

Another "Greyhound" for Uncle Sam's "Pack"

With her crew and guests at attention on the after deck, the U. S. S. Tucker, latest addition to the United States' destroyer fleet, is commissioned into service. Lieut. Commander George T. Howard accepted the flag for the United States navy and took command.

German Women Prepare for Next War

German women are being trained to play a role in the "next war," which, experts say, will have no non-combatants. This photograph, made at a training station in Berlin, shows steel-helmeted women—dressed in "gas-proofed" overalls, setting a theoretically broken leg of a compatriot.

Barnegat's Pet Deer Sick in Bed

Pete, a one-year-old buck deer orphaned by one of last year's forest fires in Ocean county, N. J., and since adopted as a pet by the entire community of Barnegat, is sick in bed—pining for local school children on vacation. Pete follows the children to school every day. He sleeps in a regular bed, and is here shown being attended by Miss Dolores Adden, county nurse.

Just One of the Displays at the Pomona Fair

It really doesn't grow this large in Southern California, but this oversized ear of corn has been prepared for one of the displays of the famous Los Angeles county fair which opens at Pomona in September.

IS IT REALLY ART?

After more than twenty years of litigation Port Chester, N. Y., has the model of a Spanish-American war memorial for inspection, and all wrought up over the question of whether or not the 11-foot clay model executed by Sculptor Karl Lavany-Ilava is art. Inelegantly nicknamed "The Slob" by one faction, it is staunchly defended by another which wants to get away from the "glorification" of the soldier, and wants to show him as a "well-dressed man, not as a 'well-dressed dude.'" Here is the model.

Mrs. Stork Herself Has a Baby

Everyone knows that the stork brings babies, but here is a variation. Mrs. Florence Stork of Chicago is shown with her newly arrived baby boy. Father John Stork is the proudest bird in the city. Both mother and baby Stork are doing fine, the doctor says. The parent Storks have not yet announced what they will call their new nestling, but it is expected the name will soon be chosen. There are four families of Stork residing in the city of Chicago.

Ignace Paderewski to Be Honored

President Joseph L. Kania of the Roman Catholic Union in America with a bust of Ignace Jan Paderewski which will be placed in a new museum to be opened in Chicago by the Catholic Union.
