(By Mrs. Walter McElroy)

New Residents

New residents in Bonneve are Mr. and Mrs. William Carlson, who have moved into the H. A. Wolff cabin, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Beecher of Gresham, who have taken the cabin recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moehleppah.

Framework Burns

"Smoke gets in your eyes" could have been sung most appropriately by Mrs. Edgar Cosby on Wednesday of last week when the framework around the chimney in her cabin caught on fire. It might have developed into a most damaging blaze had Mrs. Cosby not discovered it when she did. Other than burning the framework and filling the house with smoke the damage was small.

Watch Year Out

Many Bonneville families watched the old year out and the new year in—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moehleppah, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson Jr. Cards were in play during the evening. The children here are singing "School Days" after a wonderful vacation during the holidays.

Raises Bull Frogs

A Texas farmer who said the depression broke him, leased an abandoned rice irrigation canal, dammed up both ends, bought nine pairs of jumbo bull frogs and went in the frog business. Sells one-pound frogs to fancy hotel trade; feeds them nothing at all, lets them find their own bugs; estimates he will sell $3,000 worth of frogs during 1936. Fancy frogs sell as high as $3 a dozen, he says.

Discovered at Last

In the heart of the Colorado Rockies is an area comprising 2,100 square miles which until recently was actually No-Man's Land. Officially, it was omitted by mistake from all treaties with France, Spain, and Mexico, which ceded that region to the United States. On August 8, last, it was properly "annexed" with speeches and a flag-raising ceremony.

The man who wants to get in a few words now and then after he is married should try marrying a woman who stutters.

Middle-age is that period in a man's life when most of his ailments can be cured by taking a nap.
