

CASCADE LOCKS

(By Mrs. Clara Nix)

Must Get New Licenses

Anyone desiring application blanks for re-registration of operator's licenses may obtain them at Morgan's Standard Service station. All operators must make application not later than June 30, 1937.

Mrs. Hagblom Honored

A pleasant surprise party was given for Mrs. Charles Hagblom on her birthday last Friday. The party was planned and held at Mrs. Anna Hagblom's home. Lovely refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Hagblom received some lovely gifts. The guests included Mesdames August Peterson, Sue Woodward, Dorothy Rosenback, Charles Olin, Jerry Woodward, Silver Perras and Inez Sundsten.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlson are proud possessors of a new 1937 Oldsmobile.

Mrs. Charles Nelson returned home Saturday after spending a very enjoyable week in The Dalles with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson.

In the audience of the Music festival in Hood River Friday, the following were seen from the Locks: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Embree, the Mesdames Maude Broliar, Joe Morris, M. L. Morgan, Gertrude McKinnon, Roy Weeman, and the Misses Jeffries, Bradley, Buche and McLeod.

Mrs. Lester Sprague and daughter Eileen were Portland shoppers last Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weber were week-end visitors in Portland. Mr. Weber, the master of ceremonies at the Lakeside hotel Thursday nights, was in search of talent for the floor show.

Miss Inetta Butler favored the patrons with a few clever tap dances and has promised to be on hand on Thursday night again.

Russ Nichols was a business visitor in Hood River Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Glasgow moved from the Lakeview addition to a Columbia house on the island in Bonneville.

Malcolm McKinnon became ill with pneumonia quite suddenly this week. We do hope this isn't very serious. Everyone seems to be having colds this spring. However this is the first bad case reported and we hope the last.

The sewing club was entertained by Mrs. Grandstrom in her lovely home last Wednesday. Mrs. Art Warren was hostess.

George Howe, chef at the Lakeside hotel, made a trip to Portland Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Cobb left Friday for Oakland, Calif., for an indefinite stay.

Dubbie Merrill and Ted McGarrigle made a trip to Portland Saturday and spent the week-end with Ted's grandmother. The boys had a very exciting week-end, they said. Most of their fun was had at Janzen beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hagblom and daughter Lois, and Norma Hepner of Warrington, Ore., were weekend guests at the Charles Hagblom home.

Mrs. Kate Hardy and granddaughter Jean accompanied Ivan Embree on a business trip to Portland Saturday.

Joe Morris, who is now employed at Walla Walla, was home over the week-end.

M. L. Morgan and son Robert drove to Boardman Sunday and visited relatives.

Frank Banks, Gilbert Banks, and All Nelson were home over the week-end from Mosier where they are fishing for the MacGowan company.

Charles Blake left for Rainier Park to be gone a week.

Mrs. Stanley Sporseen returned from her vacation, of several weeks, spent in California visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Epping spent Mother's Day with their mothers in Hood River.

Silver Perras, who is working for Karl Rosenback on the Warco, was home visiting his family over the week-end.

Jim Merrill is home from Soap Lake enjoying a visit with his wife and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Millsap and daughter Suzanne motored to North Bonneville Sunday evening and enjoyed a show.

Miss Audrey Titus was shopping in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. Wilbur and Mrs. S. S. Stevens were in Hood River last week shopping.

The Cecil McCullough family have moved to a ranch near Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Murray were in Portland last week-end. They took their baby to a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnson of Coulee and formerly of the Locks were visitors at the Roy Cook home last week.

John Grill and Dick Brown of Washougal were here visiting Viola Brink last week.

Donald Clark came up from Portland Sunday to visit his parents.

Mrs. Charlie Blake spent the week-end in Portland with relatives.

Tommy Brannon made a trip to Walla Walla Monday.

Mrs. Hank Munkres, Zulima Munkres and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grinnell drove to Bend Thursday and enjoyed a visit with relatives until Sunday.

Ross Johnson and sister, Mrs. Johnson, moved to Portland this week. Mr. Johnson is employed at the dam and intends to drive back and forth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hammond spent several days last week in Oregon City.

Alex Erickson came up from Portland where he is working and spent the week-end with his wife.

Ed Trimble and mother and sister, Dora, came up from Portland Sunday and were guests of the J. D. Kyles. Mrs. Trimble remained here for a week's stay with her daughter.

Mrs. Ray Wedgewood is in Portland this week receiving medical attention. The Ceciliani family are moving to Gresham this week.

The Morans are doing a little spring cleaning. They have been giving the kitchen a new coat of paint.

Jerry Rankin spent the week-end at Stevenson with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Rankin and Pete Hazard were Sunday guests at the C. L. Rankin home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Belshaw and Mrs. Frank Moran were shopping in Portland Wednesday. They also attended a show.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Stevens drove to The Dalles last Sunday.

Mrs. B. M. Clapperton and daughter Carlene of Portland are here for a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moffett.

