Here's Swell Game for Flu Victims— "What's His Name?"

MAYBE it's not a very good game but anyhow it's better than the flu and so the nurse, the doctor and the patient can play it.

All you do is remember some nickname that once was spread across the sports pages or was otherwise familiar to thousands of cash customers at athletic arenas. Then you laugh fiendishly, while your playmates try to recall the baptismal monicker of the party associated with it.

For instance—But probably you have a good sports memory, too. If so—What's His Name?

- 1—The Honest Blacksmith
- 2—Americus.
- 3—Silent Mike.
- 4—Canada's Boy in Blue.
- 5—Old Smoke.
- 6—The Boy Plunger.
- 7—The Boy Wonder (Billiards).
- 8—The Boy Wonder (First of the numerous baseball heroes with that nickname).
- 9—The Molly McGuire (baseball team).
- 10—The Wizard (Billiards).
- 11—The Black Archer.
- 12—The Indoor King.
- 13—The Whoa Back. (Just to make the jinx number more complicated this is a football play.)

Now if You've Not Peeked Here Are the Answers

For the benefit of those who have not peeked the answers are printed below. Some easy ones were inserted here and there but those getting 10 correct can award themselves medals and go to the head of the class.

1—Famous prizefight referee and generally credited with being the first referee ever to enter the ring wearing a dinner suit.

2—Gus Schoenlein. A very good light-heavyweight wrestler of 15 years or so ago.

3—Silent Mike Tiernan. A pitcher who became one of the greatest of all time right fielders. He played for the original New York Giants.

4—Edward Hanlan, who was born in Toronto in 1855 and became the greatest of all single scullers.

5—Another of the names for the Hon. John Morrissey, who won the American heavyweight championship in 1853, was elected to congress and provided Saratoga with its first high-class gambling.

6—Riley Grannon, one of the most famous of race-track bettors. When Henry of Navarre ran that celebrated dead heat with Domino, Riley had 100 G's riding on Henry.

7—Willie Hoppe.

8—Arthur Cummings. As early as 1868 he was advertised all over the country by that name and for the fact that he was the only man in the world who could make a ball curve. It was a sweeping outcurve and he pitched it for, among others, the Famous Stars of Brooklyn at the old Capitoline grounds.

9—The Cleveland Club's name in the days when the eminent Deacon McGuire was manager.

10—Jack Schaefer, Sr. Greatest of them all at rail play, once having run 3,000 points on the rail without a miss and the run unfinished.

11—Isaac Murphy, most celebrated of all negro jockeys.

12—Jay Eaton, one of the most noted bicycle riders of the Nineties. 13—Stagg invented it so that Chicago could beat a well-favored Michigan eleven, 15 to 6, in 1900. It consisted mainly in having a pusher back of the fullback in plunges through the line.

His friends insist that the dearest ambition of Branch Rickey, very able head of the St. Louis Cards baseball syndicate, is to own the Brooklyn Dodgers. When the celebrated Wall Street and Washington expert, Dan McKetrick, was a fight manager he used to drink the contents of the corner water bottle before his boxer had gone four rounds. Just got nervous and couldn't help it. If, thirty years or so ago, a young law student had not been offered $50 to pitch a ball game, Gene McCann might right now be a member of the Maryland Bar instead of a very able Yankee scout.

Cecilia Colledge, tops among the British amateur figure skaters, is teaching Yankee lassies a trick or two they never understand. By insisting that she is entering the movies strictly on her acting ability she retains her amateur sports standing. And, by the same token, she can continue to get pretty publicity because of devotion to her hobby, amateur skating competition.

NOT IN THE BOX SCORE:

UNLESS he receives the $15,000 which he is more than worth, Van Mungo probably will be baseball's toughest 1937 holdout. Joe Louis pays no rent in Chicago. The Bomber and Marva recently moved into their own building, a six-suite apartment house which Louis purchased with his bit from the Schmeling affair. Myer Aaronson, all-New Jersey high school guard last year, is high scorer for the George Washington university frosh basketball team. George Read, the celebrated turf clocker, used to train game cocks and once conditioned a start that was undefeated in 11 battles.

