolfe left Monday for Vancouver, B. C., and Seattle, where they will spend a week.

BARNEY BROG BRING CIRCUS

A SHOW OF SUPREME STUPENDOUS SURPRISES.
A PEERLESS PROGRAM OF PRE-EMINENT PERFORMERS

WILL EXHIBIT

Hood River
Monday, August 17

2 Shows daily - At 2 and 8 P.M.

Circus grounds west of High School

Big Circus Bargain Day

For this Day and Date Only

CHILDREN 25c ADULTS 50c
Center Section Reserves 25c Extra

PAUL HOEBERGER
JEWELER

BONNEVILLE GIFT SHOP
on the Reservation

First National Bank

OF HOOD RIVER

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS ---- $ 115,000.00
TOTAL RESOURCES ----- 1,450,000.00

DR. MELVIN E. JOHNSON
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
Cascade Locks Phone 35

MIKE'S
FOR FIRST CLASS
Barbering
Cascade Locks