SCHOOL NEWS

CASCADE LOCKS HIGH SCHOOL

Enrollment at Cascade Locks high school has risen to 40 pupils with registration of three new students. They are Elmer Glazier, Cy Jenkins and "Curly" Helvogt.

James Williams, scientist, gave one of four National School Assembly presentations Wednesday night when he demonstrated the wonders of liquid air to an incredulous audience.

The freshman class is giving a Freshman Return party today at the school house. On the committee are Ted McGarrigle, general chairman and announcer; refreshments, De-Elte Moore, Dorothy McKinnon and Hazel Hammon; decorations, Eldon Nielson, Harold Geitner, Perry Allison and Jack Deauville; entertainment, the entire class.

Some of the freshman science class went on a hike up Ruckel creek trail October 9. Those who went were Miss Theodora Gustafson, Miss Margaret Lacy, Ted McGarrigle, De-Elte Moore, Harold Geitner and Eldon Nielson. They gathered moss and other botanic specimens. They all decided that they would become some kind of "ologist." Miss Gustafson was botanologist, Miss Lacy was psychologist, Eldon was biologist and Ted was ichthyologist.

BONNEVILLE SCHOOL

Bonneville's football squad mopped up the Wilkes school players to the tune of 24 to 8 last Friday, and today they go to Rockwood. Billy Fargher, left end; Russell Hadman, left tackle; Norman Waggoner, center; with three touchdowns, was offensive star of the Bonneville outfit against Wilkes.

Plans are being made for a carnival October 30, with sideshows, fishing pond, movies and mystery tunnel, in the school gymnasium.

The primary grades are showing the way to the other rooms in their attendance contest for the first four weeks.

CORBETT HIGH SCHOOL

Among the activities arousing excitement this week are tryouts for the play, the skate, Democratic convention, and six-weeks exams.

The seniors have chosen as their play, "The Panther's Claw." It is a mystery farce and will be presented some time in November. The class has been busy trying out. No definite parts have been decided on yet, but will be announced later.

The skate is to be given at the Imperial rink this Friday. A bus will go in from Corbett and come back