Senator (by personal nomination) Wild Bill Lyons carries a can that is, in reality, a Winchester rifle. It is a gift from Mrs. James A. Farley, wife of Bill's pal, the Postmaster General. Big Bill Dwyer, the turf and hockey magnate, once was an usher in a theater. Fight Announcer Harry Balogh has a tough time pleasing his rival bosses. At the Hippodrome he wears a dinner jacket, per orders. At the Garden he does not wear a dinner jacket, per orders. Tex Rickard, who built the Miami Beach dog track, died the night it opened.

Bookies who squawked all summer about how tough the grind was in New York are having easier going at Miami. About 25 of the better known price makers are assembled there and, although Tropical Park is decorated with numerous signs prohibiting bookmaking, a whisper, a wink or a gesture does wonders. The best prospect on the N. Y. U. frosh basketball team is Bobby Lewis, who played for the championship DeWitt Clinton high quintet. His brother Normie is co-captain of the Violet fencing team. Johnny Kilbane, former featherweight champion, is active in promoting amateur boxing in Cleveland. That town, by the way, is erecting a new 16,000-seat indoor arena and plans to be represented in the big time hockey and pro football leagues next year.

Springfield college has instituted community singing between the halves of its basketball games. Basketball, incidentally, seems to breed iron men. Johnny Moir, leading scorer of the Notre Dame team which will attempt to repeat against N. Y. U. in New York in February, broke his jaw in a recent contest. One game later he was starring against Northwestern. Boxing's latest mystery is—"Who snatched the pen with which the signing was done for the Braddock-Schmeling match?" It belonged to Deputy Commissioner Joe McOwen and when last seen was in the hand of the Garden matchmaker.

Wants to Spike Myth About Fondness for Eels

Lou Gehrig wishes someone would spike that eel legend. Says he hates the damn things, never did like 'em and that everywhere the Gehrigs go the hostess invariably comes up with a special dish of 'em. They say Frankie Frisch traded Rip Collins because he observed the fellow climbing up into the press box one day, clad in uniform and clamoring for a chance to get off his story to a Rochester newspaper. . . . Is there some more bad feeling on the Red Sox because Business Manager Collins went over Field Manager Cronin's head to appoint Bing Miller as coach? . . . Lew Young, six foot six inch center, has resigned from the Wyoming university basketball team in the strong Rocky Mountain conference. Said he "needed a better job" in order to continue in school.

Would an investigation reveal that Schmeling's end of the forthcoming purse already has been assigned to a New York promoter? Not, of course, to avoid surrendering the $25,000 good faith forfeit the State Athletic Commission has demanded. . . . Dr. Thurman B. Rice, director of health education in Indiana high schools, says that basketball is being overemphasized in his state. Also says this is resulting in a neglect of other sports and is a condition that will carry over into adult life. . . . Sixteen different jockeys won the first 16 races at Tropical Park. . . . The Giants' Horace Stoneham, youngest of big time baseball club presidents, once was a mechanic at a auto race track.

Col. Jake Ruppert estimates his baseball holdings at $7,000,000. . . . Mel Harder, Cleveland pitcher, recently underwent treatment for ulcerated teeth at Rochester, Minn. . . . Babe Seibert and Eddie Shore played side by side in the Boston Bruins' lineup all last season without speaking to each other. . . . All the heavyweight boxing champions of England, since Jem Mace, are still alive.

One more Moore in the National league would make a ball team. Right now the Reds have Dee and Lloyd Moore; the Cardinals Herb and Terry Moore; the Bees Gene Moore; the Phils John Moore; the Dodgers Randy Moore; and the Giants Joe Moore. . . the longest steady "sewing job" in hockey history was the night Helge Bostrom, a Blackhawk, had 126 stitches taken in his instep. The job took three hours.
