

BAKING KNEADS DOUGH

Most prolific baker of bread in America is Lorin H. Bailey, a scientist in the bureau of chemistry of the Department of Agriculture in Washington. For 20 years Mr. Bailey has been baking bread, using it and grading it. The results of his work have been published in dozens of scientific papers.

Workers Dig Deep for Mammoth Dam

PWA workmen excavating for the spillway structure of the Fort Peck dam, a project in eastern Montana, financed in part by an allotment of $49,831,000 from the Public Works administration. When completed, the Fort Peck project will be the largest earth-fill dam in the world, will control floods of the Missouri river and irrigate thousands of acres of now arid land.

REPRESENTS IL DUCE

The Countess Galeazzo Ciano, the former Edda Mussolini, daughter of Italy's premier, who, according to reports, will visit New York and Washington early this winter. The countess is the wife of Foreign Minister Ciano, who may succeed Il Duce when the latter retires from political life.

Home Gas Masks Tried Out by French

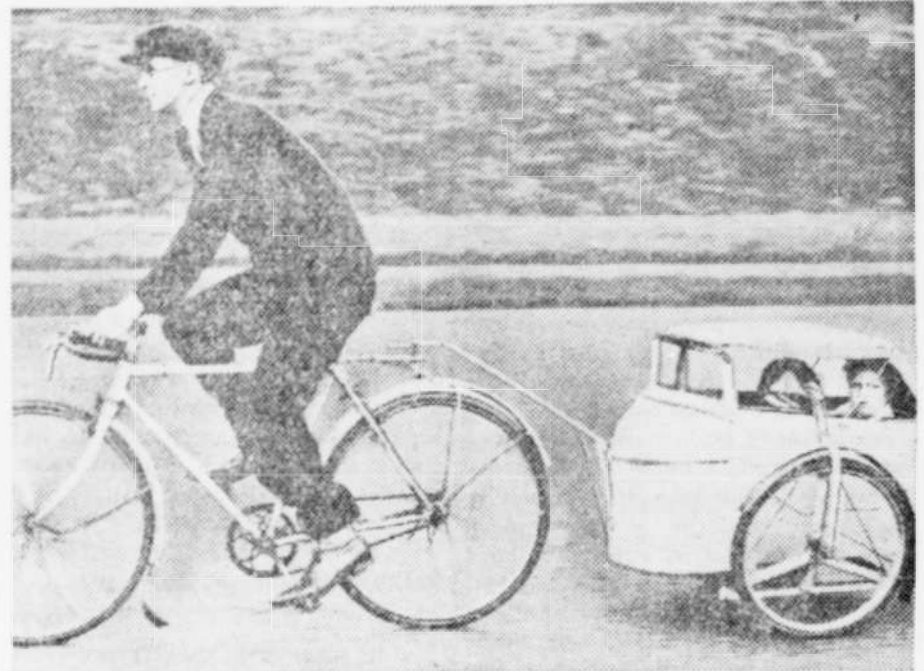

Not quite a peaceful home scene as mother and daughter, wearing gas masks, continue at their knitting during the recent rehearsal of air defenses in Paris.

"EXTRA" IS GRID STAR

Just as an "extra hand" when football season started, Fritz Waskowitz, young soph halfback of the Huskies of the University of Washington, has developed into one of the mainsprings of the squad.

Bike Trailer New Gadget for Baby

A novel streamlined trailer carries baby on a ride behind daddy's bicycle. The trailer was constructed partly of old bicycle parts and cost less than $10. It was made by a resident of East Lancashire, England.

"REEL" RIFLE

Pretty Maurine Kerns, of Miami, is shown with her home-made reel rifle, designed by W. M. Kerns. The gun operates by means of stout rubber bands which charge a steel arrow tied to a reel line under the barrel. The fish is speared (if the angler is a good marksman) and reeled in.

Boy Scout Heads Pay Homage to 'Teddy' Roosevelt

Daniel Beard, national commissioner of Boy Scouts, places a wreath on the grave of Theodore Roosevelt during the exercises on the seventeenth annual pilgrimage of the Boy Scouts to the grave of the late President. Left to right: a Boy Scout; A. H. Weytingh, a Brazilian Boy Scout; Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr.; Commissioner Beard, and Walter W. Head, president of the Boy Scouts.

NEW ARMY UNIFORM

An officer's full dress uniform of blue which has recently been adopted by the War department. The new uniform has a roll collar coat and light blue trousers, and its wear is to be optional. Officers who are in possession of the old blue uniforms will be permitted to wear them without a time limit, according to a ruling of the War department at Washington, D. C.