

BONNEVILLE GRADE SCHOOL. Tuesday, election day, the sixth grade made a visit to the auditorium to watch the voting, where Arthur Eade, chairman of the voting board, explained how ballots were cast. After the class returned to the school room and used sample ballots to vote. The chairman, Vito Mosca, and clerk, Sallie McMullen, handled the voting while Robert Memo, Gerald Jubie and Harry Smith counted the votes. A party sponsored by the Girls' club in honor of the football team was given in the school gym Monday evening. Faculty members and pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades attended. Mr. and Mrs. Parks presented a beautifully decorated cake to the boys of the football team. The surface of the cake was decorated by green icing with white representing a gridiron. Red and yellow gumdrop men took the place of Bonneville players while opponents were represented by black. Red and yellow pennants stood at each corner beside miniature footballs. Games were played during the evening with Charles Braund winning and Harry Smith second prize in the cellophane game. Teams in the relay race were tied. Football letters were given Monday to those who played twelve complete quarters during the season. Letters went to Harry Smith, Jack Wilson, Gerald Jubie, Vito Mosca, Harold Jubie, David Noah, Bill Murray, Norman Waggoner and Charles Braund.

PROGRESS

Columbia Construction company made a fine showing by pouring 109,000 cubic yards of concrete in the dam last month. If we'd all tackle our jobs like that we couldn't be licked!

ROOSEVELT AT THE DAM IN 1932

BETTER TIMES are ahead for the Columbia Gorge.

ARMY ENGINEERS will hold hearings on a dam at The Dalles next month. The completion of the Bonneville Dam is but the first step in the Columbia's development.

THINGS WILL COME OUR WAY if we let our advantages be known.
