

Sixteen Get Diplomas At Bonneville

The graduating class of the Bonneville grade school held their commencement exercises last Wednesday evening. Those receiving diplomas were: Sallie McMullen, Hugh Memovich, Dixie Goodrich, Russell Hadman, Edith Shinn, Harry Smith, Jack Wilson, Robert Memovich, Olga Georgeoff, Gerald Jubie, Harold Jubie, Dale Lewis, Albert Price, Vitto Mosse, David Noah and Lester Parks.

The address to the graduates was made by Rev. Aschenbrenner. Principal Robertson presided and Frank C. Linton, chairman of the local school board, presented the diplomas. Legion Commander J. T. Olsen presented the annual American Legion medals and certificates of merit. The awards, granted on a basis of scholarship, leadership and qualities of character, went to Dixie Goodrich, Robert Memovich, Sallie McMullen, and Billie Fargher.

The program consisted of a mouse dance by the first and second grades, a gypsy dance by the third and fourth grades and singing by the glee club.

The P.-T. A. entertained the graduates with a banquet at the Roosevelt inn on Friday night.
