WHY LANDON?BECAUSE—Landon springs from our common American stock. He is of the plain people.Without splendor of great name or riches he has come up from the bottom in the traditional American way.
He has known the grime and welter of toil with his own hands in the sweat of his brow even as you and I.
His background and environment have ever been and are those of the plain people.As such his inherent sympathies and understanding fit him to be the truer and more reliable friend of labor.WHY NOT ROOSEVELT?*BECAUSE—After having built up through specious promises and propaganda a major consciousness in the eyes of the people as the friend and defender of labor as opposed to great wealth, the record proves that—Roosevelt is the wealthiest president by far ever to sit in the White House.He is by wealth and breeding a charter member of our only American aristocracy. One of the old line blue-blooded wealthy families of New York.He was reared in luxury and trained in exclusive private schools.
He chose public life as a career and cultivated the art of vote-getting appeal to the masses as an exact science.He has never known the necessity of earning a dollar for himself or of meeting a payroll with his own money.His background and environment have ever been those of wealth, ease and luxury.Without the practical experience of breadwinning through necessity he is at a loss to grasp the real problems of labor.Roosevelt runs with the hare and holds with the hounds, for while baiting labor he clearly stands in with high finance, the so-called "Fat Boys" of big business.For instance, aboard the million dollar palace yacht Nourmahal, as guest of Vincent star, scion of another blue-blooded line, he celebratedthe late victory of the "forgotten man" in company with a select group of "economic royalists".At inauguration while insisting that "the money changers had been driven from the temple" he had just appointed as Secretary of the Treasury, Wm. Woodin, late director in more holding companies than the defamed Andrew Mellon.

CORBETT HIGH SCHOOLActivities have been very quiet this week.The play cast is rehearsing, now that parts are assigned. There are 12 characters in the play, four of which are from Bonneville. They are Ted Johnson, Gail Gipson, Charles Beatie and Keith Hill. Rehearsals are held every school night except Friday, and on Friday in the afternoon.The members of the orchestra received their letters Monday. They are red and white in the form of a lyre with C. H. S. running down the middle of it.No glee club was held this week because of the illness of Mr. Blain, the director.

Cards were given out Wednesday.

WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDE

BEING DISTRIBUTED FOR NOT RAISING CORNS .. CALLOUSES .. FOOT TROUBLES!*WOLVERINE SHELL HORSEHIDEhas showered Extra Comfort and More Wear Miles per dollar on Nation's Work Shoe Wearers for 30 years. Sensational extra dividends in comfort and wear in every pair. Millions are benefiting. The reason: They're made from Wolverine Triple Tanned Shell Leather—the inner shell leather found only in that part of the hide above the horses' hips. Wolver-ine's secret tanning process makes this 3-ply leather soft, pliable as buckskin, yet retains all its super strength. Dries out soft—stays soft. Resists scuffing and barnyard acids. Wear Wolverines. Try on a pair.WOLVERINE