Julius Bogden of Portland stopped for a brief visit with the Louis Valens while en route to Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tharp made a business trip to Vancouver Monday. Mrs. Noble Hyde was a luncheon guest of Mrs. Frank Strader Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Folen of Portland celebrated Mother's Day with Mrs. Folen's mother, Mrs. Harry Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walters moved to Portland Friday.

Joe Miller and Arthur Nix were fishing as usual on Sunday. They tried their luck in Tony creek in Hood River.

Erlan Rosenback made a trip to Hood River Sunday to visit Mrs. Karl Rosenback.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Merrill and son Jimmy drove to Portland Monday on business.

M. L. Morgan and son Bob were shopping in Portland Monday. Mr.

Morgan went to see Miss Gustafson who is quite ill in the hospital. He says she probably won't be back for the rest of the term as she is not improving very fast.

Mrs. Max Millsap spent last week-end in Vancouver visiting friends.

Miss Bradley spent the week-end in Portland.

Wilma Lovell took a number of the children to Hood River Saturday to attend the track meet there.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Bonneville and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carns drove to The Dalles Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson.

Mrs. Arthur Nix and Mrs. Joe Miller drove over to Stevenson Sunday and enjoyed dinner with Mrs. Nix's mother, Mrs. Frank Easley.

Hank Kruse spent the week-end at Goldendale with his wife.

Mrs. W. L. Palemo gave a lovely luncheon last Tuesday for her friends. Guests were Mrs. Otis Altimus and daughter Diane, Mrs. Leo Cook and Mrs. Roy Cook. After the luncheon the ladies enjoyed a lovely hike up to Dry creek falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark are the proud parents of a baby boy weighing seven pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strader and son Toughy drove to The Dalles Sunday and visited relatives. While there the Straders also enjoyed a show.

Mrs. M. Harrington, Mrs. Jess Glasgow, Mrs. Lee Murray and Mrs. H. J. Titus drove to Moffett creek last Wednesday to attend a luncheon and play cards at the home of Mrs. R. Hughes.

Corporal and Mrs. K. W. Cornell of Ft. Stevens and Mrs. C. H. Worell of Grays River, Wash., drove down Saturday and spent Mother's Day in the H. J. Titus home. Corporal Cornell is a son of Mrs. Titus. Mrs. Agnes Brannon made a trip to The Dalles Thursday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Nate Davis.

Mrs. M. Dunn of Washougal recently purchased Todd's restaurant on the highway between the Locks and Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. Todd and family are leaving for California as soon as school is out.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Brannon and Mrs. Agnes Brannon were in Portland last Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Altimus enjoyed a drive to Cooper Spur Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Knopp gave a lovely bridal shower for her sister, Jerry Rankin, Monday afternoon. The guests included all of Jerry's school friends who showered her with many lovely and useful gifts.

Mrs. Hank Munkres and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grinnell, drove to Salem Tuesday to visit with relatives. They returned on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carns were Friday evening dinner guests at the Johnson home in Bonneville.

Pensioners Organize

First of its kind in the state, the Hood River County Old Age Pension club was organized at a recent meeting of persons receiving old age assistance in this county. Chairman of the advisory board is J. D. Gibson. Other board members are James W. Dakan, A. I. Mason, Charles L. Bishop and J. N. Griffith. E. A. Miller is secretary for the group.

Voting isn't easy. It takes some figuring to have anybody left after voting against those you don't approve.

KEIR'S PHONE DRUG STORE HOOD RIVER 1351 RELIABLE DRUGGISTS

Handsome, Sturdy Westclox Wrist Watch

● You'll see him on the wrists of bankers and bricklayers, matrons and maids—this new Wrist Ben. He's handsome enough for any company. Sturdy enough for the most active worker. Wrist Ben has a beautiful chrome plated case, rich two-tone dial with second hand, clear, non-breakable crystal. Chrome plated link bracelet or black leather strap. A reliable timekeeper at a very reasonable price. See Wrist Ben and other famous Westclox in the Clock and Watch Section.

WRIST BEN...$3.95

Max Factor's COLOR-HARMONY MAKE-UP

Powder, Rouge and Lipstick in lifelike color-tones that harmonize with each type of blonde, brunette, brownette and redhead.

Max Factor's Face Powder . . . $1
Max Factor's Rouge50c
Max Factor's Super-Indelible Lipstick $1

Sundries

Squibbs—37c
3 for 89c
Giant Colgate 33c

Lady Lillian 10c
Cutex—33c

1 pt. Heavy
Oil—49c
Qt.—89c
1 Gallon—$1.98

25c size—15c

5 for 27c
12 for 63c

10c
3 for 25c

6 oz. Squibb—23c
Lge. Johnson's—49c
Nyal—15c

R. O. Sche, Jeweler
Hood River

KEIR'S
PHONE DRUG STORE
RELIABLE DRUGGISTS
PHONE 1351 - HOOD RIVER