

Cascade Locks

Bill Ryer, ex-editor of the Dam Chronicle, was a Cascade Locks visitor last week-end.

The political campaign has brought several candidates to Cascade Locks recently, including Walter M. Pierce, who spoke here Tuesday night; John Sheldrake, Francis Galloway, Glenn Hunt, Bill Ashworth, and Earl Level.

The missionary society of the Cascade Locks church met with Mrs. Maude Broliar yesterday.

Lew Morgan and his son Bill were in Boardman, Or. for the opening of pheasant season yesterday. Others who went out after birds were Ben Campbell of the Standard Oil company, A. L. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stewart. Campbell and Morgan planned to meet in Pendleton today for a day's hunting.

Tennis Wyers, Cascade Locks city attorney, this week gave his Irish setter, Mike, to Lew Morgan.

Mrs. Douglas C. Welch made a trip to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Marion Harold is giving a party in her new Moffett creek home today. Guests will be Mrs. M. E. Johnson, Mrs. Stanley Sporseen, and Mrs. Douglas Welch. Mrs. Harold formerly lived in one of Penn's cabins.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wuner stopped in Cascade Locks Sunday on their way to Hermiston to see Mrs. Wuner's sister. "Pop" Wuner, who has been suffering from sciatica for several months, was much improved.

Arvie Finch and his father-in-law have returned from a deer hunting expedition to Mitchell, Or., but report no luck.

Cascadia Rebekah lodge met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. L. Sprague.

Mrs. Joe Miller, who has been working at the Cascade Drug company, has resigned her position there and will enjoy life for a while as a lady of leisure.

A little ownerless brown and white female dog did right well by herself a short while ago when she gave birth to eleven puppies here, seven of which were females. As soon as the multiple blessed event had occurred, a license was taken out for the dog, the seven female pups were drowned and three of the males given away.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carna drove to Hood River last week-end.

Mrs. Anna Morgan, relative of Mrs. Karl Rosenback, Mrs. Erickson of the New Deal lunch room, and Mrs. Wittman, died this week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson saw the stock show in Portland last week. Mrs. Charles Nelson has been visiting her daughter Marie in Washougal, and also attended the district Rebekah convention there Saturday.

Bill Clark is dabbling in construction work again. This time it's a six-car garage attached to the west end of The Dalles Freight Line building. Bill has nearly completed three stalls and will start on the next three soon. He says most of the garage space has already been spoken for.

Mr. and Mrs. James Merrill and son Jim made their weekly trip to Portland Wednesday.

Dubby Merrill spent Monday night with Teddie McGarrigle.

Kenny Jones of Morgan's garage has moved from Hyde's cabins into the W. J. McGarrigle home.

STUDENTS DANCE

More than 60 couples attended the Cascade Locks high school dance last Friday at Merrill's tavern. The dance was put on in cabaret style, with tables lining the floor, and music furnished by Frank Moran's Symphonola to the hall free of charge.

Miss Theodora Gustafson was advisor for the dance and program, which included a song, "Me and the Moon," by Chuck Hill; a vocal selection by Verna Greer; readings by Rosemary Todd and Hazel Hammon, and a tap dance by Doris Rhodes. Autumn decorations were used.

McKinnons Are Parents

A baby boy weighing eight pounds two and one-half ounces was born to Mrs. Dick McKinnon at 5:25 P.M. Friday in the Ethel Hart maternity hospital in Portland. The youngster will be named Richard DeWayne.

Stop TAX RAIDS ON YOUR HOME OR FARM

Year after year more taxes are piled on your home!

Under the present law, you are helpless to stop the yearly mounting taxes on your home, or farm or personal property; taxes that are levied to pay for expenses of every description. It's a by-word of the tax raiders to "sock it on property"!

Homes, farms are gobbled up.

Each new expense charged to property lessens your chance of keeping your own home or farm. Allowed to prey upon property owners without limit, the tax raiders demands are becoming impossible to meet.

It's time to call a halt!

HOME & FARM OWNERS ASSOCIATION OF OREGON, Amedee M. Smith, President
600 S.W. Washington Street, Portland, Oregon

VOTE TO LIMIT PROPERTY TAXES 310xYES

Will your home be next?

Tax delinquency in Oregon is now $46,510,724.53!

So long as you remain silent, the burden you are forced to bear will increase. When you cannot pay, the tax raiders will grab your property. Thousands of parcels have already been taken and today one out of every three homes and farms is liable to confiscation. This tax raid on property must be stopped NOW!

Desirable settlers shun Oregon

Oregon's future is at stake! The west is now a mecca for great numbers of home seekers. They refuse to settle in a state that endangers property owners with unlimited taxation on real and personal property. Oregon will be out of the race for the growth and prosperity now open to western states, unless she offers the protection these settlers demand and can have now, elsewhere.

● The Tax Limitation Bill is your way to rightfully limit the increase in taxes that can be made against your home or farm without your approval. It is up to YOU!
