Gun Bellows: "Enemy, Stay Away From My Shore"

Bo-o-o-m! As the camera shutter snaps a 1,500-pound projectile goes 25 miles out to sea from the muzzle of this 14-inch railway gun at the U. S. army proving grounds, Aberdeen, Md. It is one of our mobile defense guns that can say in a very loud voice, "We don't want trouble, so please keep your distance."

Esther Is a Jill of Many Trades

Maybe the Jack-of-all-trades is always a man, but Esther Burg of Brooklyn, N. Y., can make quite a showing as locksmith, electrician and mechanic. Her forte, however, is key-making, at which she shines brilliantly. She is shown here at work in her father's store.

WINS "PEACE" ESSAY

Edna Falk, seventeen-year-old Pueblo, Colo., girl, whose essay on peace, and the Statue of Liberty, won first prize over 100,000 entrants. Edna is shown wearing a silk print dress featuring the Latin "Pax" for peace which she wore at the fiftieth anniversary celebration for the statue recently. As part of Edna's award, she is making a three-weeks' tour of France under the auspices of the Federation of French Veterans.

Roosevelt Victory Sets New Record

Re-elected to another four-year term in the White House in a landslide that broke all previous records, President Roosevelt swept the electoral votes of 46 out of the 48 states. For Roosevelt and his running mate, Vice President John N. Garner, there were 523 electoral votes, compared with 8 electoral votes from two states, Maine and Vermont, won by his Republican opponent, Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas.

DENTAL PRODIGY

Smiling at you is Paul Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bartlett of Medford, Mass., who started teething at the age of three months, and now has a dozen molars to his credit, a month before his first birthday. If early teething indicates good health, then young Paul seems to be well on his way to become some man.

The Scientist's

Scientists are individuals with the trait of curiosity highly developed. The ordinary mortal is content to accept things as they are, but the scientist ever is trying to discover new phenomena in the field in which he works.
